WELLINGTON MARA
PRESIDENT & CO-CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICER

No one in the history of professional sports has enjoyed a career quite like that of Wellington T. Mara. This is the 81st consecutive season in which he is associated with the Giants. The city of New York was introduced to professional football on Oct. 18, 1925, when the New York Giants played their first home game against the Frankford Yellow Jackets. It was on that day that Mara, then nine years old, began a lifetime in football that has been dedicated to the Giants and the National Football League.

In 1930, Timothy J. Mara, who had purchased the franchise in 1925, turned over the ownership to his two sons, Jack, 22 and Wellington, who was then 14. Thus began a storied career in ownership that continues today. During that time Mara has been the foundation of the franchise, and for many years he was the chief decision-maker on all football matters. Although he now leaves most football decisions to others, he remains a strong, active and vital presence in the organization.

Because of his extensive background in the development and growth of the National Football League, Mara is recognized as one of the league's most respected and influential leaders. He has been instrumental in the outstanding accomplishments of the Giants: 26 postseason appearances (the second-highest total in league history), including 18 NFL Divisional championships and six NFL championships, among them the Super Bowl XXI and Super Bowl XXV titles. Mara was elected to the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1997. Mara and his father, who was a charter member of the Hall of Fame, were the first father and son duo to be accorded pro football's highest honor. They now share that mark of distinction with Art and Dan Rooney of the Pittsburgh Steelers.

Mara has been involved in every aspect of operating the Giants during his eight decades with the team. His first job was a ballboy at training camp. In time he graduated from the on-the-field operations to scouting and general organization, and eventually to the front office executive capacity, where he now serves as President and Co-Chief Executive Officer. The only interruption in Mara's Giants career was during World War II, when he served with distinction for more than three years in the Navy, seeing action in both the Atlantic and Pacific theaters aboard aircraft carriers and emerging as a Lieutenant Commander.

In addition to serving the Giants admirably for so many years, Mara has also been an invaluable contributor to league efforts as a member of many ownership committees. Indeed, he has always put the league's interests ahead of what was best for the Giants. From 1971 until 1977, he was Chairman of the Executive Committee of the NFL Management Council, the labor arm of the NFL, and under his leadership the league achieved five years of labor peace from 1977 to 1981. Mara was elected President of the National Football Conference in 1984, succeeding the late George Halas in that role. Mara is currently a member of the Hall of Fame committee, as well as the Executive Committee of the Management Council. He was a member of the Competition Committee, replacing Vince Lombardi after his death, for one year before leaving to join the Management Council. He also serves as President of the National Football Conference.

In 1925, Wellington's father, Tim, purchased the Giants franchise to establish a New York entry in the fledgling National Football League. The Mara family's presence has continued without interruption to this day. Jack Mara served as the club's President until his death in 1965. After Jack passed away, his son Tim served as Vice President and Treasurer of the team until Bob Tisch purchased the Jack Mara holdings in 1991. Today, three of Wellington's sons are important members of the organization: John as Executive Vice President and Chief Operating Officer; Chris as Vice President of Player Evaluation; and Frank as Director of Promotions.

Until 1965, Wellington Mara was responsible for the franchise's football decisions, while Jack Mara handled the business operations of the team. The Giants played in five NFL Championship Games from 1958-63 and a key to that success were trades engineered by Wellington Mara that brought Y.A. Tittle, Andy Robustelli, Del Shofner, Dick Modzelewski, Pat Summerall, Joe Walton, Dick Lynch, Erich Barnes, Bill Svoboda, Harland Svare, Bob Schnelker, Herb Rich, Ed Hughes and Walt Yowarsky, among others, to the Giants. Draft choices Frank Gifford and Rosie Brown went on to become members of the Pro Football Hall of Fame, as did Tuffy Leemans, whom Wellington had recommended in 1936.

Wellington T. Mara, whose nickname is "Duke," was born on Aug. 14, 1916 in New York City. He graduated from Loyola High School before matriculating to Fordham University, where he earned his degree in 1937. His brother, Jack, preceded him to Fordham, where he earned a law degree. But Wellington was only interested in joining his father with the Giants and did so immediately after graduation. He has been with the organization ever since.

Wellington married the former Ann Mumm in 1954 and the Maras have 11 children: John Kevin, Susan Ann, Timothy Christopher, Stephen Vincent, Francis Xavier, Sheila Marie, Kathleen Mary, Maureen Elizabeth, Ann Marie, Meghan Ann, and Colleen Elizabeth. The Maras, who reside in Rye, N.Y., also have 40 grandchildren.

THE ORIGINAL GIANTS - THE 1925 TEAM

PRESTON ROBERT TISCH
CHAIRMAN & CO-CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICER

Preston Robert Tisch realized a longtime dream in 1991, when he became co-owner of one of New York City's and professional sports' premier franchises, the New York Giants. Soon after the Giants won Super Bowl XXV, Tisch completed negotiations with Tim Mara and his family for a 50 percent interest in the team. That commenced Tisch's career as an owner of a professional sports franchise, which is one of many careers he simultaneously pursues.

At Loews Corporation, one of the country's most successful financial companies, Tisch serves as Chairman and Director. The Company, with a 2004 net income of $1.2 billion and assets exceeding $74 billion, owns and operates 91 percent of CNA Financial Corporation; 100 percent of Lorillard; 100 percent of Boardwalk Pipelines, which consists of Texas Gas Transmission and Gulf South Pipelines; 52 percent of Diamond Offshore Drilling; 100 percent of Loews Hotels and 100 percent of Bulova.

The Company's history dates back to a summer camp in New Jersey run by Tisch and his late brother, Laurence, followed by the purchase of a hotel in Lakewood, N.J., and the formation of Tisch Hotels, Inc.

In 1959, the Tisch brothers bought controlling interest in Loews Theaters, Inc., a real estate-rich theater chain. In 1971, after Loews acquired Lorillard Tobacco, its name was changed to Loews Corporation.

Tisch served as Postmaster General of the United States from Aug. 1986 until returning to New York in March 1988. Prior to his appointment as Postmaster, he served as President and Chief Operating Officer of Loews Corporation and its corporate predecessor, Loews Theaters, Inc., a position held from 1960 until his appointment as Co-Chairman and Co-CEO.

Throughout his career, Tisch has been a tireless and influential participant in civic affairs. In Feb. 2000, he helped found Take the Field, Inc., a non-profit organization dedicated to renovating and rebuilding the athletic fields at New York City's public high schools. Tisch, a product of those schools, is Chairman of Take the Field, Inc. He launched the organization with a $1 million donation, and has already raised more than $147 million in public and private dollars.

Tisch served as Chairman of the New York Convention & Visitors Bureau for 19 years and currently serves as the Bureau's (now called NYC & Co.) Chairman Emeritus. He was also founding Chairman of the New York City Convention and Exhibition Center Corporation and Chairman of the Citizens Committee for the Democratic National Conventions held in New York City in 1976 and 1980.

In May 1990, Mayor David Dinkins appointed Tisch as New York City's Ambassador to Washington, D.C.. Through 1993, he served as a liaison between the City of New York and his friends and colleagues in both the national government in Washington, D.C. and the business community in New York City.

From 1990-1993, Tisch served as Chairman of the New York City Partnership, Inc. and the New York Chamber of Commerce and Industry, where he was instrumental in developing a campaign to enhance New York's position as an international business center. He remains an active member of both organizations, now merged, where he continues to serve on the Board of Directors. A founding Co-Chairman of Citymeals-on-Wheels, he was President of the Board of Directors from 1993 to 2002, and now serves on the Board as Honorary Chairman. He also served as chairman of Public Private Initiative, a public private partnership that raises funds for important community programs, from 1997 to 1998.

Tisch is also a Trustee of New York University.

In addition to these involvements, Tisch makes considerable time for the Giants. In his role as Chairman and Co-Chief Executive Officer, he plays an active role in the organization. As a member of the National Football League's Finance and Super Bowl Policy Committees, he has attained a prominence in the sports arena equal to his position in the world of business.

Tisch was born in New York City. He attended Bucknell University before entering the Army in 1944. After military service in World War II, he earned a B.A. degree in economics from the University of Michigan in 1948. Tisch is married to the former Joan Hyman, and they have three children: Steven, Laurie and Jonathan, who is Treasurer of the Giants. Tisch lives with his wife in New York City and Rye, N.Y.

NEW YORK GIANTS ADMINISTRATION

JOHN K. MARA
EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT & CHIEF OPERATING OFFICER

John K. Mara, the oldest son of team President Wellington Mara and the Giants' Executive Vice President and Chief Operating Officer, is in his fifteenth season with the franchise. In his present position, Mara, who joined the Giants in 1991, is responsible for all administrative, legal and financial aspects of the organization.

Mara also serves on the influential NFL Competition Committee, which studies all aspects of the game and recommends rules and policy changes to NFL clubs, as well as the league's Employee Benefits Committee.

Mara was born in New York City on Dec. 1, 1954, grew up in Westchester County in White Plains and graduated from Iona Prep High School in New Rochelle. He attended Boston College where he received a B.S. degree in marketing, graduating with Cum Laude honors in 1976. Mara earned his Law Degree from Fordham University in 1979 and then began his career as an attorney with the New York law firm of Vedder, Price, Kaufman, Kammholz and Day, specializing in labor and employment law and litigation. Two years later he moved to the Manhattan firm of Shea & Gould, where he practiced until joining the Giants in 1991.

Mara serves on the Board of Directors of Saint Vincent's Hospital in Harrison, N.Y., The School of the Holy Child, also in Harrison, N.Y., and Catholic Charities for the Archdiocese of Newark.

Away from the office, Mara has been actively involved for more than a dozen years in coaching youth basketball, baseball and softball.

John and his wife, the former Denise Walter, are the parents of five children: Lauren, 24; Courtney, 22; John Jr., 21; Christine, 19 and Erin, 15. The Mara family resides in Harrison, N.Y.

THE 1938 TEAM

JONATHAN M. TISCH
TREASURER

Jonathan M. Tisch joined the Giants in Feb. 1991 and immediately began his role as Treasurer. In addition to serving on the Giants Board of Directors, Tisch is Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of Loews Hotels, and has been at the helm of the company since 1989. He is also a member of the Office of the President for the hotel chain's parent company, Loews Corporation, one of the largest diversified financial holding companies in the U.S., and serves on its Board of Directors.

During his tenure, Tisch has engineered the hotel company's expansion and emergence as a leading luxury chain by infusing the properties with a widely praised corporate culture that places a high value on partnerships. His leadership philosophy, explored in his best-selling book, The Power of We: Succeeding Through Partnerships, provides a blueprint for achieving enduring success through partnerships that empower employees, satisfy customers, contribute to communities, and improve the bottom line. To get a better perspective on the essential connection between upper management and entry-level employees, Tisch starred in the premier episode of "Now Who's Boss?", a television series by TLC and New York Times Television, that explored what happens when a CEO is put back in frontline positions at his own company.

Recognized as a national leader of the multi-billion dollar travel and tourism industry, Tisch has served since 1995 as Chairman of the Travel Business Roundtable, a prominent coalition of chief executives representing various sectors of the travel and tourism industry, and in 2003, he was appointed to the United States Department of Commerce U.S. Travel and Tourism Promotion Advisory Board. Tisch also served a five-year term as an officer of the American Hotel & Lodging Association, culminating in his Chairmanship of the organization in 1997.

In his role as a national leader of travel and tourism, Tisch frequently can be seen in the media touting the industry's importance to the economy as a vehicle for economic development and job creation. He has received numerous honors and accolades for his leadership, including "Hotel Person of the Year" by Travel Agent magazine, one of the "Business Travel Industry's Most Influential Executives" by Business Travel News, and one of the "25 Most Influential People in the Meetings Industry" by Meeting News magazine.

Tisch is also committed to a vibrant tourism industry in New York City, where he serves as Chairman of NYC & Company, the city's official tourism agency and local convention and visitors bureau. Concurrent with his national efforts to help stimulate travel and tourism in the aftermath of Sept. 11th, Tisch was asked to serve as Chairman of "New York Rising," a task force set up to help rebuild the city by reviving tourism. In recognition for his leadership and civic involvement, Crain's New York Business named Tisch one of the "Top Ten Most Influential Business Leaders."

Believing you can do well and do good at the same time, Tisch is a champion of corporate responsibility and his community and philanthropic activities are extensive. He served as the Vice-Chairman of The Welfare to Work Partnership, and currently serves on the Board of Trustees for Tufts University, as well as on the Boards of the World Trade Center Memorial Foundation, Elizabeth Glaser Pediatric AIDS Foundation, the Tribeca Film Institute and the Business Council for the Metropolitan Museum of Art.

After graduating from Tufts University, Tisch worked as a Cinematographer/Producer at WBZ-TV in Boston, for which he received two local Emmy nominations.

NEW YORK GIANTS ADMINISTRATION

ERNIE ACCORSI
SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT & GENERAL MANAGER

Ernie Accorsi, the senior general manager in the National Football League, is in his eighth season as head of the New York Giants' football operations. Accorsi joined the organization in 1994 as assistant general manager to George Young and was named general manager on Jan. 8, 1998. He previously served as general manager for two other National Football League clubs, the Baltimore Colts (1982-83) and Cleveland Browns (1985-92).

In his last 14 years as a general manager with the Browns and Giants, Accorsi has had seven playoff teams, including five division champions. He is one of only four general managers who have had teams play in four championship games, won a conference championship and had a team play in the Super Bowl. The others are the late Don Klosterman, Bobby Beathard and Bill Polian.

Accorsi passed the 100-victory mark as an NFL general manager in 2001. The Giants, Browns and Colts have won a combined 124 regular season and postseason games under his stewardship.

"I believe this job is a privilege," Accorsi said. "For someone who first saw the New York Giants play in my hometown of Hershey, Pa. in a preseason game against the Philadelphia Eagles, the dream that you could be in this position is really more than you could ever expect."

Accorsi's best season with New York was 2000, when the Giants were 12-4 and NFC East champions in the regular season and defeated Philadelphia and Minnesota in the playoffs to reach the Super Bowl for the first time in a decade – with a roster in which 66 percent of the players were acquired by Accorsi after he succeeded Young.

Following the season Accorsi received many honors. He was named the winner of the Lamar Hunt Award as the Pro Football Executive of the Year, which is presented by the All-American Football Foundation. Accorsi was also named Football Executive of the Year by the New Jersey Sportswriters Association, which said Accorsi was the "unsung hero" of the Giants march to the Super Bowl.

Accorsi was the recipient of the first John Steadman Award presented by the Ed Block Courage Award Foundation, an award that honors an individual who "continually demonstrates professional excellence and epitomizes the values of courage, character, compassion, commitment and service to the community." Accorsi was a close friend of Steadman, the late, great and much-loved Baltimore sports columnist. Accorsi has been affiliated with the Ed Block Foundation since its inception in 1978.

In addition, Accorsi received the Jack Horrigan Award, which is presented by the Professional Football Writers Association of America to the NFL official who is helpful and cooperative to reports covering the league. Accorsi is widely known as one of the most accessible, candid and personable executives in professional sports.

Accorsi, who has long demonstrated a willingness to make bold moves to improve his teams, completed perhaps the most significant transaction of his career on the first day of the 2004 NFL Draft. In a blockbuster trade, he acquired quarterback Eli Manning, the No. 1 overall pick in the NFL Draft, from the San Diego Chargers. Accorsi sent San Diego the Giants' first-round draft choice, quarterback Philip Rivers, as well as a 2004 third-round choice and first and fifth-round picks in 2005 for Manning, a franchise quarterback who set 47 school records at the University of Mississippi. Manning became the Giants' starting quarterback with seven games remaining in his rookie season, a position he should hold for many years. His acquisition marked the third time in four years that Accorsi had engineered a trade in the first round of the draft. His previous deals had netted the Giants Will Allen, a steady and durable cornerback, and tight end Jeremy Shockey, who was selected to go to the Pro Bowl in each of his first two seasons and led the Giants in receptions last season.

Accorsi was instrumental in the acquisition of many more of the Giants' key players, including draft choices Luke Petitgout, David Diehl, Osi Umenyiora and William Peterson and free agents Carlos Emmons, Shaun O'Hara and Brent

Alexander. This offseason, he bolstered the roster with the acquisitions of several key veterans, including wide receiver Plaxico Burress, tackle Kareem McKenzie, linebacker Antonio Pierce and kicker Jay Feely.

Accorsi was Executive Vice President/Football Operations for the Cleveland Browns from 1985 until he resigned in 1992. During that time, the Browns made five consecutive playoff appearances, including four AFC Central titles and three appearances in the AFC Championship Game. With the Browns, Accorsi made the delicate and important supplemental draft trade that gave Cleveland the rights to then sophomore Bernie Kosar in the spring of 1985. Kosar joined the team in the summer, and the Browns went on to win four AFC Central titles and made the playoffs a fifth time as a Wild Card team.

After leaving the Browns, Accorsi served as a special advisor to Maryland Governor William Donald Schaefer on NFL expansion. In that capacity, he was responsible for selling all 100 sky suites for the proposed NFL football stadium, as well as all 7,500 club seats. The sky suites were sold out in six weeks, while the club seating sold out in eight weeks. In addition, he also raised commitments of $51 million for Baltimore's Expansion Efforts Premium Seating Campaign. Immediately before joining the Giants, Accorsi was Executive Director of Business Affairs for the Baltimore Orioles of Major League Baseball.

Accorsi began his NFL career as the Baltimore Colts' public relations director in 1970 and has since worked in virtually every phase of the football business. After five years in Baltimore, he moved to the NFL office, where he worked on Commissioner Pete Rozelle's staff as assistant to the president of the National Football Conference in 1975 and 1976. He returned to the Colts organization in 1977 as the team's assistant general manager. Accorsi later became the Colts last general manager in Baltimore for two years, 1982 and 1983, when he selected John Elway with the first pick in the draft. After learning of Elway's trade by ownership on television, he resigned and joined the Browns following the season.

Accorsi was born in Hershey, Pa., where he played baseball all the way to the American Legion level. A 1963 graduate of Wake Forest University, Accorsi served on active duty in the U.S. Army in 1964. He then worked as a sports writer for the Charlotte News, Baltimore Sun and Philadelphia Inquirer. One of his first assignments in Charlotte was to interview Archibald (Moonlight) Graham then 86, a former Charlotte minor-leaguer who played in one major-league game in 1905. A quarter-century later, Graham achieved some measure of fame in the movie, "Field of Dreams" as the obscure player upon whom Burt Lancaster's character was based. Five years after writing about Graham, Accorsi broke the story of Wilt Chamberlain's trade to the Los Angeles Lakers.

After leaving the newspaper business, Accorsi worked in the athletic departments at St. Joseph's University in Philadelphia and Penn State University before joining the NFL.

Accorsi is a lifelong, passionate sports fan with a strong sense of history and an appreciation for the games themselves and the people who play them. In addition to football, his favorite sports are baseball, college basketball and golf. He relishes retelling stories of an event he attended 40 years ago or a nugget he heard on a sports highlights show hours earlier. His first NFL game was a preseason contest in Hershey between the Detroit Lions and New York Bulldogs. A year later he traveled to Philadelphia for his first major league baseball game, and saw Jackie Robinson steal home. He still regrets not being in Hershey the night Chamberlain scored 100 points there in 1962; Accorsi was away at college.

One of his most memorable moments as a sports fan occurred when he was with the Colts in 1982, and the producers of a film to be set in the city gave the Colts a quiz about the team that was to be used in the movie. A prospective bride had to answer the questions before her Colts fan boyfriend would marry her. Accorsi read the test, deemed it far too easy, then rewrote it. The quiz scene became the one of the most memorable in the hit movie, "Diner."

Accorsi has three children: Michael, a graduate of the University of Pittsburgh who also has a master's degree from the University of Virginia; Patrick, a graduate of the University of Maryland; and Sherlyn, a graduate of Penn State University. Accorsi has one granddaughter, Alexandra, born June 30, 1998.

CHRIS MARA
VICE PRESIDENT OF PLAYER EVALUATION

Chris Mara joined the Giants as Vice President of Player Evaluation on July 29, 2003.

This is Mara's second tour of duty with the franchise. He served as a scout for the Giants for 14 years, including the two Super Bowl Championship seasons of 1986 and 1990. Mara joined the Giants staff prior to the 1979 season, and over the next 14 years was a member of the club's player personnel department.

Following his first stint with the Giants, Mara spent eight years (1994-2001) operating ProRate, Inc., an independent football scouting service contracted by as many as 15 NFL franchises. The service provided an evaluation of the free agent market in the NFL.

Mara spent 2001-02 as the President/General Manager of the New Jersey Gladiators of the Arena Football League. Mara oversaw myriad responsibilities including ticket sales, operations and the arena lease. His primary focus was on player personnel and player contracts. Mara brought his extensive knowledge of professional football to the team and revived the struggling franchise in just one season.

After a difficult first season, the Gladiators posted a 9-5 record in 2002 and a first place finish in the Eastern Division of the National Conference. Posting the biggest turnaround in AFL history, the Gladiators finished the 2002 regular season with seven more victories than the previous year and qualified for the playoffs for the first time in franchise history.

Mara graduated from Iona Prep in New Rochelle, N.Y., where he was a standout defensive back for three seasons, winning All-Catholic High School Athletic Association recognition after his senior year.

He began his collegiate career at Springfield College, where he was a defensive back on the freshman team and lettered on the varsity golf team. He then transferred to Boston College, where he earned a B.A. in the Arts and Sciences. During his scholastic and collegiate days, Mara spent many summers working at Giants training camps. During the regular season, he worked with broadcast teams from both CBS-TV and NBC-TV, as well as with visiting and home radio broadcast groups.

Mara was born on March 11, 1957 in New York City. He is married to the former Kathleen Rooney and the couple has four children: Daniel, Kate, Patricia, and Conor.

RONNIE BARNES
VICE PRESIDENT OF MEDICAL SERVICES

Ronnie Barnes, a member of the Giants organization since 1976 and the team's head trainer since 1980, was promoted to the position of Vice President of Medical Services in 2003. One of the most respected trainers in the NFL, Barnes has compiled an impressive dossier of accomplishments since joining the Giants as a student intern 29 years ago. He was elected to the National Athletic Trainers Association Hall of Fame in June, 1999. In 2002, he was voted the Athletic Trainer of the Year by NFL physicians.

Also in 2002, his alma mater, East Carolina University, honored Barnes for his many contributions to the school by opening the Ronnie Barnes African-American Resource Center at the school's Joyner Library. The 5,200-square foot resource center collects materials about the legacy and future of African-Americans in eastern North Carolina and the Southeast. It includes books, software, journals and collections of works on such influential figures as Martin Luther King, Jr., and Malcolm X.

Barnes was the first African-American graduate of the Sports Medicine Department at ECU. He has since been elected to the East Carolina Athletic Hall of Fame and been named a winner of the Outstanding Alumni Award.

On March 20, 2004, Barnes was inducted into the Athletic Hall of Fame at Fike High School in N.C.

Since becoming the Giants' head trainer, Barnes has twice been voted National Professional Trainer of the Year by the National Athletic Trainers Association. He served on the NATA board of certification for 10 years. Barnes is the past president of the NATA Research and Education Foundation. He is a member of the NFL Subcommittee on Mild Brain Trauma. Barnes recently completed a seven-year term as President of the Professional Football Athletic Trainers Society. In June of 1996, he was awarded the NATA Most Distinguished Athletic Trainer Award. In 1999, Barnes and his assistants won the Ed Block Courage Award as the NFL Athletic Training Staff of the Year.

Barnes has lectured nationally and internationally on sports medicine. He wrote a popular textbook in the medical field called Athletic Training and Sports Medicine, Third Edition. He was named the March of Dimes Man of the Year in 1994.

A native of Rocky Mount, N.C., Barnes was born on Feb. 15, 1952. He resides in Cedar Grove, New Jersey.

RUSTY HAWLEY
VICE PRESIDENT - MARKETING

Rusty Hawley, the Giants' Vice President-Marketing, is in his 14th season with the franchise, and his 26th with the National Football League.

In his present position, Hawley is responsible for overseeing all marketing, business development and promotional initiatives for the Giants organization, including all sponsorships, youth marketing, local media rights, luxury suite matters, web site development and special and stadium-based events. He also is responsible for the original development of a series of Giants-themed television programs, including "Giants Today", "Giants OnLine", "Giants GamePlan", "The Giants Training Camp Report", and "The Giants Preseason Special", and serves as the Executive Producer of the team's preseason game broadcasts.

Hawley serves on the NFL's Marketing Executive Committee, which studies all aspects of league and Club marketing matters.

Hawley began his NFL career in Sept., 1980 as a member of NFL Commissioner Pete Rozelle's staff. Seven seasons later, he joined the staff of NFL Properties, the league's licensing and marketing arm.

Born in Somerville, N.J., on July 3, 1957, Hawley grew up in Bridgewater, N.J., and graduated from Bridgewater-Raritan West High School. He graduated from Hobart College in Geneva, N.Y., where he received a degree in psychology in 1979.

Rusty and his wife, Ann (Blauvelt), are the very proud parents of three sons: Trevor (20), Tyler (17) and Tucker (14). The Hawleys live in Rumson, N.J.

CHRISTINE PROCOPS
VICE PRESIDENT/CHIEF FINANCIAL OFFICER

Christine Procops joined the Giants in June 1994 as the franchise's assistant controller. She was promoted to controller in May 1996. Procops has held her current position of Vice President and Chief Financial Officer since July 2001.

Procops is responsible for all aspects of the Giants financial operations, including financial reporting, budgeting, taxes and cash management.

Prior to joining the Giants, Procops worked as a public accountant with Arthur Andersen.

Procops graduated from St. John's University with a B.S. in Accounting in 1989. She and her husband, Joe, have a son, James, and a daughter, Marisa, and reside in Wayne, N.J.

PAT HANLON

VICE PRESIDENT - COMMUNICATIONS

Pat Hanlon joined the Giants in April 1993 as the team's director of public relations. He was promoted to Vice President-Communications in the spring of 1996. The 2005 season is his 13th with the Giants and his 18th in the National Football League.

In his current position, Hanlon serves as the organization's chief liaison with the local and national media, both print and electronic, who cover the Giants and the NFL. He also confers with and advises club officials in formulating organizational positions of public record and works closely in an advisory capacity with the club's community relations department. In 1998, Hanlon began hosting a segment on one of the Giants' weekly television shows, "Giants Today". In his "On the Beat" segment on Giants Today, Hanlon engaged one of the team's beat reporters in candid and lively discussion of timely issues regarding the team. During the 2001 season, Hanlon began co-hosting "Giants Game Plan" (now "Giants On-Line"), another team-produced television show that features host Bob Papa and four Giants beat reporters in a weekly roundtable discussion of the team. Since joining the Giants, Hanlon has been a member of the radio pregame show broadcast team, providing up-to-date injury information, lineup changes and an organizational perspective on current issues involving the team.

Prior to joining the Giants, Hanlon was vice president of public relations for the New England Patriots from March 1991 to Oct. 1992. He was community relations coordinator and assistant director of public relations for the Pittsburgh Steelers from 1987-91. While with Pittsburgh, the Steelers public relations department received the Pete Rozelle Award in 1990, presented annually by the Pro Football Writers of America to the outstanding NFL public relations staff. Hanlon's Giants public relations staff has received the Pete Rozelle Award twice, for their work during the 1994 and 2000 seasons. Hanlon has been a member of the NFL's public relations staff for 11 Super Bowls. Before coming to the NFL, Hanlon served as the assistant sports information director in charge of football at the University of Oklahoma (1985-86) and the University of Pittsburgh (1983-85). Hanlon was born in Charlottesville, Va. on Jan. 22, 1961. He grew up in Chambersburg, Pa., and is a 1985 graduate of the University of Pittsburgh with a B.A. in English Literature.

Pat and his wife, Randy Hersh Hanlon, reside in Irvington, N.Y., and are the proud parents of daughter Emily Virginia Hersh Hanlon (7/22/01) and son Edward Sean Hersh Hanlon (2/03/03).

COACHING STAFF

TOM COUGHLIN
HEAD COACH

Tom Coughlin was named the 16th Head Coach in Giants history on Jan. 6, 2004. A highly-respected coach who has succeeded as a head coach in the NFL and on the collegiate level, Coughlin was an assistant coach with the Giants when they won Super Bowl XXV in 1990.

The Giants won two more games in Coughlin's first season than they had the previous year. They improved their rushing yardage from 97.4 yards a game to 119.0 per game, their average of 4.5 yards a carry ranked fifth in the league, and Tiki Barber set four significant franchise records, including most rushing yards in a season (1,518). Defensively, the Giants allowed 347 points, 40 less than their 2003 total. And the Giants vastly improved on special teams, where they led the NFL in kickoff return yardage (25.1 yards per return). It was the first time since 1953 that the Giants finished atop the NFL in this statistical category. In addition, Coughlin was instrumental in the acquisition and development of quarterback Eli Manning, as well as overseeing a roster restructuring that has the Giants poised to make continued improvement in 2005.

Coughlin previously coached the Jacksonville Jaguars, taking charge of the expansion franchise more than 18 months prior to its first game and guiding the team for its first eight seasons. Under Coughlin, the Jaguars were the most successful expansion team in NFL history. Coughlin compiled a 68-60 regular season record (.531), plus a 4-4 mark in the playoffs, and twice took Jacksonville to the AFC Championship Game. The Jaguars made the playoffs every year from 1996-99, the only expansion team in history to earn four postseason berths in its first five seasons.

Coughlin's 74 regular season victories place him 12th among current NFL head coaches. Ten of the 11 coaches ahead of him have coached at least one more season than Coughlin and one, Tony Dungy, has coached the same number of years. He is the only one of the 12 to have coached an expansion team.

Coughlin was out of football in 2003 but has been in the coaching profession for more than 30 years.

"Tom Coughlin is the right person for this job," John Mara, the Giants' executive vice president and chief operating officer, said when the coach was hired. The organization is more convinced of that today. "He has experience as a successful head coach at the college and NFL levels," Mara said, "and he is going to bring an intensity and focus and a commitment to winning that we need and want."

Under Coughlin, the Jaguars compiled several impressive statistical records. Jacksonville was 55-12 in games in which it owned a lead entering the fourth period. The Jaguars were 40-28 in games against division opponents, 21-3 in games in which they scored a touchdown on their initial offensive possession, and 51-30 in games in which they rushed for at least 100 yards.

Perhaps most impressive was the success Jacksonville had in taking care of the football. In the 128 regular season games they played under Coughlin, the Jaguars committed fewer than three turnovers in 104 of them, including 32 in which they had no giveaways. In those 128 games, Jacksonville had 187 giveaways, giving Coughlin a 1.46 turnovers-per-game average that was the best among all NFL head coaches who began their careers since 1970. The Jaguars' turnover differential during Coughlin's eight-year tenure was plus-34.

In 2002, Jacksonville's differential was plus-12. With 15 giveaways the Jaguars became just the third team in history with fewer turnovers than games played (the others were the 1990 Giants, a team which had Coughlin as its wide receivers coach, and the 2002 Kansas City Chiefs).

Coughlin's emphasis on avoiding turnovers and creating takeaways resulted in the Giants showing significant improvement in that important statistical category. In 2004, the Giants' turnover differential was plus-4, which tied them for fifth in the NFC. In 2003, the Giants' differential was minus-16, tying them for last in the league.

Coughlin became the first head coach of the expansion Jaguars on Feb. 21, 1994, 559 days before the franchise played its first regular season game. In 1995, Jacksonville won four games, more than any previous expansion team in NFL history. The following year, Coughlin was named NFL Coach of the Year by United Press International as the Jaguars made the playoffs in just their second season and advanced all the way to the AFC Championship Game, where they lost to the New England Patriots.

That began a streak of four consecutive playoff seasons for the Jaguars. In both 1997 and '98 Jacksonville won 11 games, winning their first division title in 1998. The following season, the Jaguars had an NFL-best record of 14-2 and again advanced to the conference title game.

Coughlin earned a reputation as one of the NFL's finest offensive coaches. During his tenure, the Jaguars led the NFL in both passing yards (4,367 in 1996) and rushing yards (2,091 in 1999). In addition to having the most rushing yards in the NFL in 1999, Jacksonville boasted the league's leading receiver in Jimmy Smith (116 receptions). The only other team in history to accomplish that double was the 1954 San Francisco 49ers.

Coughlin arrived in Jacksonville following three years as the head coach at Boston College, where he turned a struggling program into a Top 20 team. He was 21-13-1 in three seasons (1991-93) with the Eagles, including 9-3 in 1993, when Boston College won eight consecutive games, defeated top-ranked Notre Dame, 41-39, and beat Virginia in the Carquest Bowl. Coughlin's last Boston College team was ranked 12th in the USA Today/CNN coaches poll and 13th by the Associated Press, despite starting the season 0-2. The Eagles were 8-3-1 in 1992 and 4-7 in his first season in 1991.

Coughlin was the Giants wide receivers coach under Bill Parcells from 1988-90. Under his tutelage, receivers such as Mark Ingram, Lionel Manuel, Odessa Turner and Stephen Baker all improved and helped the Giants win their second Super Bowl.

Coughlin began his coaching career in 1969 as a graduate assistant at Syracuse, his alma mater. He was the head coach at the Rochester Institute of Technology from 1970-73, compiling a record of 16-15-2. Coughlin returned to Syracuse in 1974, first serving as quarterbacks and offensive backfield coach for three seasons before being promoted to offensive coordinator for four years. He directed an offense that led the Orangemen to victory in the 1979 Independence Bowl, their first postseason triumph in 13 years.

In 1981, Coughlin went to Boston College for the first time, as offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach under Jack Bicknell. He helped the Eagles win their first bowl game and coached Doug Flutie, who would win the Heisman Trophy in 1984, one season after Coughlin's departure. In 1983, Boston College won the Lambert-Meadowlands Trophy as Eastern Champion, its first in 42 years.

Coughlin entered the NFL as the Philadelphia Eagles' wide receivers coach in 1984 and '85. He held the same position with the Green Bay Packers in 1986 and '87 before moving to the Giants for a three-year stint.

Coughlin was a standout scholastic star at Waterloo (N.Y.) Central High School, 45 miles from Syracuse and 280 miles from Manhattan. He was a three-year letterman for legendary coach Ben Schwartzwalder from 1965-67. A wingback, Coughlin played in a backfield with All-America backs Larry Csonka and Floyd Little. As a senior in 1967, Coughlin broke Syracuse's single-season pass receiving record. That year, he won Syracuse's Orange Key Award as the university's outstanding scholar-athlete. He graduated in 1968 with a bachelor's degree in education and received a master's degree in education the following year.

Thomas Richard Coughlin was born on Aug. 31, 1946 in Waterloo. He is the oldest of seven children. Coughlin and his wife, Judy, have two daughters, Keli and Katie, a son-in-law Chris (Katie's husband), two sons, Brian and Tim, a daughter-in-law, Andrea (Tim's wife), and three grandchildren, Emma Rose, Dylan and Shey Thomas.

THE TOM COUGHLIN JAY FUND FOUNDATION

The Tom Coughlin Jay Fund Foundation was founded in 1996 by Coach Coughlin to assist local children and their families who are afflicted by leukemia and other cancers. The Jay Fund was named in honor of Jay McGillis, a young man who played football under Coughlin at Boston College. Jay's promising life was ended after a courageous battle against leukemia. The courage, compassion and faith he and his family demonstrated during the course of his illness were an inspiration to many people. The fund is designed to honor Jay's spirit, to assist others in need, and to touch and improve the lives of families battling similar obstacles.

Since its inception, the Jay Fund has donated more than $1 million to assist Jacksonville families with children suffering from leukemia or cancer. Last season, Coughlin announced an expansion of the Jay Fund to the New York/New Jersey metropolitan area.

The mission of the Tom Coughlin Jay Fund Foundation is to:

1. Assist children with leukemia and other childhood cancers and their families during the course of their child's illness.

2. Support clinical and laboratory research in leukemia and other childhood cancers that will be of benefit to these children and their families.

TIM LEWIS

DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR

Tim Lewis was the first assistant coach hired by Tom Coughlin when he was named Defensive Coordinator on Jan. 9, 2004. Despite injuries suffered by several key players, Lewis guided the Giants' defense to a significant improvement over its performance the previous season.

The Giants finished 13th in the NFL in total defense (324.2 yards a game) after finishing 22nd in 2003 (332.5). They were eighth in the league in pass defense (189.4) after ranking 25th the previous season (213.3). Although they lost starting defensive ends Michael Strahan and Keith Washington for half the season due to injury, the Giants were tied for fourth in the NFC with 40 sacks. The Giants allowed 347 points, 40 less than they gave up in 2003.

Before joining the Giants, Lewis spent four seasons as the defensive coordinator for the Pittsburgh Steelers.

Lewis has long been associated with outstanding defenses. In 2003, the Steelers' defense was ranked ninth in the NFL, allowing 298.9 yards a game. The unit was 12th against the run (108.5 yards a game) and 11th against the pass (190.4). In 2002, Pittsburgh was seventh in the league in total defense (302.2 yards per game) and first in rushing defense for the second consecutive season (85.9).

The Steelers' 2001 defense was ranked first in the NFL in both total defense (258.6 yards a game), and rushing defense (74.7) and was fourth against the pass (183.9). The Steelers were seventh in the league defensively in 2000, Lewis' first season as defensive coordinator.

Under Lewis' tutelage, linebacker Jason Gildon became Pittsburgh's career sack leader, with 77.0.

Lewis originally joined the Steelers staff in 1995, as the defensive backs coach, a position he held for five years before being promoted to coordinator.

Lewis began his coaching career in 1987 at Texas A&M under head coach Jackie Sherrill, who was his coach at the University of Pittsburgh. He then coached the defensive backs at Southern Methodist from 1989-92, followed by a stint at his alma mater (1993-94).

Lewis was a standout player at Pittsburgh and with the Green Bay Packers, though his career was cut short by a neck injury. He played at Pittsburgh from 1979-82, and was a starting cornerback his final two seasons. Lewis was named an NEA All-America in 1982 and was named the Defensive MVP of both the Senior Bowl and the East-West Shrine games following his senior season. He received an economics degree from Pittsburgh in 1983.

In 1983, the Packers chose Lewis with the 11th overall selection in the NFL draft. Lewis played 52 games for the Packers, twice led or shared the team lead in interceptions and finished his career with 16 picks. His 99-yard interception return for a touchdown against the Rams in 1984 is still the Packers' team record.

But in the third game of the 1986 season, a Monday night contest against the Chicago Bears in Lambeau Field, Lewis suffered a career-ending neck injury. He began his coaching career the following year.

Lewis was born in Quakertown, Pa. He and his wife, Shawn, have a daughter, Erin Ashley.

ASSISTANT COACHES

JOHN HUFNAGEL

OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR

John Hufnagel, a veteran coach who has been in professional football for more than 30 years, is in his second season as the Giants Offensive Coordinator. He joined Tom Coughlin's staff on Feb. 5, 2004.

Under Hufnagel, the Giants scored 60 more points in 2004 than they had the previous season (303-243). They improved from 28th in the NFL in rushing yards per game to 11th (119.0, after averaging 97.4 yards on the ground in 2003). The Giants' 4.5-yards-per-carry average was the fifth-best figure in the league, and was a half-yard better than their previous average. With Hufnagel calling the plays, Tiki Barber set a franchise record with 1,518 rushing yards, and Eli Manning demonstrated why he is one of the NFL's most promising young quarterbacks.

Manning is the latest in group of outstanding quarterbacks to learn and develop under Hufnagel. Prior to joining the Giants, Hufnagel worked with Tom Brady, Mark Brunell and Peyton Manning.

Hufnagel spent the 2003 season as the quarterbacks coach for the Super Bowl champion New England Patriots. Under Hufnagel's tutelage, Brady continued to grow and improve and he earned his second Super Bowl MVP award in New England's victory over Carolina.

In the 2003 regular season, Brady completed 317 of 527 passes (60.2 percent) for 3,620 yards, 23 touchdowns and 12 interceptions. Brady was equally proficient in the Patriots' three-game postseason run, completing 75 of 126 passes (59.5 percent) for 792 yards, five touchdowns and two interceptions.

Hufangel spent the 2002 season as the quarterbacks coach on Coughlin's staff in Jacksonville. That year, Brunell threw only seven interceptions in 416 pass attempts, and his 85.7 quarterback rating was his highest in four years.

In 2001, Hufnagel was the quarterbacks coach in Indianapolis, where Peyton Manning completed 62.7 percent of his passes for 4,131 yards. Hufnagel spent the 1999 and 2000 seasons as the quarterbacks coach for the Cleveland Browns.

A former NFL quarterback, Hufnagel has also coached in the Canadian Football League and the Arena Football League. In the CFL, he worked with future Pro Bowlers Doug Flutie and Jeff Garcia.

Hufnagel began his coaching career as a player-coach for the CFL's Saskatchewan Roughriders in 1988. From 1990-96 Hufnagel was the offensive coordinator for the Calgary Stampeders, for whom he helped both Flutie and Garcia earn All-CFL honors. In 1997, Hufnagel was named the head coach and general manager of the AFL's New Jersey Red Dogs. In two seasons, he posted a 17-11 record.

A quarterback, Hufnagel entered the NFL as the Denver Broncos' 14th-round draft choice in 1973, following a successful career at Penn State. He played three seasons for the Broncos before beginning a 12-year career in the CFL with Calgary (1976-79), Saskatchewan (1980-83 and 1987) and the Winnipeg Blue Bombers (1984-86).

Hufnagel was named Penn State's starting quarterback midway through his sophomore season in 1970 and led the Nittany Lions to five consecutive victories to close the season. In his final two seasons at Penn State, his record as a starter was 21-3, including a 30-6 Cotton Bowl victory over Texas as a junior and a Sugar Bowl appearance as a senior. In 1972, Hufnagel set Penn State's single-season record for passing yards (since broken) and he remains among the top 10 in most major career passing categories. Hufnagel was an All-America in 1972, when he finished sixth in the Heisman Trophy voting.

Hufnagel and his wife, Penny, have two daughters, Neely and Lindsey, and a son, Cole.

ANDY BARNETT
ASSISTANT STRENGTH & CONDITIONING

Andy Barnett is in his second season as the Giants' Assistant Strength and Conditioning coach. Barnett, who has more than 15 years of strength and conditioning experience, was named to the position on Jan. 20, 2004.

Prior to joining the Giants, Barnett spent three years as a strength and conditioning coach with IMG at its multi-sport training facility in Bradenton, Fla. At IMG he worked with professional athletes from various sports, helping to develop position-specific speed and multi-directional acceleration programs, as well as power and strength protocols.

From 1995-2000, Barnett was at the National Sport Center for Olympic Athletes in Calgary, Alberta, where he developed and implemented strength programs for 14 winter and summer Olympic sports. He trained numerous athletes who participated in international competitions such as the Olympics, Pan-American Games and World Cup competitions. Barnett has worked with more than two dozen Olympic and world champion gold medalists.

While earning his master's degree at the University of Calgary, Barnett worked as the strength coach of the University of Calgary football team, which won the 1994 Vanier Cup as the Canadian collegiate national champions. He also worked in the same capacity with the men's ice hockey team, which finished in the top four of the Canadian collegiate championships both of his graduate years.

Barnett started his strength and conditioning career at the University of Wyoming, where he received his bachelor's degree in physical education.

Barnett is a certified strength and conditioning specialist through the National Strength and Conditioning Association. He also holds a certification as a performance enhancement specialist with the National Academy of Sports Medicine, and is a United States Weightlifting Federation coach.

Andy and his wife, Deb, a two-time Olympic athlete, have two sons, Matthew and Caleb.

JOHN DEFILIPPO

OFFENSIVE QUALITY CONTROL

John DeFilippo is in his first season as the Giants' Offensive Quality Control Coach.

DeFilippo joined the Giants after spending two seasons as the quarterbacks coach at Columbia University. He was credited with the rapid development of quarterback Jeff Otis, who threw 24 touchdown passes in two seasons and was second in the Ivy League with a 57.3 completion percentage in 2004.

Prior to joining the Columbia staff, DeFilippo spent two seasons as a graduate assistant at Notre Dame. He worked with the wide receivers and tight ends in 2001 and the quarterbacks in 2002. DeFilippo began his coaching career in 2000 as the quarterbacks coach at Fordham. That season, Mike Mucci set several freshman passing records, including completions (164) and yards (1,739).

DeFilippo was a quarterback at James Madison University, where he earned four letters and helped lead the Dukes to the Atlantic 10 championship as a senior. DeFilippo graduated in 2000 with a degree in speech communication. While attending JMU, he completed coaching internships with the Carolina Panthers and Indianapolis Colts.

DeFilippo is single. His father, Gene, is the Director of Athletics at Boston College.

DAVE DEGUGLIELMO
ASSISTANT OFFENSIVE LINE

Dave DeGuglielmo is in his second season as the Giants' Assistant Offensive Line Coach. Last year, he doubled as the offensive quality control coach. DeGuglielmo joined Tom Coughlin's staff on Jan. 26, 2004.

Prior to joining the Giants, DeGuglielmo (pronounced Day-Ghoul-Yell-Mo) spent five years at the University of South Carolina, where he coached the offensive line and tight ends. He previously coached at Boston College under Coughlin, the University of Connecticut and at his alma mater, Boston University.

DeGuglielmo began his coaching career in 1991-92 at Boston College, where he worked with the offensive linemen, including future All-Pros Tom Nalen, Peter Kendall and Ron Stone (a former Giant). He then moved to Boston University, where he coached the offensive line for four seasons and was also assistant head coach in 1996. The Terriers twice made the NCAA 1-AA playoffs during his tenure.

In 1997-98, DeGuglielmo was the offensive line coach at Connecticut, which made the playoffs for the first time in school history during his tenure. DeGuglielmo joined head coach Lou Holtz at South Carolina in 1999 and stayed for five years. He coached the offensive line his first and last seasons there and the offensive tackles and tight ends in the three seasons in-between.

DeGuglielmo was a four-year letterwinner at Boston University, where he earned his bachelor's degree in 1990 and a master's degree in 1991. He was selected captain of the 1990 BU team.

DeGuglielmo was born in Lexington, Mass. and is single.

ASSISTANT COACHES

PAT FLAHERTY
OFFENSIVE LINE

Pat Flaherty, who has more than 25 years of coaching experience, is in his second season as the Giants' Offensive Line Coach. He was hired by Tom Coughlin on Jan. 26, 2004.

The Giants' rushing attack improved significantly in Flaherty's first season coaching the line, averaging 119.0 yards per game, almost 22 yards more a game than the previous season. With the line leading the way, Tiki Barber set franchise records with 1,518 rushing yards and nine 100-yard games.

Prior to joining the Giants, Flaherty was the Chicago Bears' tight ends coach for three seasons. Under Flaherty, the group was instrumental in helping Anthony Thomas twice rush for more than 1,000 yards, including 1,024 yards in 2003. In addition, Chicago's tight ends played a bigger role in the team's passing attack under Flaherty. In 2003, Desmond Clark caught 44 passes, the third-highest total on the Bears.

In 2000, Flaherty coached the Washington Redskins' tight ends and helped Stephen Alexander earn an invitation to the Pro Bowl. Alexander was third on the Redskins that season with 47 catches.

Flaherty began his coaching career at his alma mater, DeLone Catholic High School in McSherrytown, Penn., from 1978-80.

Flaherty coached in the collegiate ranks from 1980-99. He began with a two-year stint coaching the offensive line at East Stroudsburg University, his alma mater. Flaherty joined the staff at Penn State in 1982, a season in which the Nittany Lions defeated Georgia in the Sugar Bowl to win the national championship. After two seasons at Penn State, Flaherty moved to Rutgers, where he coached the offensive line for eight years.

Flaherty spent the 1992 season coaching the defensive line at East Carolina. From 1993-98 he was on the staff at Wake Forest, where he coached the offensive line, tight ends and special teams. In 1999, he coached tight ends and special teams and was in charge of recruiting at the University of Iowa.

Flaherty was an All-America center at East Stroudsburg. He was inducted into the school's Hall of Fame in October 2004. He and his wife, Lynne, have two children, Shawn and Colleen.

ASSISTANT COACHES

KEVIN GILBRIDE
QUARTERBACKS

When Kevin Gilbride was hired as the Giants Quarterbacks Coach on Jan. 26, 2004, he was reunited with Tom Coughlin, for whom he worked as the Jacksonville Jaguars' first offensive coordinator in 1995 and 96. The 2005 season will be Gilbride's 31st in coaching and 16th in the National Football League.

In Gilbride's first season with the Giants, he was at the forefront of the development of Eli Manning, the No. 1 pick in the 2004 NFL Draft and the Giants' quarterback of the present and future. Under Gilbride's guidance, Manning improved significantly in the latter part of season. In the last three games, the young quarterback completed 53 of 87 passes (61 percent) for 527 yards, five touchdowns and three interceptions. In the season-ending victory over Dallas, Manning threw three touchdown passes and led a 66-yard drive in the final two minutes for the winning score.

Prior to joining the Giants, Gilbride spent two seasons as the Buffalo Bills' offensive coordinator. In his first season in Buffalo, the Bills set seven offensive team records, including most net passing yards (3,995). Quarterback Drew Bledsoe set 10 team records. That year, Buffalo had the fifth-best passing offense in the NFL and was 11th overall while averaging 23.7 points, 22.2 first downs, and 349.4 yards per game. That offense featured the franchise's first 4,000-yard passer in Bledsoe, two 1,200-yard receivers (Eric Moulds and Peerless Price) and a 1,400-yard rusher (Travis Henry).

Gilbride entered the NFL as the quarterbacks coach of the Houston Oilers in 1989. He was promoted to offensive coordinator from 1990-93 and then to assistant head coach/offense in 1994. The Oilers ranked first in the NFL in passing yards in 1990, 1991, 1992 and 1993. Houston also ranked first in the league in total offense in 1990, second in'91, third in '92 and second in '93.

Gilbride's first stint with Coughlin began in 1995, when Gilbride took over as the offensive coordinator of the expansion Jacksonville Jaguars. The following year, the Jaguars led the NFL with 259.7 passing yards per game and were second in total offense with 360.2 yards per contest, a performance that helped Jacksonville to the AFC Championship Game in just its second year of existence.

After two years in Jacksonville, Gilbride was named the 10th head coach in San Diego Chargers history on Jan. 19, 1997 and posted a 6-16 record over the course of the 1997-98 seasons. He spent the 1999 and 2000 seasons as offensive coordinator with the Pittsburgh Steelers. In 2001, Gilbride was an analyst with ESPN.

Prior to joining the NFL, Gilbride spent two seasons (1985-86) in the Canadian Football League as an assistant with the Ottawa Rough Riders.

Gilbride began his career as the linebackers coach at Idaho State in 1974-75. He held the same position at Tufts University in 1976-77. Gilbride was the defensive coordinator at American International in 1978 -79 and the head coach at his alma mater, Southern Connecticut State University, from 1980-84.

Gilbride was born in New Haven, Conn., and earned a degree in physical education from Southern Connecticut State, where he also played quarterback and tight end. He received his master's in athletic administration from Idaho State. He and his wife, Deborah, have three children: daughters Kelly and Kristen, and son, Kevin. Kelly is a 1998 graduate of Harvard University, Kristen graduated from the University of Connecticut in 1999 and Kevin graduated from the University of Hawaii in 2003.

JERALD INGRAM RUNNING BACKS

Jerald Ingram is in his second season as the Giants' running backs coach. Ingram, who joined the Giants on Jan. 13, 2004, has 21 years of coaching experience, including 12 as an assistant to Tom Coughlin.

In Ingram's first year with the Giants, Tiki Barber enjoyed the finest season of his career and became the latest back to prosper under Ingram's coaching. Barber played in his first Pro Bowl after setting single-season franchise records for rushing yards (1,518), yards from scrimmage (an NFL-best 2,096) and 100-yard rushing games (nine).

Prior to joining the Giants, Ingram was the running backs coach under Coughlin at Boston College and Jacksonville. The Jaguars were the only NFL team to rush for more than 2,000 yards in each season from 1998-2000, including an NFL-high 2,091 yards in 1999. Under Ingram's tutelage, Fred Taylor rushed for more than 1,200 yards three times, including a team-record 1,399 yards in 2000, when he missed 3 1/2 games. Taylor had nine consecutive 100-yard games, tied for the third-longest streak in NFL history. In 1998, the Jaguars rushed for a team-record 2,102 yards.

Ingram was also instrumental in the development of a pair of undrafted players who performed admirably for Jacksonville, running back Stacey Mack and fullback Patrick Washington. Ingram was also known for turning his running backs into fine blockers and receivers. When he left Jacksonville, running backs had two of the three longest touchdown receptions in team history.

He joined the Jaguars on March 3, 1994, 18 months before the franchise played its first regular season game, and stayed in Jacksonville until Coughlin left following the 2002 season. He was one of four assistant coaches who were with Coughlin throughout his entire tenure with the Jaguars.

Ingram joined the Jaguars after spending three seasons as running backs coach at Boston College. He began his coaching career in 1984, as a graduate assistant at the University of Michigan, his alma mater. The following year, he joined the staff at Ball State, first as tight ends coach, then as the running backs coach for five seasons. In 1991, he joined Coughlin at Boston College.

A fullback at Michigan, Ingram earned three letters and played on two Wolverines teams that won the Big Ten championship and advanced to the Rose Bowl. He graduated in 1984 with a degree in general studies.

Ingram was born in Dayton, Ohio. He grew up in Beaver, Pa. He and his wife, Kathleen, have a son, Julian.

DAVID MERRITT
DEFENSIVE ASSISTANT

RINGTHEBELL77 on Archive.org

David Merritt is in his second season as the Giants' defensive assistant coach. Last year, he had the additional title of quality control coach. Merritt was hired by Tom Coughlin on Jan. 26, 2004.

Prior to coming to the Giants, Merritt served as a defensive assistant/linebackers for the Jets for three seasons.

Before joining the Jets, Merritt coached at the collegiate level for four seasons. In 1997, he was the outside linebackers coach at the University of Tennessee-Chattanooga. The following year, Merritt moved to the Virginia Military Institute, where he coached the defensive ends and outside linebackers for one season and the defensive line for two.

A linebacker, Merritt was drafted by the Miami Dolphins in 1993. He played for the Arizona Cardinals from 1993-96. Merritt was an All-ACC linebacker at North Carolina State in 1992.

Merritt and his wife, Yolonda, have a daughter and two sons.

RON MILUS SECONDARY

Ron Milus is in his second season as the Giants' defensive secondary coach. He joined Tom Coughlin's staff on Jan. 20, 2004.

The Giants' pass defense improved significantly in Milus' first year with the team. Despite injuries to safeties Shaun Williams and Gibril Wilson, the Giants allowed 189.4 passing yards per game, the eighth-best figure in the NFL and a marked reduction from the 213.3 yards allowed through the air the previous season. Under Milus' direction, Wilson became an instant impact player despite being a fifth-round draft choice.

Milus spent the 2003 season as the defensive backs coach of the Arizona Cardinals. In his only year working with Milus, Arizona safety Dexter Jackson was tied for fourth in the NFC with six interceptions, or one less than he had in his four previous seasons combined.

Prior to his season in Arizona, Milus spent three years as a coach with the Denver Broncos, two as defensive backs coach and one as the nickel backs coach. In Milus' first year in Denver (2000), the Broncos' secondary accounted for 21 of the club's 27 interceptions, the highest total by the team since 1987. In 2001, cornerback Deltha O'Neal earned a trip to the Pro Bowl with nine interceptions. The following year, Denver's defense ranked sixth in the NFL.

Milus joined the NFL after nine seasons coaching in the collegiate ranks. He began his coaching career at his high school, Lincoln High in Tacoma, Wash. After three years there, he joined the staff at his alma mater, the University of Washington, as a graduate assistant in 1991 - a season in which the Huskies won a share of the national championship. When he was promoted to a full-time position in 1992, Milus was the youngest assistant coach in the Pac-10 at age 28.

During his eight seasons at Washington, the Huskies played in six bowl games, including two Rose Bowls. Milus' defensive backs were instrumental on a defense that led the nation in 1993 with 22 interceptions. Two years later, Washington led the Pac-10 with 16 picks.

Milus was a four-year letterwinner at Washington as a cornerback and return specialist. He and his wife, Sandra, have two sons, Ryan and Bobby.

JERRY PALMIERI
STRENGTH & CONDITIONING

New Jersey native Jerry Palmieri is in his second season as the Giants' Strength and Conditioning Coach, a position he assumed on Jan. 13, 2004.

Palmieri was the New Orleans Saints' assistant strength and conditioning coach in 2003. Prior to that he spent nine years as a strength and conditioning coach under Tom Coughlin, one at Boston College (where he was the director of strength and conditioning operations) and eight with the Jacksonville Jaguars.

In 1999, Palmieri was honored by the Professional Strength and Conditioning Coaches Society as Coach of the Year.

Palmieri's goal is to help each player increase in size, strength and speed, which ultimately produces a more powerful athlete. "Coach Coughlin wants our team to play physical on the field," Palmieri said. "Our job is to make our players more physical and more powerful, so that their play will be physical in competition."

Palmieri began his career as a strength coach at North Carolina in 1982. From there he moved to Oklahoma State (1984-86) and Kansas State (1987-92) before joining Coughlin at Boston College. In addition to his coaching experience, Palmieri has taught physical education classes and written articles about strength and conditioning for national publications.

Palmieri is a 1980 graduate of Montclair State University, which is located just 15 minutes from Giants Stadium. He received a master's degree is exercise physiology from the University of North Carolina in 1984. Palmieri is a three-time New Jersey Golden Gloves champion (1976-78) and competed in international competition as a member of the 1978 and 1979 USA Boxing Teams.

Palmieri was born in Englewood, N.J. He and his wife, Ellen, also a New Jersey native, have a son, Tony, and a daughter, Annamarie.

ASSISTANT COACHES

MICHAEL POPE
TIGHT ENDS

When Tom Coughlin became the Giants' Head Coach and began assembling a staff he retained only one position coach from the previous staff: Tight Ends Coach Michael Pope. Coughlin's reasoning was simple and logical.

"He is the best tight ends coach in football," Coughlin said.

Pope has proven that for many years. This is Pope's 23rd consecutive season as an NFL coach. He is one of the league's most experienced, respected and successful assistant coaches. Pope has coached in 22 postseason games and is one of the few assistants to make four trips to the Super Bowl, having also gone with the New England Patriots in 1996. He is in his sixth season of his second tour of duty as a Giants assistant coach. In his two stints with the Giants, Pope has been with them for all three of their Super Bowl appearances.

Pope has continued to enhance his reputation as the NFL's finest tight ends coach. In the last thee seasons, his guidance and teaching helped turn Jeremy Shockey into one of the NFL's best tight ends. Shockey was a Pro Bowler in each of his first two seasons and last year led the Giants with 61 catches and six touchdown receptions. Shockey, the Giants' 2002 first-round draft choice, caught 74 passes that year, the fifth-highest total in team history and a team record for both rookies and tight ends. He led all NFL tight ends in receiving and receiving yards (894) and he became the first rookie tight end to make the Pro Bowl since 1988. Shockey was elected to several all-pro teams. In 2003, Shockey caught 48 passes and was again chosen to go to Hawaii, despite missing the season's final nine games with a knee injury.

Pope has long been an outstanding tutor of tight ends. Shockey was the fifth tight end to play for Pope to make the NFL's all-rookie team, joining former Giants Zeke Mowatt, 1983; Mark Bavaro, 1985; and Howard Cross, 1989; and Cincinnati's Tony McGee in 1993. Pope is not only successful at grooming young talent, but he is also adept at guiding his veteran students to elite status. Five of his players have been selected to the Pro Bowl – Bavaro, Rodney Holman (Bengals), Ben Coates (Patriots), Stephen Alexander (Redskins) and Shockey.

Pope, who was hired on Feb. 11, 2000, is in his 23rd season as an NFL coach. He played a major role in bringing a new vitality to the Giants offense when his second stint with the team began in 2000, and in further energizing it the last three seasons by standing at the forefront of Shockey's development.

Pope was a member of the Giants coaching staff from 1983-91. His first season with the Giants was as an assistant special teams coach; he became the tight ends coach the following year. Pope left the Giants following the 1991 season and spent two years with the Cincinnati Bengals, the first as tight ends coach and the second as offensive coordinator. He joined the Patriots in 1994 as running backs coach before moving to tight ends coach in 1995. Pope was the Washington Redskins' tight ends coach from 1997-99.

Prior to coaching in the NFL, Pope spent 13 seasons in the collegiate and high school ranks. His first coaching position was at Lenoir (N.C.) High School in 1964, and he coached at high schools in Charlotte, N.C., Jacksonville, Fla., and Lake Wales, Fla.

Pope's first job in college football was with Florida State from 1970-74 as a receivers coach/recruiting coordinator. He then moved to Texas Tech (1975-77) where he served as an assistant coach and recruiter. From 1978-82, Pope was on the coaching staff at the University of Mississippi, where he coached the receivers, as well as punters and kickers.

During his playing days Pope played quarterback for Lenoir-Rhyne College where he won all-conference honors three consecutive seasons. He led the team to a national title and a combined 34-8-3 record during his playing career.

Pope was born in Monroe, N.C. Michael and Lee have two sons who work in the financial services industry, Travus, in Boca Raton, Fla., and Daron, in New York City.

MIKE PRIEFER
ASSISTANT SPECIAL TEAMS

Mike Priefer is in his third season as the Giants' assistant special teams coach. He was hired on Feb. 4, 2003 and was one of just two holdovers retained by Tom Coughlin from the previous coaching staff.

Priefer spent the 2002 season as an assistant special teams coach and administrative assistant on Coughlin's Jacksonville Jaguars staff. It was Priefer's first season in the NFL after spending eight years coaching in the collegiate ranks.

Priefer graduated from the Naval Academy in 1989 with a degree in economics. He earned a master's degree in management from the University of Maryland in 1997.

Priefer played quarterback and wide receiver on Navy's junior varsity and lightweight teams from 1985 to 1988. He later flew helicopters as a Naval officer from 1991 to 1994. Priefer was stationed on the USS America in the Persian Gulf a year after the Persian Gulf War.

Priefer began his coaching career at the Naval Academy in 1994. In three seasons as a Navy coach, he worked with the special teams, serving as the kickers, punters and snappers coach for the varsity in 1994, and the junior varsity defensive coordinator and special teams coach in 1995 and `96. He also worked with the linebackers and defensive line.

In 1997-98, Priefer was the tackles/tight ends coach and assistant special teams coordinator at Youngstown State, which won the Division 1-AA national championship in 1997. He was the inside linebackers coach/special teams coordinator at Virginia Military Institute in 1999 and the defensive tackles coach and special teams assistant at Northern Illinois in 2000-2001.

Priefer and his wife, Debbie, have four children: daughters Samantha and Katie and sons Michael, Jr. and Wilson.

BILL SHERIDAN
LINEBACKERS

Bill Sheridan was hired as the Giants' Linebackers Coach on Feb. 16, 2005. Sheridan is entering his 25th year of coaching, and first in the NFL. Sheridan replaces Bill Davis, who left the Giants after one season to become the defensive coordinator of the San Francisco 49ers.

He spent the last three seasons at the University of Michigan, the first as linebackers coach and the last two as defensive line coach. He was also the school's recruiting coordinator in 2002-03 and netted a pair of classes that were rated among the 10 best in the country.

"Bill has a burning desire to coach in the NFL," Giants head coach Tom Coughlin said. "He has done it the right way. He started coaching at the high school level and worked his way up. He has coached linebackers, secondary, defensive line and special teams. That says it all."

Sheridan, 46, began his career at Shrine High School in Royal Oak, Mich. from 1981-84. He was then a graduate assistant at Michigan for two seasons before coaching linebackers at three schools - Maine, Cincinnati and Army – from 1987-95. In 1996 and 97, Sheridan coached the defensive backs at West Point. He then put in a three-year stint as the linebackers coach at Michigan State. Sheridan spent the 2001 season at Notre Dame, where he coached safeties and special teams. He moved to Michigan the following year.

A native of Detroit, Sheridan earned four letters as a linebacker at Grand Valley State University. He graduated from De La Salle High School in Detroit.

Sheridan and his wife, Jaycine, have four children: Joseph, Nicholas, Mark and Natalie.

MIKE SULLIVAN
WIDE RECEIVERS

Mike Sullivan is in his second season as the Giants' Wide Receivers Coach, a position he assumed on Jan. 20, 2004. Sullivan was the Jacksonville Jaguars' offensive assistant in 2003 after spending the previous season as Jacksonville's defensive quality control coach under Tom Coughlin. He was the only member of Coughlin's coaching staff retained by the Jaguars in 2003.

As the offensive assistant, Sullivan helped coach the Jaguars' wide receivers and helped the coaching staff in all aspects of game preparation, including scouting reports, statistical analysis of opponent's tendencies and preparing playbooks.

Sullivan joined the Jaguars after nine years coaching in college football. He began his coaching career at Humboldt State in 1993. He also coached at Army (1995-96 and 1999-2000), Youngstown State (1997-98) and Ohio University (2001). In 1997, Youngstown State won the Division 1-AA national championship under Jim Tressel, now the coach at Ohio State. At Ohio University, Sullivan coached the defensive backs and tutored the kick blocking units on the special teams.

Sullivan was a defensive back at Army, where he received a degree in English in 1989. He also has a master's degree from Humboldt State. Sullivan is a graduate of the U.S. Army Airborne, Ranger and Air Assault schools.

Sullivan and his wife, Julie, have a daughter, Carmen Enriqueta. Sullivan was born in Santa Maria, Calif.

ASSISTANT COACHES

MIKE SWEATMAN
SPECIAL TEAMS COORDINATOR

Mike Sweatman is in his second season of his second tour of duty as a Giants assistant coach. Sweatman was an assistant coach with the Giants from 1985-92. Now in his 22nd year as an NFL coach, Sweatman has been to three Super Bowls, winning two with the Giants in 1986 and 1990, the latter when Tom Coughlin was a member of the coaching staff. Coughlin brought Sweatman back to the Giants on Jan. 14, 2004.

It was a good decision. The Giants' special teams improved significantly under Sweatman during the 2004 season. They jumped from 29th in the NFL in kickoff return average (19.9 yards in 2003) to first, with an average of 25.1 yards. It was the first time since 1953 that the Giants led the league in kickoff returns. The Giants' average start following a kickoff was the 31.8-yard line, the best average starting point in the NFL. It was the second season in a row a Sweatman-coached team led the league in that statistical category.

The Giants' punt returns improved from an average of 5.1 yards (32nd in the league) to 6.7 yards (26th).

The coverage teams had slight improvements. The kickoff coverage team edged from fourth (20.1 yards) to third (19.4 yards), while the punt coverage team rose from 24th (10.8 yards) to 23rd (9.4).

Kicker Steve Christie's 99 points were his highest total since 2000, punter Jeff Feagles was a consistent and productive player in his 17th season and David Tyree was selected as a first alternate to the Pro Bowl for his outstanding special teams play.

"I do feel that we substantially improved on special teams," said Coughlin, who gave Sweatman the title of special teams "coordinator" because he considers the position as important as the offensive and defensive coordinator.

Sweatman came to the Giants after three seasons as the Chicago Bears' special teams coach. In 2003, the Bears' average start following a kickoff was the 33.5-yard line, which, like the Giants last year, was the best in the NFL. The Bears were third in the league in kickoff returns, with an average of 23.8 yards, and seventh in punt returns, with an average of 11.8 yards. Jerry Azumah returned two kickoffs for touchdowns and averaged 29.0 yards on 41 returns, and R.W. McQuarters returned a punt 60 yards for a touchdown and averaged 12.2 yards on 37 returns.

Chicago limited opposing teams to an average punt return of 7.7 yards, the seventh-best figure in the league.

In three seasons working with Sweatman, punter Brad Maynard, the former Giant, landed 85 punts inside the 20-yard line against only 19 touchbacks. In 2001, Sweatman's first season in Chicago, Larry Whigham was named to the Pro Bowl as a special teams player. In 2003, Azumah earned the honor as a return specialist.

Prior to joining the Bears, Sweatman was the Jets special teams coach for four seasons (1997-2000). He held the same position with the New England Patriots from 1993-96, when he worked under coach Bill Parcells, who originally brought him to the Giants. The 1996 Patriots won the AFC Championship.

Sweatman broke into the NFL in 1984 as the Minnesota Vikings' outside linebackers/special teams coach. The next year he joined the Giants as an assistant special teams coach and defensive assistant. Sweatman was named the special teams coach in 1990.

Sweatman began his coaching career in 1968 as a graduate assistant at his alma mater, the University of Kansas. His collegiate stops included two later stops at Kansas (1973-74 and 1979-82), Coffeyville Community College (1975-76), Tulsa (1977-78) and Tennessee (1983). Sweatman also coached for the Okinawa Devil Dogs (1970), Quantico Marines (1971-72) and served as a guest coach for the Edmonton Eskimos in 1975-76.

Sweatman was a two-time all-conference linebacker and three-time letterwinner (1965-67) at Kansas, where he also co-captained the wrestling team. In his senior year, he was selected team captain, earned academic All-America honors and played in both the East-West Shrine Game and the Hula Bowl. Sweatman earned a bachelor's degree in physical education and later a master's degree in education at Kansas.

Following college, Sweatman joined the Marines Corps and served four years of active duty as an infantry officer. Upon release from active duty he joined the Marines Corps Reserve and completed 26 years of commissioned service before retiring as a Lieutenant Colonel.

Sweatman and his wife, Teri, have three sons, all of whom are served as officers in the United States Military: Tom, Chris and Dan.

MIKE WAUFLE
DEFENSIVE LINE

Mike Waufle is in his second season as the Giants' defensive line coach. A veteran who is in his 27th season of coaching, Waufle became a member of the Giants' staff on Jan. 20, 2004.

Despite injuries suffered by several players, most notably the loss of starting defensive ends Michael Strahan and Keith Washington for the second half of the season, the defensive line played well under Waufle's guidance. Second-year end Osi Umenyiora improved markedly and led the team with seven sacks and tackle Fred Robbins had the finest season of his five-year career.

Prior to joining the Giants, Waufle was the defensive line coach of the Oakland Raiders for six seasons. In those six years (1998-2003), the Raiders made the playoffs three times, winning at least one postseason game in each of those seasons and advancing to Super Bowl XXXVII following the 2002 season.

Before his stint with the Raiders, Waufle coached the defensive linemen at the University of California, where he was also the recruiting coordinator. At Cal, he helped develop several NFL defensive linemen, including two first-round picks in the 1996 draft, Duane Clemons and Regan Upshaw.

A native of Hornell, N.Y., Waufle began his coaching career as the defensive line coach at Alfred University in 1979. From 1980-84, he was an assistant at Utah State, his alma mater, working one season as the secondary coach, two as the offensive line coach and two as the defensive line coach. From 1985-88, Waufle was the defensive line coach and worked with the special teams at Fresno State. He was the defensive line coach at UCLA (1989) and Oregon State (1990-91) before moving to Cal.

After graduating from high school, Waufle served three years in the United States Marine Corps before beginning his collegiate football career at Bakersfield Junior College, which won the junior college national title and played in the Junior Rose Bowl in 1976. He then played defensive line at Utah State, where he was named captain as a senior.

Waufle and his wife, Kathy, have two daughters, Michele, who lives with her husband, Ken Maghuyop, daughter Katie and son Cody in California, and Marsha, a clinical research associate for Orthologic in Arizona.

PLAYER PERSONNEL

KEVIN ABRAMS
ASSISTANT GENERAL MANAGER

Kevin Abrams is in his fourth season as the Giants' Assistant General Manager after serving for three years as the team's salary cap analyst.

"Kevin Abrams brings this organization the expertise of the new wave of young NFL executives," general manager Ernie Accorsi said. "They were raised in their early years in the NFL with the salary cap and the technology that goes with it and he represents this valuable asset to the Giants."

Abrams is the primary negotiator for player contracts and is responsible for the Giants' salary cap management and strategic planning, as well as coordinating the organization's compliance with the NFL's Collective Bargaining Agreement. Abrams also works with the college and pro personnel departments in preparation for the NFL Draft and evaluating players around the National Football League.

In July of 1999, Abrams was hired to fill the newly created position of Salary Cap Analyst. He came to the Giants from the NFL Management Council, where he helped to monitor the league-wide salary cap and analyzed all new player contracts with respect to the rules and regulations of the Collective Bargaining Agreement. Prior to working at the Management Council, Abrams completed internships and graduate assistant work with the Buffalo Bills, the Washington Redskins and the London Monarchs.

Abrams was born in Toronto on Aug. 18, 1971. He completed his undergraduate degree at the University of Western Ontario, and earned his master's degree in sports administration from Ohio University.

JERRY REESE
DIRECTOR OF PLAYER PERSONNEL

Jerry Reese is in his fourth season as the team's Director of Player Personnel, after serving for three years as the Assistant Director of Pro Personnel. Reese is in charge of overseeing all aspects of college scouting, including primary responsibility for organizing the Giants' drafts.

He originally joined the Giants' scouting department on Dec. 15, 1994. In the spring of 1999, he became Dave Gettleman's assistant in the pro personnel department. He was promoted to his current position on May 1, 2002.

Reese came to the Giants after a successful playing and coaching career at the University of Tennessee at Martin. During his college playing career (1981-1984), Reese was honored as a two-time All-Gulf South Conference pick. He is among the leaders on UT-Martin's all-time career list in interceptions. Reese was GSC Defensive Player of the Week three times during his career and was named team MVP following his senior season.

Following his playing career, Reese served as a student assistant and as a graduate assistant before becoming a full-time coach of the secondary from 1988 through 1993. He moved to coaching the receivers and assumed the assistant head coach title in Jan. of 1993.

Reese has his bachelor's degree in Health and Physical Education and earned his master's degree in Education Administration and Supervision. In the fall of 1995, Reese was inducted into the U-T Martin Hall of Fame.

Reese was born on July 22, 1963. He is married to the former Gwen Moore, who is also a UT-Martin graduate. The couple has two children, Jasmyne Danielle and Jerry II, and resides in Oak Ridge, N.J.

DAVID GETTLEMAN

DIRECTOR OF PRO PERSONNEL

Dave Gettleman is in his seventh season as the Giants' Director of Pro Personnel. He joined the Giants in 1998 as an assistant to then-director Tim Rooney. He was promoted to director when Rooney retired following the 1998 season. Gettleman came to the Giants after spending 4 1/2 seasons as an area scout for the Denver Broncos, concentrating on the East Coast and Southeast regions.

Gettleman, 54, became a full-time scout with Buffalo in 1987. He was assigned as the Bills' representative to the BLESTO scouting combine in 1988, and continued in that capacity through 1992. From June 1992 through Dec. 1993 he worked as a regional scout for the BLESTO combine.

Gettleman began his coaching career at Spackenkill High School in Poughkeepsie, N.Y. as head coach (1972-78), leading his team to a pair of league championships. He spent a year as a graduate assistant at Cal State Long Beach (1979-80), then returned to Spackenkill High School as the head coach for the 1980 and '81 seasons. Gettleman joined the faculty at Kingston (N.Y.) High School as a teacher-coach in 1982. In 1984, he became the head football coach at Kingston High School and led his team to a bowl berth.

Born in Boston, Mass. on Feb. 21, 1951, Gettleman earned a bachelor's degree from Springfield (Mass.) College in 1972, where he was an offensive tackle for the football team for one season. He has two master's degrees: one in physical education from Southern Connecticut State (1978) and another in sports administration from St. Thomas University in Miami (1986).

Gettleman and his wife, Joanne, have three children: Aaron, Sam and Ana Jane and live in North Haledon, N.J.

JERRY SHAY

DIRECTOR OF COLLEGE SCOUTING

Jerry Shay, a Giants tackle during the 1970 and 1971 seasons, has been the team's Director of College Scouting since 1977. Prior to earning that title, Shay had been a scout for the team since 1973. While serving as a scout, Shay was responsible for the Western states area, including all of the West Coast as well as Wyoming, Montana and the Dakotas.

Shay was an All-America star at Purdue University and was the No. 1 draft choice of the Minnesota Vikings in 1966. He played for the Vikings for two years before being traded in 1968 to the Atlanta Falcons. He started in Atlanta for two seasons before coming to the Giants in a trade for a draft choice in 1970. Shay was a key performer that season, as the Giants finished with a 9-5 record and missed the playoffs by one game. In that season's final game against the Rams, he suffered a broken leg. Shay retired following the 1971 season after appearing in only eight games.

Born on July 10, 1944 in Gary, Ind. (family name Dzedzeji), Jerry is married to the former Cynthia Zajkowski, and has three daughters: Tiffany Lee, (the 1995 recipient of the John V. Mara Scholarship, awarded annually to the child of a former Giants player), Shannon Marie, and Jeri Lynn. The Shays reside in San Diego, Calif.

PLAYER PERSONNEL

KEN STERNFELD

ASSISTANT DIRECTOR OF PRO PERSONNEL

Ken Sternfeld is in his fourth season as the Giants' Assistant Director of Pro Personnel. He joined the Giants on May 12, 2002 after spending 21 seasons with the New England Patriots in a variety of capacities, primarily in scouting. Prior to joining the Giants, he served as a college scout assigned to the East Coast region.

Sternfeld works closely with Director of Pro Personnel Dave Gettleman in the pro scouting evaluation process.

From 1995 until joining the Giants, Sternfeld was a member of the Patriots scouting department.

Sternfeld joined the Patriots as an intern in 1981. The following year, he began a two-year stint as an administrative aide. In 1984, Sternfeld was named the Patriots ticket office manager, a post he held until 1987.

In 1987, he joined the scouting department for five years before returning to the ticket office, where, during his second tenure, franchise tickets sales reached record highs.

Sternfeld returned to the scouting department in Jan. of 1995 and remained there for the rest of his tenure in New England.

Born March 11, 1961, Sternfeld is a native of Long Island. He attended Locust Valley High in Locust Valley, N.Y., before earning a business degree at Northeastern University. Sternfeld and his wife, Anne, have two children, Anna and Timmy.

RAY WALSH, JR.

DIRECTOR OF RESEARCH & DEVELOPMENT

Ray Walsh, Jr. has been with the Giants since 1973, initially as an administrative assistant before moving over to the scouting and player personnel department. As a youngster, Walsh worked at Giants preseason training camps from 1956-63.

Walsh, who is universally known by his nickname "Whitey," earned a degree in Inter-American Relations at Fordham University in 1963 after graduating from Archbishop Stepinac High School in his hometown of White Plains, N.Y.

After a tour of duty in the U.S. Army, he joined United Airlines in 1965 in the Passenger Service department and remained with United until April of 1973, when he joined the Giants.

Married to the former Judith Carey, Walsh is the father of two sons, David, 32, and Timothy, 17, and a daughter Susan, 30. The family resides in Ramsey, N.J. Aside from football, Walsh is an avid British history buff, particularly the medieval period, as well as a devotee of Hollywood movies from the 1930s and 1940s.

PLAYER PERSONNEL

HARRY HULMES

Harry Hulmes is in his 22nd year with the Giants organization. After retiring in 1998 from his post as Special Assistant to the General Manager, Hulmes remained with the Giants as a player personnel scout, one of his duties since joining the club as Assistant General Manager in 1984.

Prior to joining the Giants, Hulmes served as Chief Operating Officer for the Arizona Wranglers of the USFL. But virtually all of his previous experience was within the NFL, where he served for 12 years with the Baltimore Colts and 13 years with the New Orleans Saints in a variety of positions.

Hulmes began his career in sports with the Baltimore Orioles as assistant business manager. He was then the sports information director at Bucknell University before entering the NFL as the Colts' business manager in 1958. Hulmes subsequently served as public relations director and general manager of the Colts before moving to the Saints in 1970 as assistant general manager. Until he departed for the Wranglers in 1982, Hulmes also served the Saints as Director of Player Personnel and Vice President of Administration.

Hulmes graduated from Northeast High School in Philadelphia, then spent three years in the Navy as a radarman in the South Pacific and Persian Gulf theaters. Hulmes earned a B.A. degree in journalism at the University of Pennsylvania after returning from the service.

Born on July 20, 1927 in Philadelphia, Hulmes is married to the former Barbara Lockhart of Mount Holly, N.J., and is the father of two daughters, Linda Ann and Terry Ellen, both graduates of LSU, and a son, Richard Wayne, also a graduate of LSU. Harry and Barbara Hulmes have six grandchildren.

His duties include player evaluation and preparation for upcoming opponents and free agency. Polifroni graduated from Fordham University in 2003. His 1st year of college was spent at Providence College, where he was a student manager for the men's basketball team. Polifroni graduated in 1999 from Bergen Catholic High School, where he was a member of two state championship football teams.

NEW YORK GIANTS STAFF

CHRIS PRIDY
ASSISTANT TO THE COACHES

Chris Pridy is in his 2nd season with the Giants as an assistant to the coaches. He assists the head coach and assistant coaches in weekly game plan preparation and applicable administrative roles. He also works as a liaison between the coaching staff and all support personnel departments. Pridy began his career with the New Jersey Gladiators of the AFL, where he was responsible for player contracts, salary cap management and overseeing the team's compliancy to the CBA. Pridy graduated from Rutgers University in 1999 with a degree in sociology. He graduated from Brick Memorial High School. Pridy and his wife, Erica, reside in Aberdeen, N.J. Pridy was born March 24, 1974.

BETH ROCHE
DIRECTOR OF MARKETING SERVICES & YOUTH PROGRAMS

Beth Roche joined the Giants in June of 2004 after spending 5 years at the National Football League in New York. Her responsibilities with the Giants include the activation of Giants partnerships, the management of the Giants Extra Points credit card program, and the development and growth of the Giants youth platform. A Bergen County native, Beth earned her bachelor's degree from Georgetown University in 1992. At Georgetown, she spent her sophomore year as sports editor for The HOYA, the campus newspaper. Born on Oct. 2, 1969, Beth lives in New York City.

AVIS ROPER
ASSISTANT DIRECTOR OF COMMUNICATIONS

Avis Roper is entering his 7th season as the Giants' Assistant Director of Communications and his 10th season in the NFL. Prior to joining the Giants, Roper worked in the communications departments of the Carolina Panthers (1996-97) and St. Louis Rams (1998). Roper worked the NFC Championship game with Carolina in 1996 and Super Bowl XXXV with the Giants in 2000. In addition, he has been selected by the NFL Public Relations Department to work at two Super Bowls and three NFC Championship Games. In 2001, Roper was a member of the Giants Public Relations Department that received the Pete Rozelle Award, honoring the league's best PR Department, as voted by the Pro Football Writers of America (PFWA). Roper is an alumnus of South Carolina State University. He is a native of Charleston, S.C., where he lettered in football at Middleton High School. Roper resides in Edison, N.J. with his wife, Catherine.

EMILY RYAN
PLAYER DEVELOPMENT COORDINATOR

Emily Ryan is in her 1st season as the Giants' Player Development Coordinator. She works with Charles Way in assisting players to achieve their continuing education goals and finding career internships during the off-season. Emily also organizes life skills seminars for all players that cover a broad range of subjects from financial planning to family assistance programs. Emily earned her B.S. in communications from Boston College with a minor in faith, peace, and justice in 2005. At Boston College, she worked for the football, men's basketball and hockey teams in the media relations department. Prior to her senior year, Emily was a public relations intern with the Giants.

NEW YORK GIANTS STAFF

ALLISON STANGEBY
DIRECTOR OF COMMUNITY RELATIONS

Allison Stangeby joined the Giants in June 1991. In her current position, she serves as the liaison between the team and the surrounding community. She is responsible for utilizing the resources of the team, including the time and talents of current and alumni players, to benefit organizations and individuals in the tri-state area. Allison was raised in Hillsdale, N.J and received her B.A. in communications from Fairleigh Dickinson University. Allison and her husband, Erik, a Group Supervisor for the Drug Enforcement Administration, reside in Warwick, N.Y. with their daughter, Hailee Marie, and sons, Joseph Gunnar and Jon-Christian.

GLENN TODD
DIRECTOR OF MARKETING PARTNERSHIPS

Now in his 4th season as the Giants' Director of Marketing Partnerships, Todd is responsible for the sponsorship efforts of the organization, including selling stadium signage, television/print media, hospitality, and other assets. He also is responsible for creating sponsor and fan events for the organization as well. Todd has more than 15 years of sports marketing experience with the Miami Heat, Streetball Partners, and most recently, managing the 2002 McDonald's All American Game at Madison Square Garden. A native of Texas, he graduated with a degree in Sports Administration from St. Thomas University in Miami. Todd resides in Emerson, N.J. with his wife, Melissa.

MICHELLE TURNER
PAYROLL/BENEFITS COORDINATOR

Michelle Turner is in her 3rd season as the New York Giants' Payroll/Benefits Coordinator for both the players and the front office. Turner has a bachelor's degree in economics. She is the mother of five boys.

ANDREA WAGNER
ASSISTANT TO PRO PERSONNEL

Andrea DeNonno Wagner began working for the Giants while still in high school as a part-time employee who assisted Jim Lee Howell in the college scouting department, and in the preparation of the NFL yearly draft. She became a full-time employee upon her graduation and continued in college scouting working with Tom Boisture until his retirement. For the past seven years Andrea has been with the Pro Personnal department where she assists in the acquisition of players. Originally from New York, Andrea now resides in River Edge, N.J. with her children, Donna Lea, a senior at St. Joseph's University, and Christopher, a senior at River Dell High School.

NEW YORK GIANTS STAFF

JANICE GAVAZZI WASACK

ASSISTANT TO THE VICE PRESIDENT-GENERAL MANAGER

Janice has worked as the assistant to the Vice President-General Manager since 1979, when George Young was hired as the Giants' G.M. The 1st pro football game she ever attended was the Giants-Eagles game in 1978, which ended with Joe Pisarcik's infamous fumble. Ironically, that game led to a restructuring of the front office and coaching staff, which resulted in Young's arrival. Andy Robustelli, Young's predecessor, did not have a secretary/assistant. Young wanted one and hired Janice, who at the time was a legal secretary seeking a new challenge. Janice was born in Paterson, N.J. and raised in nearby Fairfield. She and her husband, Jay, have a daughter, Julie (6). They live in Middletown, N.J.

CHARLES WAY

DIRECTOR OF PLAYER DEVELOPMENT

Charles Way is in his 6th season as the Giants' Director of Player Development. Way develops and manages off-field player programs, rookie orientations and player counseling and advises the players regarding career planning, educational opportunities, and team and professional requirements. He also coordinates player activities in support of the public relations and community relations programs. Way was a Giants fullback from 1995-99. In 5 seasons he rushed for 1,356 yards, caught 118 passes and scored 14 touchdowns. Way was a 6th-round draft choice in 1995. At the University of Virginia, Way was named the team's Most Outstanding Offensive Player as a senior. He received an honorary doctorate of humane letters degree in May 2005 from Centenary College, where he was the 2005-2006 Gates-Ferry lecturer. A native of Philadelphia, Way lives in Wayne, N.J. with his wife, Tahesha and their daughters Fallon (8), Farrah (5) and Faythe (2).

RODNELL E. WORKMAN

MARKETING MANAGER

Rodnell Workman has been a member of the Giants organization since Feb. 2002. He manages a number of the team's corporate sponsorships and is intimately involved in new business development, partnership integration, promotional activation and team brand development. Prior to joining the Giants, Rodnell held key marketing positions with a number of well known companies, such as the NFL (within the Marketing & Sponsorship Department), The Lipton Tea Company and BBDO New York (advertising agency). The Queens, N.Y. native is a graduate of The Pennsylvania State University. He and his wife, Heidi, reside in Hillsborough, N.J.

Transactions: Originally a 2nd-round (36th pick overall) draft choice by the Giants in 1997.

NFL: One of the most productive, consistent and exciting players in the NFL and in the history of the Giants...Was named to his first Pro Bowl after the 2004 season...Has 12,842 career total yards (6,927 rushing, 4,188 receiving, 1,181 punt returns, 544 kickoff returns and 2 fumble yardage), the highest total in franchise history and the 7th-highest total among active players at the conclusion of the 2004 season...Barber has rushed for a franchise record 6,927 yards (on 1,588 carries)...His 4.6-yards-per-carry average is the highest among the top 10 rushers in franchise history...The 1,588 rushing attempts place him 2nd on the team's career list, behind Rodney Hampton (1,824)...Barber's 41 rushing touchdowns is 3rd on the team's career list (7 behind Joe Morris and 8 behind Hampton)...He is 1st on the Giants career list with 474 receptions, 5 ahead of teammate Amani Toomer... Barber is the only active player and just the 3rd overall to currently lead a franchise in both rushing yards and receptions. The others are Hall of Famer Walter Payton (16,726 rushing yards and 492 catches for Chicago) and James Wilder (5,957 rushing yards and 430 catches for Tampa Bay)...Barber is one of just 4 running backs currently leading a franchise in career receptions. The others are Payton, Wilder and Larry Centers (Arizona)...Barber is 4th in Giants history with 1,181 punt return yards (Phil McConkey is No. 3 with 1,708)...In 2004, broke his own franchise record with 2,096 all-purpose yards (1,518 rushing and 578 receiving). Barber set the previous record in 2000 with 2,085 all-purpose yards (1,006 rushing, 719 receiving, 332 on punt returns and 28 on kickoff returns)...Barber has 3 times set the team record for most receptions in a season by a running back, 1st with 66 in 1999, then with 70 in 2000 and finally with 72 in 2001. Prior to Barber's arrival, Frank Gifford held the record with 51 in 1956...Was the starting running back coming out of his 2nd training camp in 1998 but was replaced in the lineup by veteran Gary Brown after 4 games...Began his rookie season in 1997 as the starting running back after beating out Tyrone Wheatley in the preseason. Injuries limited him to just 6 starts in 12 games.

GIANT FACT
BARBER IS THE GIANTS CAREER LEADER IN RUSHING YARDS AND RECEPTIONS

2004: Played in all 16 games, with 14 starts, in his finest NFL season...Set 4 significant team records and was selected to his 1st Pro Bowl, the 1st Giants running back so honored since Rodney Hampton in 1993. Finished 1st in the NFL with a Giants-record 2,096 yards from scrimmage, 65 more than NFL runner-up Edgerrin James of Indianapolis and 230 more than NFC runner-up Shaun Alexander of Seattle. Barber had held the previous Giants record of 2,085 yards, set in 2000. Barber was 5th in the league and 2nd in the conference with a team-record 1,518 rushing yards, 2 more than Joe Morris' total in 1986. It was the 5th consecutive season in which he led the team in rushing. Barber set the record on the game-winning 3-yard run with 11 seconds left against Dallas in the season finale. Barber tied a career high by averaging 4.7 yards a carry, an average he also maintained in 2000. His 1,518 yards placed him 2nd in the NFC and 5th in the NFL. Barber rushed for at least 100 yards in 9 games, breaking the team's previous single-season record of 8, set by Morris in 1986. Barber finished the season with 6,927 career rushing yards, eclipsing Hampton's former team record of 6,897. But Barber has 291 fewer carries than Hampton did. His career average is 4.5 yards a carry. Hampton's was 3.8...Barber rushed for 13 touchdowns, the 5th-highest total in team history and the most since Hampton had 14 in 1992...Barber also has a franchise-record 474 receptions. Barber's 6,927 yards placed him 13th among active players at the conclusion of the 2004 season...Barber is the only active player and just the third overall to currently lead a franchise in both rushing yards and receptions. The others are Hall of Famer Walter Payton (16,726 rushing yards and 492 catches for Chicago) and James Wilder (5,957 rushing yards and 430 catches for Tampa Bay). Barber was 2nd in the NFL and led the NFC with 95 first downs (77 rushing, 18 receiving). He was 3rd among non-kickers in the NFC with 90 points (15 touchdowns, 13 rushing and 2 receiving). Barber had 19 plays of 20 or more yards and tied for the NFL high with 5 plays of 50 or more yards (three runs and two receptions). The other three players who had five 50-yard plays were wide receivers: Buffalo's Lee Evans, Kansas City's Eddie Kennison and Philadelphia's Todd Pinkston...Started and rushed for 95 yards, caught 3 passes for 21 yards, scored 2 touchdowns (1 rushing and 1 receptions) and set 3 significant franchise records (rushing yards in a season, career rushing yards and single-season total yards vs. Dallas (1/2). Scored the winning touchdown on a 3-yard run with 11 seconds remaining. Touchdown reception came on a 3-yard pass from Eli Manning in the 4th quarter...Rushed for 109 yards and a touchdown on 22 carries at Cincinnati (12/26). His 22 carries increased his career total to 1,509. He is the 2nd Giant in history with at least 1,500 rushing attempts. Also caught 2 passes for 14 yards...Finished with 18 carries for 76 yards and a touchdown vs. Pittsburgh (12/18). Also caught a team-high 5 passes for 38 yards. His 35-yard run in the 1st quarter helped set up Manning's 2-yard touchdown pass to Jeremy Shockey...Started and finished with 19 carries for 110 yards, including a 33-yarder, vs. Philadelphia (11/28)...Rushed for 107 yards on 21 carries with a long run of 23 yards and caught 3 passes for 24 yards with a long reception of 13 yards vs. Atlanta (11/21). His streak of scoring at least 1 touchdown ended after 7 consecutive games...Started and rushed for 108 yards and a touchdown and had 5 receptions for 52 yards at Arizona (11/14). Scored a touchdown in his 7th consecutive game, tying the longest single-season streak in team history, which had stood for 60 years. Bill Paschal scored in 7 straight games in 1944. Kyle Rote had touchdowns in 7 games in a row over 2 years (1959-60) and Frank Gifford scored touchdowns in a franchise-record 10 straight games in 1957-58...Scored 2 touchdowns for the 2nd week in a row and rushed for 72 yards on 21 carries vs. Chicago (11/7). He was the first Giant to score at least 2 touchdowns in each of 2 consecutive games since Lionel Manuel did it on Oct. 25 and Nov. 2, 1987. Also had 4 receptions for 59 yards...Started and carried 24 times for 101 yards and 2 touchdowns at Minnesota (10/31). Scored on a 2-yard run in the 1st quarter and a 5-yard run in the 2nd quarter. Scored at least 1 touchdown in 5 consecutive games, the first Giant to score in 5 straight games in one season since Barber did it from Nov. 24-Dec. 22, 2002...Started and finished with 22 carries for 70 yards and 7 receptions for 102 yards and a touchdown vs. Detroit (10/24). Scored his 1st receiving touchdown of the season when he caught a screen pass and took it 62 yards for a score in the 1st quarter. The 102 receiving yards were a single-game career-high...Rushed for 122 yards and a touchdown on 23 carries and had 5 receptions for 76 yards at Dallas (10/10). Game-long run of 58 yards set up the Giants go-ahead touchdown, a 1-yard Warner-to-Shockey pass to give the Giants a 13-10 lead in the third quarter. Had a 55-yard reception on a quick screen that set up his own 3-yard touchdown run in the 4th quarter. Became the first Giant to have both a run and a catch of at least 50 yards in the same game since Alex Webster did it on Sept. 30, 1962 at Pittsburgh. He was the first NFL player to do it since Clinton Portis, then with Denver, did it on Oct. 5, 2003 – also at Pittsburgh...Rushed for a season-high 182 yards and a touchdown at Green Bay (10/3). It was the 2nd-highest rushing total of Barber's career; he ran for 203 yards in the season-ending victory over the Eagles in 2002. Game-long 52-yard touchdown run in the 3rd quarter tied the game at 7-7. His 38-yard run in the 4th quarter set up Shockey's 4-yard touchdown reception...Carried 23 times for 106 yards and a touchdown vs. Cleveland (9/26). Also had 4 receptions for 48 yards, including a 41-yarder in the 4th quarter to set up Steve Christie's 25-yard field goal...Had 200 yards of total offense at Philadelphia (9/12), rushing 9 times for 125 yards and catching 5 passes for 75 yards...Game-long 72-yard touchdown run in the 4th quarter was the 2nd-longest of his career. He scored on a 78-yard run vs. Arizona in Giants Stadium on Sept. 3, 2000...Long reception of 34 yards came in the 4th quarter on the last drive of the game.

2003: Started all 16 games...Led the team and was fifth in the NFC with 1,216 rushing yards (the third-highest total of his career). It was the 4th consecutive season in which he led the Giants in rushing. Also led the team with 69 receptions (T-10th in the NFC) to become the first Giant to finish first in both rushing and receptions since Joe Dawkins in 1974. Dawkins had 561 rushing yards and 46 catches...Barber was 1 of 4 NFL players who led their team in both rushing and receptions, joining Priest Holmes (Kansas City), LaDainian Tomlinson (San Diego) and Shawn Bryson (Detroit)...Barber joined Joe Morris as the only Giants with two 1,200-yard seasons. He was the first running back to lead the team in catches since David Meggett had 39 in 1990...His 1,677 yards from scrimmage (1,216 rushing and 461 receiving) placed him 5th in the NFC...Finished 3rd in the NFC with 92 first downs (66 rushing, 26 receiving)...Also finished the season as the franchise's all-time leader in total yards (10,746) and receptions (422) and was 2nd in rushing (5,409 yards)...Barber rushed for more than 100 yards 4 times, boosting his career total to 13 times, 3rd on the franchise's career list behind Morris (19) and Rodney Hampton (17)...Reached the 1,000-yard plateau for the 2nd consecutive season and for the 3rd time in his career vs. Washington (12/7), when he rushed for 99 yards on 16 carries...Had 19 carries for 111 yards and three receptions for 20 yards and scored his only receiving touchdown of the season (a 10-yard pass from Kerry Collins) at Philadelphia (11/16). It was the second game in a row he exceeded 100 yards on the ground. He had 120 yards on 16 carries the previous week vs. Atlanta (11/9) and a season-high 10 receptions for 38 yards. The 158 total yards vs. the Falcons pushed Barber past the 10,000-yard mark for his career...Had 21 carries for 77 yards and 4 receptions for 32 yards at Jets (11/2). Accounted for 30 of the 53 yards on the Giants' game-winning drive that resulted in Brett Conway's 29-yard field goal in overtime...Rushed for 75 yards and a touchdown and had 5 receptions for 47 yards at Minnesota (10/26)...Had a season-high 28 carries for 126 yards and 4 catches at Washington (9/21). His 11-yard run up the middle in overtime set up Matt Bryant's game-winning 29-yard field goal...Opened the season with a season-high 146 yards on 24 carries vs. St Louis (9/7). Also had 2 receptions for 19 yards. Consecutive runs of 15 and 22 yards in the third quarter set up Brian Mitchell's 1-yard touchdown run.

2002: Played in all 16 regular season games, with 15 starts...Also started in the NFC Wild Card game in San Francisco...Barber was 1st in the NFC and 4th in the NFL with 1,984 yards from scrimmage (1,387 rushing and 597 receiving). He was the 1st Giant to lead the conference in scrimmage yards since Ron Johnson was No. 1 in the NFL in 1970 with 1,514 yards...Barber was 2nd in the NFC and 7th in the NFL with 1,387 rushing yards, then the 2nd-highest total in team history. It was the 3rd season in a row Barber led the Giants in rushing yardage...Barber carried the ball 304 times, then the 6th-highest total in team history and the most by a Giant since Rodney Hampton had 306 carries in 1995...Barber scored a then career-high 11 rushing touchdowns, the most by a Giant since Hampton had 14 in 1992...Beginning on Nov. 24 in Houston, Barber had long runs of 70, 42, 43 and 60 in a 4-game span. He became the 1st NFL player since the 1970 merger to have a run of at least 40 yards in 4 consecutive games...Barber was 3rd on the team with 69 receptions...He led the NFC with 90 1st downs (67 rushing, 23 receiving), 10 more than runners-up Deuce McAllister of New Orleans and Shaun Alexander of Seattle...Barber was the NFC Offensive Player of the Month for November. His 4 receptions gave him 70 for the season, a new record for receptions by a Giants running back. Barber broke his own record of 66, set in 1999...With a combined 127 rushing and receiving yards, Barber accounted for 56 percent of the Giants' 225 total yards at Dallas (12/17)...Became the Giants single-season all-purpose yardage leader with 1,967. Scored game-winning touchdown on a 13-yard touchdown run midway through the 4th quarter...Became the 1st Giant since Frank Gifford in 1959 to gain 500 or more yards in rushing and receiving in a season, at Arizona (11/26). Gifford finished the 1959 season with 540 yards rushing and 768 yards receiving. Barber rushed for 32 yards and added 52 yards receiving, increasing his totals for the season to 744 rushing and 536 receiving...Eclipsed 1,000 yards from scrimmage (1,067) with 93 yards vs. St. Louis (11/12)...Electrified Giants Stadium vs. Arizona (9/3) in 1st opening day start since 1997, rushing for then-career high 144 rushing yards. His 116 yards in the 1st half were the most in a half by a Giants running back since Rodney Hampton rushed for 131 yards in the 2nd half at Dallas (12/17/95). Barber's 144 rushing yards on Opening Day vs. Arizona were the most rushing yards ever by a Giant in a season-opener. Had 2 rushing touchdowns, including 78-yard run in the 2nd quarter that was the 4th longest run in Giants history and was the longest run by a Giant since Gifford ran 79 yards vs. Washington (11/29/59). His 10-yard touchdown run in the 1st quarter was his 1st rushing touchdown since he scored on a 1-yard run vs. Baltimore (9/14/97). His 2 rushing touchdown performance was the 1st by a Giant since game vs. Cincinnati (10/26/97) when Tyrone Wheatley and Charles Way both ran for 2 touchdowns.

1999: Primarily used as a 3rd down back, played in all 16 games with 1 start, when the team opened in a single-back formation against Indianapolis (11/14)...Accumulated 1,639 all-purpose yards, then good for 4th on the all-time Giants single-season list. Barber recorded 258 rushing yards, 609 receiving yards, 506 yards on punt returns and 266 yards on kickoff returns...Earned NFL's "Prime Time II" award after his performance vs. Dallas (10/18) when he returned a punt 85 yards for a TD in the 4th quarter. Also set up game-winning field goal with a 56-yard catch and run to the Cowboys 3-yard line late in the 4th quarter... Transactions: Originally a 5th round (160th pick overall) draft choice by the Giants in 2003.

NFL: Tough, athletic, and versatile offensive lineman who became the first Giant since the introduction of the 16-game schedule in 1978 to start all 32 games in his first two seasons...Is 1 of just 8 – and 2 offensive linemen – who entered the NFL in 2003 to start every game the previous 2 seasons...Diehl started 16 games at right guard as a rookie and 16 at right tackle last season...Will likely play left guard in 2005.

2004: Started all 16 games at right tackle after starting all 16 games at right guard as a rookie last season....O-line's run blocking enabled Tiki Barber to gain 95 yards and a touchdown on 24 carries vs. Dallas (1/2). Line allowed 1 sack...Provided enough run blocking for the Giants to rush for 142 yards at Cincinnati (12/26)...Offensive line did not allow a sack vs. Pittsburgh (12/18) for the first time since Dec. 22, 2002 at Indianapolis in a 44-27 victory...Offensive line allowed 6 sacks, but provided enough run blocking for the Giants to gain 147 yard on the ground at Arizona (11/14)...Run blocking at Minnesota (10/31) enabled the Giants to rush for 168 yards and 4 touchdowns... Offensive line's run blocking at Dallas (10/10) enabled Barber to gain 122 yards and a touchdown on 23 carries...Diehl missed a snap for the 1st time in his career when he left the game for a play in the 4th quarter with a cut below the eye at Green Bay (10/3). Returned to the game and helped the Giants rush for 245 yards, their highest total since they had 260 rushing yards in a 31-21 victory over Phoenix on Oct. 11, 1992...Offensive line allowed two sacks and provided enough protection for Kurt Warner to complete 22 of 33 passes for 232 yards and a touchdown vs. Washington (9/19)...Debuted at right tackle at Philadelphia (9/12)...Offensive line provided enough blocking and pass protection for the offense to gain 413 yards, their highest total since they had 413 yards in a victory over the Jets on Nov. 2, 2003.

2003: Started all 16 games at right guard...Became the first Giants rookie to start all 16 games since Mark Bavaro in 1985...Was one of 14 NFL rookies to start all 16 games in 2003...Was 1 of only 3 offensive linemen on the roster to see action in all 16 games, was 1 of only 2 to start every game during the year and was the only to start at the same position each game during the 2003 season...Offensive line had its finest game as a unit at Jets (11/2), allowing 1 sack and providing the blocking to enable the Giants to gain 413 yards...Diehl and the line helped the Giants gain a season-high 450 yards of total offense at Minnesota (10/26)...Offensive line's run blocking and pass protection at Washington

DIEHL STARTED ALL 32 GAMES IN HIS FIRST 2 NFL SEASONS.

DAVID DIEHL

(9/21) enabled the Giants to gain 399 yards of total offense...Joined fellow rookies Wayne Lucier (left guard) and Jeff Roehl (left tackle) in the starting lineup vs. Dallas (9/15), making the Giants the 1st team since the 1981 Washington Redskins to start 3 rookie offensive linemen in the same game.

College: Second-team All-Big Ten Conference selection as a senior in 2002...Recipient of the Wright Commitment to Excellence Award, presented to the Illinois player who has dedicated himself to academic excellence despite obstacles faced during his collegiate career...Started every game at left offensive guard, registering 91 knockdowns for an offense that featured its first 1,000-yard rusher (Antoineo Harris) and 1,000-yard receiver (Brandon Lloyd) in the same season since 1984. Helped offense total 5,356 yards...In 2001, saw action at both guard and tackle...Registered 56 knockdowns as he participated in 385 plays for an offense that gained 5,041 yards, as the line allowed only 16 quarterback sacks (second in the Big Ten)...In 2000, was valuable reserve, seeing action in every game at right guard...Made 15 knockdowns as he participated in 43 plays...In 1999, played in 6 games on the field goal and extra point protection units...Redshirted as a freshman in 1998.

Priest Holmes at 144 points)...Became the 1st Falcons kicker with consecutive 100-point seasons since Morten Andersen had 104 and 120 points, respectively, in 1997-98...Kicked game-winning field goals at New Orleans (10/27) and vs. Baltimore (11/3)...Connected on a career-high 5 field goals vs. Detroit (12/22), one shy of the Falcons record set by Norm Johnson at New Orleans (11/13/94)...Hit a clutch 52-yard field goal in final seconds of regulation to tie the score at 34-34 and force overtime at Green Bay (9/8) in the season opener. The 52-yarder was tied for the second longest of his career...Booted field goals of 44, 26, and 34 yards and connected on three PAT's for 12 points vs. Cincinnati (9/22)...Kicked field goals from 41, 45 and 49 yards and added three extra points for 12 points vs. Carolina (10/20). It was the first time a Falcons kicker had three 40+ yard field goals since Morten Andersen in 1995. Captured his first-ever NFC Special Teams Player of the Week honor and was also named special teams MVP by coaches...Booted the game-winning field goal from 47 yards as time expired to claim a 37-35 victory at New Orleans (10/27). It was the second game-winning field goal of his career Buffalo (12/23/01). Connected on 31-and 32-yard field goals, as well, and booted four PAT's for 13 points, the third-highest total of his career. Named NFC Special Teams Player of the Month (for October) and captured special teams MVP by coaches for second straight week. Hit 9 of 10 field goals attempts, including 3 of 4 from 45 yards and beyond to finish the month with 36 points...Kicked field goals of 36 and 40 yards before having a 56-yard attempt in overtime blocked at Pittsburgh (11/10), ending a streak of 13 straight field goals made...Set a new career-high with five field goals of 23, 23, 36, 20, and 39 yards vs. Detroit (12/22). His previous best was 4 vs. Buffalo (12/23/01) and vs. St. Louis (12/2/01). Hit 3 extra points for a career-high of 18 total points to tie for second-most in a game in Falcons history to Norm Johnson's 20 points. Andersen also totaled 18 points vs. San Francisco on Sept. 3, 2000. The 18 points pushed his season total to 128, setting a Falcons single-season record. Andersen held the previous mark with 122 points in 1995...Booted field goals of 42, 49 and 30 yards in regular season finale at Cleveland (12/29) to finish with 32 for season to break Andersen's club record of 31 (in 1995). His 4 field goal attempts increased his season total to 40, breaking Nick Mike-Mayer's club record of 38 field goal attempts (in 1973).

2001: Broke into the NFL by booting 29 of 37 field goal attempts (.784) and connected on all 28 PATs for 115 points...Missed only 1 field goal attempt on the road (14/15) at Miami (12/30), a 44-yarder that was batted away...The 29 field goals ranked him 1st in the NFC and 4th in the NFL...His 115 points tied Pro Bowler David Akers of the Eagles for 2nd in the NFC to St. Louis' Jeff Wilkins, who led the NFL with 127 points...Kicked the longest field goal outdoors in team history with a 55-yarder at Arizona (9/30), which tied Andersen (3 times) for the 2nd-longest overall; Andersen kicked a 59-yarder vs. San Francisco (12/24/95). Andersen booted a 55-yarder 3 times during his Falcons career...Kicked his 1st career game-winning field goal from 52 yards as time expired to claim a 33-30 victory vs. Buffalo (12/23). Made 4 field goals on the day from 35, 32, 43 and 52 yards and added 2 extra points for a then-career best 14 points.

College: Concluded his career at Michigan by hitting 20-26 field goal attempts and 43-44 PATs...Also served as the team's kickoff specialist. As a senior, he connected on 17 of 22 field goal tries and 40 of 41 extra point attempts...Was named Big Ten honorable mention by coaches and media. Feely booted the longest field goal in the nation with a 51-yarder vs. Baylor as a junior, which was also the 6th longest in Michigan history.

POSTSEASON
Games Played-Started ..0-0

Transactions: Originally a 1st round (1st pick overall) draft choice by the San Diego Chargers in 2004. Obtained by the Giants in a trade for quarterback Philip Rivers (whom the Giants had taken with the 4th pick), the Giants' 2004 3rd-round pick and 2005 1st and 5th-round picks.

NFL: Strong-armed quarterback with a historic football heritage and superstar potential... Followed his father, Archie, and brother, Peyton, into the NFL...Archie was the 2nd pick of the 1971 draft and played 14 years with New Orleans, Houston and Minnesota. Peyton was the 1st choice of the 1998 draft and shared the 2003 NFL Most Valuable Player award with Steve McNair...Manning's arrival marked the 1st time the Giants came out of a draft with the top player selected since 1965, when they chose Auburn running back Tucker Fredrickson...Moved into the starting lineup with 7 games remaining in his rookie season.

2004: Was the 1st choice of the 2004 NFL draft, by the San Diego Chargers, the highest an Ole Miss player has ever been picked. Soon after his selection, Manning was traded to the Giants for quarterback Philip Rivers (the No. 4 overall pick), a 3rd-round choice in 2004 and 1st and 5th-round choices in 2005...Played in 9 games, including starts in the last 7 games...Rookie record as a starter was 1-6...Improved markedly down the stretch and finished with 95 completions in 197 attempts for 1,043 yards, 6 touchdowns and 9 interceptions...Started and earned his 1st NFL victory in the season finale vs. Dallas (1/2). Completed 18 of 27 passes for 144 yards, 3 touchdowns, 1 interception and a rating of 101.5. Threw touchdown passes of 2 yards to Visanthe Shiancoe in the 2nd quarter, 15 yards to David Tyree and 3 yards to Tiki Barber, both in the 4th quarter...Completed a 23-yard pass to Barber to start the Giants game-winning drive and called audible to a run play enabling Barber to score the deciding touchdown on a 3-yard run with 11 seconds remaining...Completed 19 passes on 37 attempts for 201 yards, no touchdowns and 1 interception at Cincinnati (12/26)...Completed 16 passes on 23 attempts for 182 yards, 2 touchdowns, 1 interception, a long-pass of 49 yards and a season-high rating of 103.9 vs. Pittsburgh (12/18). Threw his 2nd touchdown pass of the season in the 1st quarter, a 2-yard pass to Jeremy Shockey. Completed a 49-yard pass to Tyree and a 17-yarder to Barber on a drive that resulted in his 2nd touchdown pass of the game, a 1-yarder to Marcellus Rivers. Completed a pair of 17-yard passes to Amani Toomer and a 15-yarder to Ike Hilliard to help set up Barber's 1-yard touchdown run...Completed 4 passes on 18 attempts for 27 yards with 2 interceptions at Baltimore (12/12). Was replaced by Kurt Warner in the 4th quarter...Started on the road for the 1st time at Washington (12/5) and completed 12 of 25 passes for 113 yards, no touchdowns and no interceptions...Completed 6 of 21 passes for 148 yards, no touchdowns and 2 interceptions vs. Philadelphia (11/28).

GIANT FACT
MANNING WAS ONLY THE 5TH QB IN SEC HISTORY TO THROW FOR MORE THAN 10,000 YARDS.

ELI MANNING

Hooked up with fellow rookie Jamaar Taylor for a pair of completions that gained at least 50 yards: a 50-yarder to set up a field goal in the 1st period and a 52-yarder in the 2nd period...Made his first NFL start vs. Atlanta (11/21) and completed 17 of 37 passes for 162 yards, 1 touchdown and 2 interceptions...His 1st NFL touchdown pass was a 6-yarder to Jeremy Shockey. Coincidently the initial pro scoring pass for all 3 Manning quarterbacks was 6 yards long. Archie Manning threw a 6-yarder to Dave Parks in 1971. Peyton Manning's 6-yard touchdown pass went to Marvin Harrison on Sept. 6, 1998...Manning was the 18th quarterback to start a game for the Giants in the Giants Stadium era (including Craig Morton and Norm Snead, who joined the team earlier and were still on the team when the stadium opened in 1976). He was the 4th quarterback in a row to lose his debut, joining Kerry Collins, Jesse Palmer and Kurt Warner...Of the 14 quarterbacks selected with the No. 1 overall pick in the NFL Draft since 1970, he was the 13th to make his starting debut as a rookie (Cincinnati's Carson Palmer was the exception). The 13 quarterbacks taken with the top pick who started as rookies are 4-9 in their debuts. Completed an 18-yard pass to Shockey to convert a 3rd-and-12 and a 14-yarder to Toomer to convert a 3rd-and-8...Did not play at Arizona (11/14) and vs. Chicago (11/7)...Saw action late in the 4th quarter at Minnesota (10/31). The Giants led, 34-13, and Manning did not attempt a pass...Did not play as the 2nd quarterback vs. Detriot (10/24), at Dallas (10/10), at Green Bay (10/3), vs. Cleveland (9/26) and vs. Washington (9/19)...Saw his 1st NFL regular season action when he replaced Kurt Warner with 2:37 remaining in the 4th quarter at Philadelphia (9/12), with the Giants trailing, 31-10. Completed 3 of 9 passes for 66 yards, including a 34-yarder, no touchdowns and no interceptions. Was sacked once and fumbled after being blindsided by Jerome McDougle. On his 1st career snap, he handed the ball off to Barber, who ran 72 yards for a touchdown. Manning's long completion of 34 yards was a short screen pass to Barber on the final drive of the game.

College: Only the 5th quarterback in Southeastern Conference history to throw for more than 10,000 career yards...Holder of 47 school game, season and career records...Completed 829 of 1,363 passes (60.8%) for 10,119 yards, 81 touchdowns and 35 interceptions, topping the previous marks of 566 completions of 981 passes by Kent Austin (1981-85), 6311 yards and 43 scores by Romaro Miller (1997-2000)...Only Bobby Garner (63.2%, 1975-78) and Paul Head (61.5%, 1993-96) had a higher pass completion percentage among the school's all-time quarterbacks...Averaged a school-record 7.42 yards per attempt...Scored 5 times on 128 carries...Totaled 9,984 yards and accounted for 86 touchdowns, breaking the previous Ole Miss career-records of 6413 yards by Miller and 56 scores by his father, Archie Manning (1968-70)...His passing yards and total offensive yardage rank 5th in SEC history, while his pass attempts and completions rank 4th...Manning's 81 touchdown tosses rank 3rd and his 86 total scores (81 passing, 5 rushing) rank 4th in SEC history...Set an Ole Miss career mark for average yards per offensive play (rush or pass), 6.70...His 1,491 career offensive plays rank 1st in school history...Set school career marks for 300-yard games of total offense (9) and 350-yard games of total offense (6)...Also set Ole Miss career records for consecutive games with a touchdown pass (16), consecutive 200-yard passing games (11) and consecutive 250-yard passing games...won the Maxwell Award, given to the nation's top collegiate player, and the Johnny Unitas Golden Arm Award, given to the nation's top senior quarterback...Finished 3rd in the 2003 Heisman Trophy balloting...Finalist for the Davey O'Brien Award, presented to the nation's top quarterback, and The Walter Camp Foundation Player of the Year Award...Earned 1st team All-America honors from Southern Football Weekly, adding 2nd-team accolades from The Sporting News and honorable mention from Sports Illustrated...All-Southeastern Conference 1st-team pick and named the SEC Offensive Player of the Year by The Associated Press and the league's coaches...Also selected as the SEC Player of the Year by the Commercial Appeal...Earned the Conerly Trophy, given to the top collegiate player in the state of Mississippi (also won the Conerly Trophy in 2001)...Named one of 15 scholar-athletes by the National Football Foundation and College of Hall of Fame,

Transactions: Originally a 1st round (19th pick overall) draft choice by the Giants in 1999.

NFL: Has started at 3 positions for the Giants: left guard as a rookie, right tackle in 2000 and 2001, and left tackle since 2002...Provided veteran leadership for an inexperienced line in 2003-2004...Durable and consistent player who has the strength to clear holes in the running game and quickness and flexibility to seal off defensive ends as a pass blocker...Started 49 consecutive games before missing 6 games due to injury in 2003...Returned to start all 16 games in 2004.

2004: Started all 16 games at left tackle and helped anchor a line that led the way for running back Tiki Barber to rush for a franchise-record 1,518 yards...Offensive line allowed 1 sack and provided enough run blocking for Barber to gain 95 yards on 24 carries and score the winning touchdown vs. Dallas (1/2)...The offensive line did not allow a sack vs. Pittsburgh (12/18) for the first time since Dec. 22, 2002 at Indianapolis in a 44-27 victory...The line paved the way for the Giants to rush for 168 yards and 4 touchdowns at Minnesota (10/31)...The O-line's blocking enabled the Giants to rush for 245 yards at Green Bay (10/3), their highest total since they had 260 rushing yards against Phoenix on Oct. 11, 1992...The line allowed 2 sacks and provided enough protection for Kurt Warner to complete 22 passes on 33 attempts for 232 yards and a touchdown vs. Washington (9/19).

2003: Started 10 games at left tackle and missed 6 games with a back injury that forced him to go on injured reserve (12/17)...First injured back in 2nd quarter of season opener vs. St. Louis (9/7) and did not return to game...Inactive for the next game vs. Dallas (9/15), ending a streak of 49 consecutive starts dating back to the beginning of the 2000 season...Returned to action the following week at Washington (9/21) and the line's run blocking and pass protection enabled the Giants to gain 399 yards of total offense and allow just one sack...Started 9 games in a row, anchoring young line that twice helped the offense gain more than 400 yards - 450 at Minnesota (10/26) and 413 at Jets (11/2). With air-tight protection, Kerry Collins threw for 375 vs. Vikings...Played at Tampa Bay (11/24), despite painful back. Was on injured reserve for the final 2 games.

2002: Started all 16 regular season games and the NFC Wild Card playoff game at San Francisco at left tackle...A key player as the Giants finished 6th in the NFL in total offense (364.1 yards a game) and 6th in passing yardage (246.9)...Allowed only 1 sack all season (and Tiki Barber said that sack was his fault)...Did a masterful job protecting Kerry Collins' blind side. Collins was sacked only 24 times all season and was sacked 1 time or not at all in 9 games...Giants quarterbacks completed a team-record 61.6 percent of their passes...Petitgout and his linemates helped Collins, Barber and Amani Toomer have career years...Play of line enabled the Giants to post 446 yards of total offense at San Francisco (1/5)...Offensive line allowed 1 sack and provided enough pass protection and run blocking for the Giants to gain 461 yards vs. Philadelphia (12/28)...Line did not allow a sack for 2nd straight week at Indianapolis (12/22) and helped Collins complete 23 of 29 passes for 366 yards and 4 touchdowns, a perfect 158.3 rating...Line did not allow a sack vs. Washington (11/17) for the 1st time since Dec. 3, 2000, a 9-7 victory at Washington.

2001: Started all 16 games at right tackle for the 2nd straight season...Was named a 1st-team All-Pro by Sports Illustrated...A key blocker for an offense that was 9th in the NFL in total yardage (333.4 yards a game) and 15th in rushing yards (111.1)...O-line allowed 1 sack and provided enough protection for Collins to throw for a career-high 386 yards vs. Green Bay (1/6) when the Giants gained a season-high 524 yards of total offense...The line provided enough pass protection and run blocking for the Giants to gain 408 yards of total offense at Philadelphia (12/30)...Started at right tackle, but was disqualified from game in the 4th quarter for unsportsmanlike conduct at Minnesota (11/19)...Protection provided by Petitgout and the line helped Collins pass for 346 yards at Washington (10/28)...Play at right tackle helped the Giants rush for 142 yards while allowing only 1 sack vs. Washington (10/7).

2000: Started all 19 regular season and postseason games at right tackle and played consistently well throughout the season...One of just 2 holdovers from the 1999 line, the other having been right guard Ron Stone...More comfortable at tackle where he played in college, Petitgout played extremely well in match-ups with marquee defenders like Jevon Kearse and Courtney Brown...Started Super Bowl XXXV vs. Baltimore (1/28)...Helped offensive line to its best game of the season in the NFC Championship Game vs. Minnesota (1/14) when the O-line allowed just 1 sack and provided enough solid blocking and pass protection for the Giants to own the ball for 42:22...Started at right tackle at Arizona (11/26). Moved to left tackle in the 1st quarter when starter Lomas Brown left the game with a lower leg contusion. Despite change, line allowed just 1 sack and provided enough protection for Collins to connect on 20 of his 30 pass attempts for 232 yards...Play of line vs. Philadelphia (10/29) enabled the offense to hold the ball for 43:41, the team's highest time of possession total since 11/20/83 when the Giants held the ball for 45:43 at Philadelphia.

1999: Began season as the left guard, where he started 8 games...Replaced in the starting lineup by fellow rookie and college teammate Mike Rosenthal at Washington (11/21) and did not return to starting lineup...Majority of action late in the season came on PAT and field goals units. Also used on offense as an extra lineman in short-yardage packages late in the season...Became 1st Giants rookie offensive lineman to start opening game since C Derek Engler started the 1997 opener because of injuries to starter Brian Williams and backup Jerry Reynolds...Recorded 1 miscellaneous tackle vs. Washington (9/19), tackling linebacker Derek Smith, who recovered a fumble by LeShon Johnson...Injured left leg and ankle just prior to halftime vs. Dallas (10/18). Had leg X-rayed at halftime and did not return to game because of high ankle sprain... Sunday de-activation due to high ankle sprain vs. New Orleans (10/24)...Returned to starting lineup at Philadelphia (10/31)...Replaced in starting lineup by Rosenthal at Washington (11/21).

Transactions: Originally signed by the Giants as a rookie free agent on April 27, 2001.

NFL: Rose from being an undrafted rookie to become the starting left guard and one of the best players on the Giants' offensive line...One of the Giants' toughest and strongest players... Is adept at picking up blitzes and pulling on running plays ...Was an important member of the unheralded line that played well the entire 2002 season...Suffered a serious leg fracture in Oct. 2003 that forced him to miss the rest of that season and the entire 2004 season.

2004: Missed the entire season after being placed on the physically unable to perform list. as a result of the fractured right leg he suffered on Oct. 19, 2003.

2003: Started the first 5 games at left guard before suffering an injury that forced him to miss the rest of the season...Suffered fractures of the right fibula, tibia and ankle when N.D. Kalu stepped on the back of his leg late in the 1st quarter vs. Philadelphia (10/19). He was placed on injured reserve the following week...In the 5 full games he played, the Giants offense averaged 355 total yards (including 399 at Washington and 381 at New England) and allowed just 8 sacks...The line's blocking vs. St. Louis (9/7) enabled Tiki Barber to open the season with 146 yards rushing.

2002: Started all 16 regular season games and the NFC Wild Card game at left guard...Was 1 of 3 undrafted free agents to start on the offensive line; the others were Chris Bober at center and Jason Whittle at right guard...The line gave up only 24 sacks all season...Stellar play by the line enabled the Giants to average 364.1 yards a game, good for 6th in the NFL. The Giants also ranked 6th in the league in passing, with a team-record 246.9 yards a game...With the line clearing holes and providing protection, Kerry Collins, Tiki Barber and Amani Toomer enjoyed career years...Gained a measure of fame in the postseason game at San Francisco (1/5), and not because the line helped the offense gain 446 yards and score 38 points. On the game's final play, Seubert was forced to run downfield as a receiver after a bad snap on the attempted game-winning field goal. Was interfered with as a receiver with the ball in the air, but 49er defender, Chike Okeafor, was not flagged; instead guard Tam Hopkins was flagged for being an ineligible receiver downfield. The next day, the NFL announced that Okeafor should have been penalized...Offensive line did not allow a sack and the run blocking and pass protection helped the Giants offense gain 469 yards of total offense at Indianapolis (12/22)...Line did not allow a sack for the 1st time vs. Washington (11/17), despite Collins' 46 pass attempts...Made his 1st career start at left guard vs. San Francisco (9/5). O-line provided enough protection for Collins to complete 28 of 45 passes for 342 yards.

2004: Started all 15 games in which he played...Led the team with 61 receptions for 666 yards and 6 touchdowns...Became the first tight end to lead the team in receptions since Mark Bavaro in 1987 (55)...His team-leading 6 touchdown receptions were 2 more than he had in his first 2 seasons combined and were the most by a Giants tight end since Bavaro had 8 in 1987...Missed the season finale vs. Dallas (1/2) with a back injury...Tied his season-high with 6 catches for 64 yards at Cincinnati (12/26)...Finished with three catches for 13 yard, including a 2-yard touchdown, vs. Pittsburgh (12/18)...Posted a team-high 5 receptions for 83 yards at Baltimore (12/12)...Finished with team-high 5 receptions for 45 yard and a touchdown vs. Atlanta (11/21). Caught Eli Manning's first NFL touchdown pass, a 6-yarder in the 3rd period...Caught 4 passes for 24 yards, including a 2-yard touchdown, at Arizona (11/14)...Finished with season-high-tying 6 receptions catches for 64 yards and a 1-yard touchdown vs. Chicago (11/7)...Finished with 3 receptions for team-high 60 yards at Minnesota (10/31)...Recorded 5 receptions for 44 yards and a touchdown at Dallas (10/10). Caught a 19-yard pass on the 1st play from scrimmage and out-jumped safety Roy Williams to grab a 1-yard touchdown pass from Kurt Warner...Finished with team highs of 5 receptions and 74 yards and scored the game-winning touchdown on a 4-yard catch in the 4th quarter at Green Bay (10/3).

GIANT FACT

SHOCKEY WAS THE FIRST GIANT TO BE SELECTED TO THE PRO BOWL IN EACH OF HIS FIRST 2 SEASONS SINCE LAWRENCE TAYLOR IN 1981-82

2003: Started all 9 games in which he played...Selected to his 2nd Pro Bowl despite missing the season's final 7 games with a knee injury...Finished 4th on the Giants and 6th among NFL tight ends with 48 catches for 535 yards and 2 touchdowns...Had 3 receptions for 46 yards vs. Atlanta (11/9) before leaving the game late in the 3rd period with a knee sprain that would sideline him for the rest of the season. His 13-yard reception in the 2nd quarter set up Dorsey Levens' 2-yard touchdown run...Recorded team-high 8 receptions for 86 yards at Jets (11/2)...Had 3 catches for 81 yards at Minnesota (10/26). His season-long 46-yard reception and 19-yard catch on the same drive in the 4th quarter set up Tiki Barber's 2-yard go-ahead touchdown...Finished with team-high 5 receptions for 23 yards and a touchdown vs. Philadelphia (10/19). Scored his 2nd touchdown of the season when he caught a 1-yard pass from Kerry Collins to give the Giants a 10-7 lead in the 3rd quarter...Recorded game-high 8 receptions for 80 yards at New England (10/12)...Tied his career high with 11 receptions for 110 yards vs. Miami (10/5). It was his 3rd career 100-yard game...Finished with 5 receptions for 65 yards at Washington (9/21)...Opened the season with 3 catches for 35 yards vs. St. Louis (9/7). All 3 receptions successfully converted 3rd downs.

2002: Played in 15 games, starting 14, in a brilliant rookie season...Did not play vs. Atlanta (10/13) because of turf toe injury...Voted Pepsi Rookie of the Year in balloting by NFL fans...Selected 1st-team All-Pro by the Associated Press, Sports Illustrated, College & Pro Football Newsweekly and Football Digest...Voted to NFL All-Rookie team by Pro Football Weekly...Selected to All-NFC team by Pro Football Weekly...Caught 74 passes for 894 yards and 2 touchdowns...The 74 catches was the 5th-highest total in Giants history, a team record for both rookies (shattering the mark of 48 set by Bobby Johnson in 1984) and tight ends (eclipsing the 66 passes Mark Bavaro caught in 1986). The 74 receptions were the 2nd-most ever for an NFL rookie tight end (Philadelphia's Keith Jackson had 81 catches in 1988)...Accounted for 894 receiving yards, the most by a Giants tight end since Bavaro had 1,001 in 1986 and the 2nd-most in history by a 1st-year player at his position. The rookie receiving yardage record of 1,076 was set by Hall of Famer Mike Ditka of Chicago in 1961...Led all NFL tight ends and all NFL rookies in both receptions and receiving yards. He became just the 2nd tight end to lead all rookies in both categories, joining 2 former Philadelphia Eagles, Charles Young (55 catches for 854 yards in 1973) and Jackson (81 catches for 869 yards in 1988)...Became the 1st rookie tight end to play in the Pro Bowl since Jackson in 1988 and the 1st Giants tight end to play in the game since Bavaro in 1987...Named the NFC Offensive Player of the Week for Week 17 and the NFL Offensive Rookie of the Month for both November and December...Finished with 7 receptions for 68 yards and a touchdown in NFC Wild Card game at San Francisco (1/5). Won the NFC Player of the Week award in the season finale vs. Philadelphia (12/28), when he caught 10 passes for 98 yards. Scored the Giants only touchdown in the 4th period when he jumped, moving backwards, and ripped the ball away from Philadelphia's Pro Bowl safety Brian Dawkins in the end zone...Finished with 7 receptions for a career-high 116 yards at Indianapolis (12/22). His 116 receiving yards were the most by a Giants tight end since Bavaro had 148 (on 9 catches) on Oct. 10, 1988 at Philadelphia...Shockey (116 yards) and Amani Toomer (204 yards on 10 catches) became the 1st pair of Giants receivers with more than 100 receiving yards in the same game since Toomer (124 yards) and Ike Hilliard (105 yards) did it on Dec. 23, 2001 against Seattle. It was the 1st time the Giants had 1 wideout and 1 tight end accomplish the feat since Nov. 15, 1987, when wide receiver Lionel Manuel (105) and Bavaro (102) did it in a victory at Philadelphia. Signature play of the game occurred in the 2nd period, when he caught a short pass from Kerry Collins and ran through safety David Gibson's attempted tackle for a 24-yard gain to help set up a Tiki Barber 4-yard touchdown run...Posted a career-high 11 receptions for 111 yards vs. Washington (11/17). Each of his 4 receptions on the opening drive gave the Giants a 1st down and helped set up Matt Bryant's 43-yard field goal. His 11 receptions tied for the 3rd-highest 1-game total in Giants history. Tiki Barber holds the team record with 13 receptions at Dallas on Jan. 2, 2000. Mark Bavaro had 12 catches at Cincinnati on Oct. 13, 1985. Shockey's performance marked the 7th time in franchise history that a player has caught 11 passes in a game. It was last done by Bavaro at St. Louis on Dec. 13, 1987. His 111 receiving yards were the most by a Giants tight end since Oct. 10, 1988, when Bavaro had 148 (on 9 catches) in a 24-13 Giants loss at Philadelphia. Shockey later had 116 yards at Indianapolis...Posted 1 catch for 11 yards at Dallas (10/6) before leaving game in 1st quarter with toe injury...Had 4 catches for 50 yards and his 1st NFL touchdown at St. Louis (9/15). Recorded his 1st career touchdown reception in the 2nd quarter when he caught a 28-yard pass from Kerry Collins...Started 1st NFL game vs. San Francisco (9/5) and had 3 catches for 44 yards. 1st career reception went for 9 yards.

College: One of the nation's best tight ends at Miami, Shockey emerged as a national star in 2001...Was 1 of 3 finalists for the John Mackey Award, recognizing the finest tight end in college football...Played just 2 seasons at Miami, but finished his career ranked 6th on the school's career-record list for tight ends with 61 receptions for 815 yards...Only Bubba Franks (12, 1997-2000) had more touchdown catches than his 10 scores among tight ends who have worn a Miami uniform...As a junior in 2001, was a 1st-team All-America selection by CNNSI, adding 2nd-team honors from Associated Press, Sportsline.com and ABC Sports...Led the team with a career-high 40 receptions for 519 yards (13.0 avg.) and 7 touchdowns...In 2000, earned 1st-team All-Big East Conference honors by the league's coaches, College Football News and The Sporting News for his outstanding season...Attended Northeast Oklahoma A&M (Miami, Oklahoma) in 1999.

Personal: Single...Lettered all 4 seasons at Ada (Okla.) High, playing mostly at wide receiver and outside linebacker...Caught 50 passes for 1,108 yards and 5 touchdowns and returned 4 punts for scores as a senior...Named All-State and All-District during his final year...Honor Roll student...Son of Lucinda Shockey...Born Jeremy Charles Shockey on Aug. 18, 1980 in Ada, Okla.

GIANT FACT

SNEE WAS A 2-TIME ALL CONFERENCE BASKETBALL PLAYER AT MONTROSE (PA) HIGH SCHOOL.

Transactions: Originally a 2nd round (34th pick overall) draft choice by the Giants in 2004.

NFL: Tough, strong and athletic offensive lineman who earned a starting position as a rookie.

2004: Started all 11 games in which he played at right guard, a job he won in training camp...Missed the final 5 games of the season after waking up the morning of the game at Washington (12/5) with an inflamed gland just beneath his jaw...Arrived at the stadium early, but there was no progress in his condition prior to the time the Giants had to submit their list of inactive players...The condition did not improve enough for him to play again in 2004...Started at right guard vs. Atlanta (11/21) as offensive line allowed season-low 1 sack...Offensive line opened provided enough run blocking for the Giants to gain 147 yards on the ground at Arizona (11/14)...Started at right guard at Minnesota (10/31) as offensive line helped the Giants rush for 168 yards and 4 touchdowns...Made his NFL debut at Philadelphia (9/12), where the line's blocking helped Barber rush for 125 yards on 9 carries, including a 72-yard score.

College: Was a 2nd-team All-America selection and an All-Big East Conference 1st-team choice by The NFL Draft Report in his final season at Boston College...Started every game, including the San Francisco Bowl, at right guard, providing excellent blocking as tailback Derrick Knight ranked 4th in the nation in rushing with 1,721 yards...Started every game at left guard in 2002, helping the team finish 3rd in the Big East in total offense (5,074 yards) and second in passing yards (3,010)...Third-team Freshman All-America selection by The Sporting News in 2001...Member of the Big East's All-Freshman team...Played in 9 games, starting the final 6 contests...Made his 1st career start vs. Virginia Tech at right tackle before shifting to right guard for the Pittsburgh contest...Redshirted as a freshman in 2000.

Personal: Married (Katie)...They have one son (Dylan)...Participated in the Giants Foundation Golf Outing and the annual "Meet the Giants" Ronald McDonald House Dinner fundraiser at Park Avenue Country Club...Joined several fellow linemen to serve Thanksgiving meals at Eva's Village in Paterson, N.J....Attended the Elmira-Corning Youth Sports Dinner to raise funds for youth recreation opportunities...Is highly involved with his hometown branch of the United Way in Susquehanna County...Participated in the Giants Player Development High School Coaching Internship at Mahwah High School (NJ)... Attended Montrose (Pa.) High, earning All-State honors as a junior and senior...Named as the Regional Defensive Player of the Year in 1999...Three-time All-Conference choice and a 2-year All-Regional honoree...Recorded 47 sacks in his 3 years as a starter on the defensive line...Also a starter on the offensive line...Led his team to the district title in both 1997 and 1998...Totaled 101 tackles in his senior season...Served as 1999 team captain...Two-time All-Conference selection and team captain on the school's basketball team...Played in the 43rd annual Big 33 Football Classic (features the top players from Pennsylvania and Ohio)...Member of the National Honor Society and French National Honor Society...Son of Diane and Ed Snee...Born Jan. 18, 1982.

Transactions: Originally a 2nd round (40th pick overall) draft choice by the Giants in 1993.

NFL: Regarded as the league's premier defensive end, as well as one of the best players in the NFL....One of the finest defensive players ever to wear a Giants uniform...Set an NFL single-season record with 22.5 sacks in 2001...Led the NFL in 2003 with 18.5 sacks, the second highest total of his career, boosting his career total to 114, 2nd in Giants history behind Lawrence Taylor's 132.5...The first Giant to twice lead the league in sacks. The only other time a Giant topped the NFL's sack list was 1986, when Lawrence Taylor had 20.5 sacks. The only other players who have led the NFL in sacks at least twice are Mark Gastineau (1983-84), Reggie White (1987-88) and Kevin Greene (1994 and 1996)...His 118.0 career sacks places him 1st among active players and 12th on the NFL's career list. Clyde Simmons is 11th with 121.5...Has at least 1 sack against 28 different teams and has sacked 58 different quarterbacks in the regular season...Was selected to his 6th Pro Bowl in 2003, the most ever by a Giants defensive lineman. He surpassed Andy Robustelli, who was chosen to 5 Pro Bowls from 1956-62...Although he receives much acclaim for his sacks, Strahan is also an outstanding all-around player who consistently helps the defense stop opposing running games and puts constant pressure on the quarterback when he's not registering a sack... Has played in 175 games, the 6th-highest total in franchise history...Played every game for 8 consecutive seasons before tearing his pectoral muscle last year...Missed the final eight games of the season after undergoing surgery to repair a torn pectoral muscle...Moved into the starting lineup in his 2nd NFL season in 1994 after missing 7 games as a rookie due to a foot injury...Named Giants Most Valuable Player in 1998 and 2001 and 1997 Defensive Player of the Year...One of the most visible and popular Giants, a player the television networks constantly seek out for interviews...Did work for the Fox network in the 2001 playoffs and appeared on ABC's pregame show prior to Super Bowl XXXVII. Also appeared on FOX's "Best Damn Sport Show" during the 2004 postseason.

GIANT FACT

STRAHAN'S 118 CAREER SACKS PLACES HIM 12TH ON THE NFL'S ALL-TIME LIST

Sacked Quincy Carter for a 5-yard loss in the 1st quarter, a 9-yard loss in the 2nd period and 4-yard loss in the third quarter...The 3 sacks gave him 17 for the season, the 2nd-highest total of his career. It was Strahan's 7th career 3-sack game...Had season-high 13 tackles (10 solo) and 2 sacks vs. Washington (12/7)... Finished with 4 solo tackles, 1 sack, a pass defensed and a fumble recovery at Tampa Bay (11/24)...Recorded 3 tackles (2 solo), 1 pass defensed and 1 sack vs. Atlanta (11/9). It was his 6th consecutive game with at least 1 sack...Posted 7 tackles (5 solo), 2 sacks and 1 pass defensed at Minnesota (10/26), his 3rd straight game with 2 sacks. Picked up his 7th and 8th sacks of the season on consecutive plays in the 4th quarter to force the Vikings to punt...Finished with 6 tackles (5 solo), 2 sacks, a pass defensed and a forced fumble vs. Philadelphia (10/19). He twice sacked Donavan McNabb in the 2nd period, forcing a fumble on the 2nd one...Had 4 solo tackles and 2 sacks at New England (10/12). Sacked Tom Brady for a 10-yard loss in the 3rd quarter and an 11-yard loss in the 4th.

2002: Started all 16 regular season games and the NFC Wild Card Game at San Francisco. All but 1 of those starts were at left defensive end (started at right defensive end vs. Washington (11/17)...Led Giants and was tied for 9th in the NFL with 11.0 sacks for 57.5 yards...Selected to start in the Pro Bowl, the 5th time in 6 years he was voted to play in the game...Named 2nd team All-Pro by the AP...Finished with 75 tackles (57 solo), a team-high 3 forced fumbles, 1 fumble recovery and 2 passes defensed...Had 2 solo tackles in NFC Wild Card game at San Francisco (1/5)...Had 3 solo tackles but no sacks at Washington (12/8), ending his streak of consecutive games with at least a half-sack at 10...Recorded 6 tackles (3 solo), 1 sack and 1 forced fumble vs. Tennessee (12/1). Earned his 11th sack of the season when he knocked the ball out of Steve McNair's hand to force a fumble that was recovered by Dhani Jones early in the 1st quarter...Had 8 tackles (6 solo), 2 sacks and a forced fumble at Houston (11/24). The 2 sacks of David Carr were his 9th and 10th in the season, marking the 4th time in his career he reached double digits...Started at right defensive end but moved to his normal position at left defensive end after the 1st series vs. Washington (11/17). Finished with 7 tackles (6 solo), 2 sacks and 1 pass defensed...Had 3 tackles (2 solo) and a sack at Minnesota (11/10)...Posted 4 solo tackles and a sack, bringing down Mark Brunell for a 14-yard loss on 4th-and-4 in the 3rd quarter, vs. Jacksonville (11/3)...Had 6 tackles (4 solo), a half-sack and a pass defensed at Philadelphia (10/28)...Had 3 solo tackles, a half-sack and forced fumble vs. Atlanta (10/13). Left the game at the start of the 2nd quarter with back spasms and did not return until the 3rd quarter. Saw action only in 3rd-and-long situations during the 2nd half. Split a sack with Frank Ferrara in the 1st quarter and forced Doug Johnson to fumble...Finished with 5 tackles (4 solo) and a sack at Dallas (10/6)...Posted 4 tackles (3 solo) and a sack at Arizona (9/29)...Had 4 tackles (2 solo) and his 1st sack of the season vs. Seattle (9/22).

2001: Started all 16 games at defensive left end...Set an NFL single-season record with 22.5 sacks. The previous record of 22 sacks was set by Mark Gastineau of the Jets in 1984...Became the 6th player to record at least 20 sacks in a season since sacks became an official statistic in 1982. He was the 1st player with at least 20 sacks in a season since the late Derrick Thomas accomplished the feat for Kansas City in 1990 and the 1st with 21 since Minnesota's Chris Doleman did it in 1989...The previous Giants record was held by Lawrence Taylor, who had 20.5 sacks in 1986...Strahan's 4.0 sacks at St. Louis (10/14) was .5 shy of the team's single-game record of 4.5 sacks by Pepper Johnson at Tampa Bay on Nov. 24, 1991...Led the NFL with a career-high 7 forced fumbles...Scored the 3rd touchdown of his career on a 13-yard fumble recovery against Seattle (12/23). He had previously scored on interception returns of 24 yards against Washington in 1998 and 44 yards at Philadelphia in 1999...Voted to his 4th Pro Bowl in five seasons...Named the NFL's Player of the Year by Paul Zimmerman of Sports Illustrated...Named the Associated Press Defensive Player of the Year, the only Giant other than Taylor to win the award. Taylor received the honor in 1981, '82 and '86...Was named NFC Defensive Player of the Month for October after recording 9.5 sacks in 4 games...Was named NFC Defensive Player of the Week twice in 3 games: St. Louis and New Orleans...Finished tied for 4th on the team with 73 tackles, including 61 solo...Also had 2 passes defensed and 1 fumble recovery...A 7-yard, 4th-period sack of Brett Favre vs. Green Bay (1/6) boosted Strahan's total to a single-season NFL record 22.5. Finished game with 4 tackles (3 solo)...Enjoyed outstanding game at Philadelphia (12/30) with 6 tackles (5 solo), 3.5 sacks and a forced fumble. Strahan became the Giants single-season sacks record-holder with 21.5. The previous team record was 20.5 set by Taylor in 1986...Finished with 5 tackles (3 solo), 1 sack and a recovered fumble for a touchdown vs. Seattle (12/30). His 13-yard touchdown off a fumble recovery in the 2nd quarter was the Giants' 1st such score since Sept. 12, 1999, when Christian Peter picked up a fumble and ran it back 38 yards in a season-opening victory at Tampa Bay. The touchdown was the 3rd of Strahan's career and his 1st on a fumble recovery. Had a 7-yard sack of Matt Hasselbeck to increase his career total to 80 sacks, moving him past Leonard Marshall (79.5) and into 2nd place on the franchise's career list...Recorded 5 tackles (3 solo) and a half-sack vs. Arizona (12/15). Split a sack with Brandon Short, increasing his total to 17...Had 4 solo tackles and 1 sack at Dallas (12/9). Sacked Quincy

Carter for a 7-yard loss...Finished with 2 solo tackles, a half-sack and a forced fumble vs. Oakland (11/25). The half-sack increased Strahan's season total to 15.5, a career-high...Tied his season high with 7 tackles (6 solo), 1 sack and 1 forced fumble at Arizona (11/11). Forced a fumble by Jake Plummer that was recovered by Kenny Holmes, who lateraled to Mike Barrow, who returned it to the Arizona 42-yard line...Had 6 tackles (4 solo) and 1.5 sacks vs. Dallas (11/4). His 1.5-sack performance gave him 14 in 6 games, an NFL record for a 6-game span. The previous record for sacks in a 6-game period was 13, which was set by Chicago's Richard Dent from Oct. 14 to Nov. 18, 1984 and matched by Taylor, the Hall of Fame Giant, who did it in 2 overlapping stretches in 1986 when he set the then franchise record with 20.5 sacks. Taylor had 13 sacks in the 6 games from Oct. 5 to Nov. 9 and Oct. 12 to Nov. 16. Strahan sacked Clint Stoerner for no gain on the Cowboys 1st drive of the game. Later teamed with Holmes to sack Stoerner for a 9-yard loss in the 2nd quarter...Finished with 4 solo tackles and 2 sacks at Washington (10/28). Strahan's 2 sacks of Tony Banks in the 4th period gave him 12.5 sacks in 5 games, an NFL record for a 5-game span (since sacks became an official statistic in 1982). The former record of 12 sacks over 5 games was set by Chicago's Richard Dent in 1984 and matched by the late Derrick Thomas of Kansas City in 1997-98...Recorded 4 solo tackles, 2 sacks and a pass defensed vs. Philadelphia (10/22)...Played 1 of the finest games of his career at St. Louis (10/14), finishing with a career-high 4 sacks among his 6 solo tackles while also registering a pass defensed and a forced fumble. Performance earned him his 2nd NFC Player of the Week Award in 3 games. Recorded his 1st sack of Kurt Warner in the 1st quarter for a 5-yard loss. Sacked Warner twice in the 3rd quarter, 1st for a 9-yard loss and then a 5-yard loss. Final sack of the game came in the 4th quarter and forced a fumble that was recovered by Kenny Holmes...The 4 sacks in a game tied Strahan with Taylor for the 2nd-most sacks in a game in team history. Pepper Johnson holds the record with 4.5 at Tampa Bay on Nov. 24, 1991...Had 4 tackles (3 solo), 1.5 sacks and a forced fumble vs.Washington (10/7)...Earned his 1st NFC Defensive Player of the Week honor by finishing with 7 solo tackles, 3 sacks and 2 forced fumbles vs. New Orleans (9/30). All 7 of his tackles were for losses or no gain. Recorded his 1st sack of the season when he dropped Aaron Brooks for a 14-yard loss in the 1st quarter.

2000: Started all 19 regular season and postseason games at defensive left end...Was 2nd on the team with 9.5 sacks...Also had 65 tackles (51 solo), 4 passes defensed and a team-leading 4 fumble recoveries...Added 12 tackles (10 solo), a team-high 4.5 sacks and 1 forced fumble in the postseason...Finished with 6 tackles (5 solo) and 1.5 sacks in Super Bowl XXXV vs. Baltimore (1/28)...Had 2 solo tackles and a sack in NFC Championship Game vs. Minnesota...Played superb game in NFC Divisional Playoff vs. Philadelphia (1/7), recording 4 tackles (3 solo), 2 sacks and a forced fumble. Dropped Donovan McNabb for an 8-yard loss in the 1st quarter and forced a fumble while sacking McNabb again in the 2nd period...Recorded 6 tackles (5 solo) and a season-high 2.5 sacks at Dallas (12/17)...Posted 5 tackles (4 solo) and 2 recovered fumbles at Arizona (11/26)...Finished with 7 tackles (5 solo) and recovered a fumble by Charlie Batch vs. Detroit (11/19)...Had 4 tackles (3 solo), 1.5 sacks and 2 passes defensed vs. St. Louis (11/12)...Played perhaps his finest game of the season at Cleveland (11/15), finishing with a team-high 7 solo tackles and 2 sacks. 2 of his tackles were for no gain and another stopped Travis Prentice for a 2-yard loss on 4th-and-1 in the 2nd period. His pass rush on Doug Pederson forced the quarterback to hurry a throw that was intercepted by Emmanuel McDaniel...Finished with 4 solo tackles, 1 sack, and a key 4th quarter fumble recovery at Chicago (9/17).

1999: Earned his 3rd straight Pro Bowl start after receiving the most votes among

MICHAEL STRAHAN

NFC defensive ends...Started all 16 games at left defensive end and finished with 56 tackles (41 solo), 5.5 sacks, 1 interception, 3 passes defensed, and 2 fumble recoveries...Slowed by hyperextended elbow suffered early in the 2nd quarter at Tampa Bay (9/12)...Recorded 1st sack of the season vs. Philadelphia (10/3) when he teamed with Keith Hamilton to drop Donovan McNabb for a 9-yard loss...Collected 1st whole sack of the season by stopping McNabb for a loss of 5 yards early in the 4th quarter...Recorded 3rd sack of the season in the 3rd quarter at Arizona (10/10) when he sacked former teammate Dave Brown. Finished with 5 tackles (2 solo)...Picked up 4th sack when he dropped Troy Aikman for a 2-yard loss vs. Dallas (10/18). Had season-high 7 tackles (5 solo)...Intercepted the 4th pass of his career at Philadelphia (10/31) when he picked off a Doug Pederson throw that was batted in the air by Christian Peter. Strahan raced 44 yards untouched for the touchdown that gave the Giants a 23-17 overtime victory. Interception return for a touchdown was the 2nd of his career; In 1998 Strahan returned a pass by the Redskins Gus Frerotte 24 yards for a score.

1998: Played in all 16 games at defensive left end, starting 15...Did not start at Dallas (11/8), his most recent non-start...Set a career-high with 15 sacks, 1 more than the 14 he had in 1997, to earn 2nd Pro Bowl honor...Became the 1st Giant to have consecutive seasons of at least 10 sacks since Lawrence Taylor had 10 or more sacks from 1984-1990...Led the team in sacks for the 4th straight season, the most since Taylor led for 5 straight years (1986-90)...Finished with 3 2-sack games: vs. Washington (9/6), at Oakland (9/13) and at San Francisco (11/30)...With 2 sacks against the Redskins and 2 at the Raiders the next week, marked the 2nd time in his career that he recorded back-to-back 2-sack games. In 1997, Strahan had 3 sacks vs. Arizona (11/16) and then had 2 the following week at Washington (11/23)...Started 15 of 16 games and finished with 67 total tackles (53 solo), a team-leading 15 sacks, 2 forced fumbles, 1 interception that he returned 24 yards for a touchdown, and 4 passes defensed...Missed the Friday practice prior to the game at Washington (11/1) due to tightness in his lower back. Returned for the walk-through session on Saturday and felt well enough to start the game against the Redskins. 2 plays into the game, Strahan suffered spasms and was forced to leave the game...Missed some practice time the following week but returned to practice on the Friday prior to the game at Dallas (11/8). Was not in the starting lineup against the Cowboys but did see significant game action...Recorded his 3rd career interception vs. Washington (9/6) in the season-opener when he dropped into coverage from his end position, stepped in front of Jamie Asher, picked off a Gus Frerotte pass and returned it 24 yards for a touchdown to give the Giants a 24-10 3rd quarter advantage. Finished the Redskins game with 5 solo tackles, 2 sacks, 2 passes defensed and 1 interception. Named NFC Defensive Player of the Week by the NFL.

1997: Started all 16 regular season games and the Giants postseason game vs. Minnesota (12/27) at left end...Finished tied for 3rd in the NFL with 14 sacks, the most by a Giant since Lawrence Taylor had 15 in 1989...Had 69 tackles (50 solo), 14 sacks, 1 forced fumble, 1 fumble recovery and 2 passes defensed...Named a starter on the NFC Pro Bowl squad...Had 2.5 sacks in the season-opener vs. Philadelphia (8/31)...Named Defensive MVP for his performance at Arizona (10/12) that helped the team hold the Cardinals to just 27 yards on the ground...Participated in 5 of the Giants 8 sacks vs. Arizona (11/16). Combined on 4 sacks and registered 1 solo sack for a total of 3, his best sack performance since he had 3 solo sacks at Green Bay (9/17/95). Finished with 6 total tackles...Finished with 7 tackles (4 solo), including a 9-yard sack, and a fumble recovery in the NFC Wild Card Game vs. Minnesota (12/27).

MICHAEL STRAHAN

1996: Because of injuries along the defensive line during training camp, switched from right end to left end...Started all 16 games and tied for the team lead with 5 sacks...Had 63 tackles (54 solo), a forced fumble and 3 passes defensed...Named Defensive Player of the Game at Jets (9/22) after finishing with 2 sacks, 7 solo tackles and 1 pass defensed...Recorded his team-leading 5th sack in the 3rd quarter at Miami (12/8) when he dropped Dan Marino for a 3-yard loss on a 3rd-and-five situation.

1995: Started 15 games at right defensive end in his 2nd season as a regular and finished with 58 total tackles (48 solo), 7.5 sacks and 3 forced fumbles...Got his 1st career interception at Kansas City (9/10) when the Chiefs drove to the Giants 3-yard line before Strahan intercepted Steve Bono in the end zone...Recorded the 1st 3-sack game of his career at Green Bay (9/17). All 3 sacks came in the 2nd half, when he ended a Packers possession with consecutive sacks of Brett Favre...With 11:16 left in the game at Philadelphia (11/19), Strahan blocked a punt at the Eagles 40-yard line. Strahan chased the ball down to the Giants end zone, but an Eagles defender was able to swat the ball out of the back of the end zone for a safety... Did not play at Dallas (12-17) because of a hamstring injury suffered vs. Washington (12-10).

1994: Started 15 games at right defensive end in his 1st year as a starter...Was inactive at Dallas (11/7) because of a knee injury that he suffered vs. Detroit (10/30)...Finished 3rd on the team with 4.5 sacks...Had 39 tackles on the year...Made his 1st professional start vs. Philadelphia (9/4) and recorded a sack of Randall Cunningham...Posted his 2nd sack of the season when he dropped Chris Miller at Rams (10/16)...Got his 3rd sack of the season at Houston (11/21) on QB Billy Joe Tolliver...Sacked Troy Aikman in season finale vs. Dallas (12/24).

1993: Was limited to just 9 games played due to foot injury...Missed 1st 5 games of the season after suffering torn ligaments in his foot in preseason-opener at Cincinnati (8/7)...Played in 9 of last 11 games before injuring his ankle in season-finale vs. Dallas (1-2)...Did not play in the 2 postseason games...Finished season with 3 tackles, including 1 sack...Recorded 1st career sack in his 1st NFL game, tackling Ken O'Brien vs. Philadelphia (10-17)...Was placed on IR on 1/13 because of ankle injury.

Transactions: Originally a 6th round (168th pick overall) draft choice by the Giants in 2004.

NFL: A speedy, physical player with exceptional hands...Demonstrated exciting potential at wide receiver despite being hampered by injury.

2004: Played in 8 games with no starts...Finished with 6 receptions for 146 yards and a long catch of 52 yards...Did not have a reception vs. Dallas (1/2), but drew a 43-yard pass interference penalty to set up Eli Manning's 15-yard touchdown pass to David Tyree...Caught 2 passes for 102 yards with a long of 52 yards vs. Philadelphia (11/28). It was the 1st time the Giants completed 2 passes of at least 50 yards in the same game since Dec. 30, 2001 at Philadelphia, when Amani Toomer caught a 60-yard touchdown, and on the final play Kerry Collins hit Tiki Barber, who lateraled to Ron Dixon for a 62 yard gain. Taylor also became the 1st Giants receiver to have 2 receptions of at least 50 yards in the same game since Dec. 5 1999, when Toomer had 2 against the Jets. He was 1st NFL rookie to accomplish the feat since Nov. 26, 1998, when Minnesota's Randy Moss had 3 long receptions against Dallas...Saw action as the 3rd receiver and finished with 1 reception for 9 yards at Atlanta (11/21)...Finished with 1 catch for 19 yards at Minnesota (10/31)...Recorded 2 receptions for 16 yards in his NFL debut vs. Detroit (10/24)...His key downfield block helped turn a screen pass to Tiki Barber into a 62-yard touchdown.

College: Played in 26 games with 25 starts at Texas A&M and caught 108 passes for 1,705 yards (a 15.8-yard avg.) and 10 touchdowns before suffering a torn anterior cruciate ligament as a senior...Only Bethel Johnson's 117 catches for 1,740 yards from 1999-2002 is ahead of Taylor on the school's career list...Added 28 yards on 5 carries (5.6-yard avg.) and 97 yards on 6 kickoff returns (16.2-yard avg.)...Transferred to Texas A&M after spending his freshman year as a redshirt at Notre Dame...Sat out the 2000 season under NCAA transfer rules...Started the first 6 games at flanker in 2003 before suffering a season-ending knee injury vs. Nebraska (10/18)...Finished with 25 catches for 456 yards (an 18.2-yard avg.) and 4 touchdowns...Started 10 games at flanker in 2002 and caught 44 passes for 760 yards (17.3-yard avg.) and 3 touchdowns...Gained 8 yards on a reverse and 27 yards on a pair of kickoff returns...Played in 10 games, starting 9 contests in 2001, his 1st year with the Aggies. Led the team with 39 receptions for 489 yards (12.5-yard avg.) and 3 touchdowns...Sat out the year in 2000 under NCAA transfer rules...Redshirted in 1999 as a freshman at Notre Dame.

GIANT FACT
TAYLOR WAS THE FIRST GIANT SINCE 1999 TO HAVE 2 RECEPTIONS OF 50 OR MORE YARDS IN THE SAME GAME.

Personal: (Single)...Agricultural Development major...Son of Henry and Rachel Taylor...Father was a standout basketball player at Texas-Pan American and ranked among the national leaders in rebounds as a senior...Uncle, Jeff Taylor, played basketball at Texas Tech and in the National Basketball Association with the Houston Rockets...Attended Mission (Tex.) High...Earned 1st-team All-State honors after catching 41 catches for 972 yards and 6 touchdowns as a senior...Rushed for 1,346 yards and 15 touchdowns on 129 carries (10.4-yard average)...Born Henry Jamaar Taylor on 2/25/81 in Giessen, West Germany...Resides in Mission, Texas.

AMANI TOOMER

(9/26). His 47-yard reception in the 1st quarter set up Barber's 8-yard touchdown run...Finished with team-high 6 receptions for 54 yards vs. Washington (9/19).

2003: Started all 16 games at split end and led the team with 1,057 receiving yards, the 5th consecutive season he set the pace in that category. He was 9th in the NFC in receiving yards...Finished 2nd on the team in receptions with 63 (Barber had 69) and touchdown catches with 5 (Ike Hilliard had 6)...Became the Giants career receiving yardage leader with 6,366 and finished the season with 418 career catches, second in team history to Tiki Barber (422)...Caught a pass in every game, extending his team record to 83 consecutive games with a reception...Finished with 5 receptions for 66 yards, surpassing the 1,000-yard mark for the fifth consecutive season, at Dallas (12/21)...Recorded 3 receptions and finished with team-high 110 receiving yards and scored the Giants' only touchdown of the game on a season-long 77-yard reception vs. Buffalo (11/30)...Caught 6 passes for season-high 127 yards and a touchdown and surpassed Homer Jones with his team-record 18th career 100-yard receiving game at Jets (11/2)...Finished with 4 receptions for a team-high 81 yards, including a 54-yard touchdown at Washington (9/21)...Recorded 7 pass receptions for 126 yards and a touchdown and set 2 team records and tied another vs. Dallas (9/15). His 1st catch gave him a reception in 69 consecutive games, a new franchise mark. He had shared the record with Hilliard. Toomer's game-long 40-yard catch late in the 2nd period boosted his career-receiving yardage total to 5,459, which surpassed Frank Gifford's former standard of 5,434 yards, which had stood since the end of the 1964 season. The 100-yard game was the 17th of his career, tying Jones' for the team record. Jones played for the Giants from 1964-69.

2002: Had the finest season by a wide receiver in Giants history...Set franchise records with 82 receptions for 1,343 yards and established a career-high with 8 touchdown catches...Broke his own record of 79 receptions, set in 1999, and Homer Jones' record of 1,209 yards, set in 1967...Toomer's 82 receptions placed him 6th in the NFC and his 1,343 yards placed him 2nd in the NFC and 3rd in the NFL...Had 5 100-yard games and 9 games with more than 90 yards...Played in all 16 games for the 6th consecutive season, starting all 16...Most prolific performance was at Indianapolis (12/22), where he had 10 catches for 204 yards and 3 touchdowns...Became the 1st Giants wide receiver to catch at least 10 passes in a regular season game since Del Shofner caught 11 against Washington on Oct. 28, 1962. Tight end Jeremy Shockey had 11 catches vs. the Redskins (11/17); Hilliard had 10 receptions in the 2000 NFC Championship Game. Toomer's 204 receiving yards vs. the Colts was the 3rd highest single-game total by any player in 2002 (Pittsburgh's Plaxico Burress had 253 yards against Atlanta and Denver's Shannon Sharpe had 214 yards at Kansas City – both of those games went into overtime). It was the 3rd-highest single-game receiving yardage total in Giants history, surpassed only by Shofner's 269 on Oct. 28, 1962 and Gene Roberts' 212 on Nov. 13, 1949. Toomer's 82-yard touchdown reception at Indianapolis was the longest play of his career and the 7th-longest play from scrimmage - and the 6th-longest pass - in Giants history...Had a team-high 8 receptions for 136 yards and 3 touchdowns in NFC Wild Card game at San Francisco (1/5)...Led team with 6 catches for 99 yards vs. Dallas (12/15). Became the 2nd player in franchise history with 5,000 receiving yards; Frank Gifford was 1st with 5,434...Finished with 5 receptions for a team-high 104 yards vs. Tennessee (12/1)...Had 4 receptions for 100 yards, including a 49-yarder, vs. Seattle (9/22)...Opened season with game-high totals of 9 receptions for 134 yards vs. San Francisco (9/5).

2001: Played in all 16 games for the 5th consecutive season, with 14 starts...Did not start vs. Dallas (11/4) and vs. Green Bay (1/6)...Caught 72 passes, tying Tiki Barber for the team lead...Became the 1st Giants player to catch 70 passes in 3 consecutive seasons...Led the team with 1,054 receiving yards...Caught 5 touchdown passes, 1 behind team-leader Ike Hilliard...Had 2 100-yard games...Returned 8 punts for 41 yards...Caught 5 passes for 79 yards vs. Green Bay (1/6) before leaving the game in the 3rd quarter with a concussion. Game-long reception of 27 yards came in the 1st quarter and helped set up Kerry Collins-to-Hilliard 8-yard touchdown pass. The reception brought Toomer to 2 milestones. The catch was his 70th of the season, making him the 1st Giants receiver to reach that plateau in 3 consecutive seasons. The reception also put him over 1,000 yards for the 3rd consecutive season...Had 8 receptions for season-high 124 yards vs. Seattle (12/23). Toomer's game-long, 28-yard reception began the Giants 96-yard game-winning touchdown drive. Toomer (124) and Hilliard (105) each caught passes for more than 100 yards. It was the 3rd time Toomer and Hilliard exceeded the century mark in the same game...Caught the game-winning touchdown with 25 seconds remaining on a 4-yard pass from Collins Arizona (12/15). ...Had a season-high 9 receptions for 109 yards at Washington (10/28).

2000: Played in 16 regular season games with 14 starts and started all 3 postseason games...Caught 78 passes - 1 shy of the team record he set in 1999 - for 1,094 yards (a 14.0-yard average), and 7 touchdowns...Caught 1 touchdown pass in each of the last 3 regular season games...Twice matched his career high with 9 receptions in a game (vs. Philadelphia, 10/29 and vs. Pittsburgh, 12/10)...Finished with 5 100-yard performances...Established then career-best with 193 receiving yards vs. Jacksonville (12/23)...Had 5 rushing attempts for 91 yards, an 18.2-yard average, and 1 touchdown on the ground...Added 10 catches for 135 yards and a score in the playoffs...Caught 2 passes for 24 yards, including a 19-yarder, in Super Bowl XXXV vs. Baltimore (1/28)...Caught 6 passes for 88 yards and a touchdown in NFC Championship Game vs. Minnesota (1/14). Recorded his 1st career playoff touchdown when he caught a 7-yard pass in the corner of the end zone to give the Giants a 41-0 lead early in the 3rd quarter...Had 2 receptions for 23 yards in NFC Divisional Playoff vs. Philadelphia (1/7) before being forced to leave the game in the 4th quarter with a knee and ankle sprain. Due to injury to Tiki Barber he returned 5 punts for 34 yards...Finished with then career-high 193 receiving yards on 8 receptions vs. Jacksonville (12/23). His 193 yards were the most by a Giants receiver since Homer Jones had 196 on Oct. 1, 1967. Had 8 catches for 108 yards vs. Detroit (11/19), the 3rd time in 4 games he exceeded 100 yards...Had 6 catches for 100 yards and 2 touchdowns at Cleveland (11/5)...Finished with 9 catches for 108 yards, including a 27-yard touchdown, vs. Philadelphia (10/29), the 1st 100-yard effort by a Giants receiver in 2000.

1999: Started all 16 games for the 1st time...His 79 receptions broke Earnest Gray's Giants single-season record of 78, set in 1983...Had 1,183 receiving yards to become the 1st Giants receiver to gain over 1,000 receiving yards in a season since Lionel Manual had 1,029 in 1988...The 1,183 yards was the 2nd-highest total in team history; Homer Jones had 1,209 receiving yards in 1967...Had a career-high 9 receptions twice: at St. Louis (12/19) and vs. Minnesota on (12/26)...Caught a team-high 6 touchdown passes...Combined with Ike Hilliard to gain 2,179 receiving yards as they became the 1st Giants receiving duo to combine for over 2,100 yards in a season...Enjoyed huge game against the Jets (12/5) when he caught 6 passes for 181 yards and 3 touchdowns. Had touchdown receptions of 9, 61, and 80 yards. Toomer's 181 receiving yards were the most by a Giants receiver since Jones caught 4 passes for 196 yards at Washington on Oct. 1, 1967. It was the 1st 3-touchdown game by a Giants receiver since Gray had 3 vs. Green Bay on Nov. 16, 1980. Toomer's 80-yard reception from Kerry Collins was the team's longest of the season and the Giants longest since Dec. 9, 1998 when Tiki Barber caught an 87-yard touchdown from Kent Graham. Toomer's other touchdown receptions were a 61-yarder in the 1st quarter and a 9-yard reception in the 3rd quarter. It was the 1st time the Giants had 2 touchdown passes of more than 60 yards in the same game by the same quarterback to receiver combination since Sept.

AMANI TOOMER

11, 1966 at Pittsburgh, where Earl Morrall and Homer Jones connected for scores of 98 and 75 yards. For the 2nd time in the season, Toomer was 1 of 2 Giants receivers to finish a game with over 100 receiving yards; Hilliard had 121 yard on 6 catches...Finished with 5 receptions for 105 yards vs. Washington (9/19) as both Giants starting wide receivers were able to surpass the 100-yard mark. Hilliard caught 8 passes for 114 yards. The Giants had last had 2 receivers over 100 yards receiving in a game on Nov. 15, 1987 at Philadelphia when Lionel Manuel had 6 catches for 105 yards and Mark Bavaro had 7 for 102...Had an 8-catch, 123-yard performance vs. Philadelphia (10/3). 3 of his receptions were for at least 25 yards (38, 25, 32).

1998: Played in all 16 games as a reserve at wide receiver and as the Giants punt returner...Caught 27 passes for 360 yards and 5 touchdowns...Returned 25 punts for 252 yards...Also returned 4 kickoffs for 66 yards...Made the game-winning touchdown catch in the 3rd quarter in the season-opener vs. Washington (9/6) on a 22-yard reception from Danny Kanell...Had a season-long 39-yard punt return in the 4th quarter at Oakland (9/13)...Caught the game-winning 37-yard touchdown pass from Kent Graham with just 48 seconds left in the victory over previously undefeated Denver (12/13). Made an adjustment to get underneath Broncos cornerback Tito Paul before using his leaping ability to outjump the defender for the ball.

1997: Played in all 16 regular season games and the postseason game...Returned 47 punts for 455 yards, including a 53-yard touchdown return at Detroit (10/19). Fielded a short punt in the 3rd quarter against the Lions and raced 53 yards in and out of traffic for a 17-10 Giants lead. Awarded a Game Ball by the coaching staff and was named NFC Special Teams Player of the Week by the NFL for his performance...Finished the season with 16 catches for 263 yards and a touchdown...Caught his 1st NFL touchdown pass on a 56-yarder from Danny Kanell in the 2nd quarter vs. Arizona (11/16).

1996: Played in 7 games with 1 start before suffering season-ending knee injury...Finished with 18 punt returns for 298 yards (16.6 avg.) and 2 touchdowns, joining David Meggett (1994) as the only Giants to finish a season with 2 punt returns for touchdowns in a season...Returned 11 kickoffs for 191 yards (17.4 avg.)...Caught 1 pass for 12 yards...In his 1st NFL game, Toomer scored on an 87-yard punt return vs. Buffalo (9/1), the longest punt return in Giants history. The previous team mark was an 83-yard return by Eddie Dove at Philadelphia on Sept. 29, 1963...Started at wide receiver at Dallas (9/8) in place of the injured Thomas Lewis (back). Stumbled on a pass route on the 1st play from scrimmage that ended in an interception by the Cowboys. Had 1 reception for 12 yards...Returned a punt 65 yards for a touchdown in the 2nd quarter vs. Philadelphia (10/13) to give the Giants a 10-6 lead....Injured the anterior cruciate ligament in his right knee at the end of the 1st half at Washington (10/20). Played the rest of the that game and attempted to go through Wednesday's practice prior to the Detroit game (10/27) before the extent of his injury was diagnosed...Underwent successful reconstructive surgery to repair the anterior cruciate ligament in his right knee on Oct. 28...Placed on injured reserve on Oct. 31.

College: At conclusion of his collegiate career, ranked 2nd on Michigan's career lists with 143 receptions for 2,657 yards, topped only by Anthony Carter (161-3,076, 1979-82)...Caught 18 touchdown passes... All-America Dream Team selection by The Poor Man's Guide to the NFL Draft, All-Big 10 Conference 2nd-team choice following senior season in 1995...2nd on the team with 44 receptions for 758 yards (17.2 avg) and 7 touchdowns and gained 177 yards on 21 punt returns (8.4 avg) with a score and 204 yards on 11 kickoff returns (18.5 avg) as a senior...1st-team All-Big 10 Conference choice after he caught 54 passes for 1,096 yards (20.3 avg) and 6 touchdowns as a junior in 1994...Became only the 3rd receiver in school history to gain over 1,000 yards in a season, joining Jack Clancy (1,079 yards in 1966) and Desmond Howard (1,025 in 1990)...The 1,096 yards was the 3rd-highest single-season total in school history...His 20.3-yard average per catch ranks 7th on the Wolverines' season record list...Finished 2nd on the team with 29 receptions for 565 yards (19.5 avg) and 4 touchdowns as a sophomore in 1993.

Personal: Married (Dr. Yolanda Dabrowski)...Was selected as the Giants 2003 Man of the Year for his charitable endeavors...Honored by the United Way of NYC for his community involvement during the 2002 season...In 2001, Amani Toomer and his wife, Dr. Yola Dabrowski, founded the Amani Toomer Foundation, a not-for-profit organization dedicated to increasing the awareness of, and providing resources to after-school recreation programs in the New York metropolitan area...The mission of the foundation is to identify established after-school programs in these underserved communities and assist them in furthering their efforts...Through the foundation, they have constructed several new playgrounds in local under-served neighborhoods. For his efforts, Toomer was named by Ameriquest as their "Neighborhood MVP." In February of 2004, Amani and his wife, Yola, joined the United Nations' World Food Program along with quarterback Kurt Warner, his wife Brenda, and Tony Richardson of the Kansas City Chiefs, traveling to the tsunami-affected areas of Indonesia and Sri Lanka. During the 12-day trip, the group visited the most damaged areas, separating and delivering food rations to the affected people. Prior to departing, Toomer joined several teammates at the AmeriCares warehouse in Connecticut, where they packaged items to send for the tsunami relief effort and created a PSA that ran during the Super Bowl thanking the American public for their efforts towards the cause...Toomer participated in the Giants voter registration initiative by joining several of his teammates to open the Nasdaq Stock Market on Election Day as a national reminder to vote...He is also a regular participant in the Giants Foundation Golf Outing and the annual "Meet the Giants" event to benefit the Ronald McDonald House of New York City...Toomer ran with fans in the inaugural Giants Draft Day 5K Race and served as emcee of the Giants 2004 Community Quarterback luncheon, honoring 10 local volunteers for their efforts in the community. Participated in the 2003 NFL Hometown Huddle in New York City, where the Giants, Jets and NFL donated $10,000 to create a computer center for the after-school program at Highbridge Recreation Center in Washington Heights, NYC...In 2003, Amani donated money to a kung fu program that went oversees to participate in a tournament...Amani funded the entire trip, which these children would never have been able to attend...Amani has also used his time in the past to benefit the Breast Cancer Research Foundation, the Newark YMCA, the Autism Coalition, Big BAM! Foundation...For his excellence on the field as well as his dedication to helping others, Amani was honored as the 2003 New York Giants "Walter Payton Man of the Year." He was also honored as the "2004 United Way Hometown Hero" by the United Way of New York City during their annual, "Gridiron Gala." In 2001, visited Stuyvesant High School, which is just a few blocks from Ground Zero in Manhattan and spoke to the students about focusing on school and remaining positive after the attacks of September 11th...USA Today, The Sporting News, Parade and Super Prep All-American selection at De LaSalle (Concord, Cal.) game...His other action on the line came at the Rams (12/27), vs. Dallas (12/21), vs. New England (11/29) and vs. San Francisco (11/9).

College: Three-year starter at Stanford... Two-time finalist for the Vince Lombardi Award and also a nominee for the Outland Trophy as the best lineman in college football...Consensus All-America tackle as a junior who led Dennis Green's Cardinal to an 8-3 record and a bowl bid in his final season...In his final season, opened holes for "Touchdown" Tommy Vardell, helping Stanford post big victories over Top 20 teams Colorado and UCLA, while the offense averaged almost 400 yards and 32 points a game...As a sophomore, he earned 2nd team All-America honors and All-PAC 10 accolades by not allowing a sack all season for a unit that averaged 384 yards per game. Of 14 finalists for the Outland Trophy, he was the only sophomore...Named 1st team freshman All-America as a 17-year-old starter.

Personal: In January of 1994, he started PatchWerk Recordings in the basement of his Alpharetta home. The business has grown into a 3,000 square-foot facility in downtown Atlanta that increased its bookings from 12 to 22 hours per day and calls Columbia/Sony Records, LaFace Records, Def, Arista, and Priority Records, as clients... In 1995, he was part of the NFL's Golden Circle of 50 players who each donated $10,000 in honor of the 50th Anniversary of the United Negro College Fund in a program which helped fund 39 scholarships at black colleges. Bob was just the fifth lineman in Falcons history (at the time) to be chosen in the first round. Whitfield was the first recruit of Dennis Green at Stanford and was the highest drafted player (No. 8 pverall) at the school since John Elway was the 1st pick in 1983... Starred at Banning High School in Los Angeles..."Big Whit" was an imposing 6-4, 270 pound defensive lineman as a 9th grader...Named prestigious Gatorade Circle of Champions Player-of-the-Year in '88. He helped guide Banning to a berth in the city of Los Angeles finals with an 11-3 record...Whitfield has 5 children: Tierra (19), Laniece (15), Kodi (11), Kairo (9) and Kaleigh (5). His mother, Eartha, relocated to Atlanta from California and is a big part of his life...Born Oct. 18, 1971 in Carson, Calif.

CAREER NOTES

Jacobs played at three schools: Coffeyville (Kan.) Community College, Auburn and Southern Illinois. In 42 games at the three stops, he rushed for 4,003 yards with 52 touchdowns on 595 carries (6.7-yard avg.), caught 12 passes for 136 yards (11.3-yard avg.) and returned 6 kickoffs for 140 yards (23.3-yard avg.).

Jacobs was perhaps the most highly-touted transfer in Southern Illinois history. He joined fellow transfers Terry Jackson (Minnesota) and Arkee Whitlock (Coffeyville) to form one of the most explosive backfields in college football, one that accounted for 42 of the team's 65 touchdowns and 3,404 of the squad's 6,032 yards in total offense during his only season with the Salukis.

After an outstanding career at Assumption High School in Napoleanville, La., Jacobs signed with Auburn. Because he was academically ineligible he enrolled at Coffeyville. In 2001, he rushed for 927 yards and 13 touchdowns on 130 carries (7.1-yard avg.) in 10 regular season games, then added 422 yards and 4 scores in playoff action en route to being named to the All-Jayhawk Conference team. The following year, Jacobs led the conference in rushing with 1,638 yards and 17 touchdowns on 243 carries (6.7-yard avg.), and added another 258 yards and 3 scores on 24 carries in the playoffs.

Jacobs enrolled at Auburn for the 2003 season, when he shared time at halfback with Ronnie Brown and Carnell Williams, who became 2 of the top 9 picks in the 2005 draft. He was 2nd on the team with 72 carries for 446 yards (6.2-yard avg.) and 3 touchdowns.

Hoping to get an opportunity for more playing time, Jacobs again transferred, this time to Southern Illinois. In his one season there, Jacobs rushed for 922 yards and 19 touchdowns on 150 carries, averages of 6.6 yards a carry and 122.1 yards a game.

CAREER NOTES

One of the Atlantic Coast Conference's premier defensive players, Moore was regarded as 1 of college football's standout pass rushers during his career at Florida State. In 41 contests with the Seminoles, Moore collected 82 tackles (57 solo) with 14 sacks for minus-90 yards, 30.5 stops for losses of 128 yards (9th-best career total in school history), 34 quarterback pressures, 4 fumble recoveries, 4 forced fumbles and 8 pass deflections.

He earned the Matt Schmauch Academic Commitment Award following spring drills in 2004. But he was hampered in his senior season by an ankle sprain suffered vs. North Carolina that sidelined him for 2 contests and limited his playing time in several other games. He finished the year with 17 tackles (8 solo), 2.5 sacks and 8 pressures. Moore became the starting right defensive end in 2003, when he earned 2nd-team All-ACC honors. He made 25 tackles (21 solo) with 7.5 sacks, 12 stops behind the line of scrimmage and 15 pressures in 12 games, sitting out the Duke contest with a hand injury.

As a true freshman in 2001, Moore was a reserve defensive end in Florida State's final 9 regular season games. He recorded 15 tackles (8 solo) with an 8-yard sack and 2 stops for losses. He shared playing time with Kevin Emanuel at left end in 2002, finishing with 25 tackles (20 solo), 3 sacks, 11 stops behind the line of scrimmage and 9 pressures, despite missing 3 games (Miami, Notre Dame, Wake Forest) after having his appendix removed at mid-season.

2004 SEASON

A preseason All-America and All-Atlantic Coast Conference selection...Moore was limited most of the season by a nagging right ankle sprain that he suffered in the 4th game vs. North Carolina, an injury that sidelined him for the Syracuse and Wake Forest contests...He earned Matt Schmauch Academic Commitment Award honors following spring drills in March...Moore started 9 of 10 games in which he played (he came off the bench vs. Virginia) at right defensive end...Recorded 17 tackles (8 solo) with 2.5 sacks for minus-14 yards, 5.5 stops for losses of 18 yards and 8 quarterback pressures...Recovered a fumble and caused another and deflected 3 passes...Part of a defensive line that led the nation in run defense during the regular season, allowing only 69.0 yards per game.

Miami... Posted 4 tackles and assisted in a stop behind the line of scrimmage.

Alabama-Birmingham...Made a pair of tackles with two pressures and a stop for a 2-yard loss.

Clemson...Registered 4 tackles with 4 pressures. Sacked Charlie Whitehurst for a 6-yard loss, causing a fumble on the play, in the 2nd quarter.

North Carolina...Left the game after only 2 plays when offensive tackle Willie McNeill fell on his leg, causing a

Syracuse...Did not play (ankle).
Virginia...Came off the bench to make a solo tackle with a sack before re-injuring his ankle in the 2nd quarter. Sacked Marques Hagans for a 7-yard loss in the 2nd quarter.
Wake Forest...Did not play (ankle).
Maryland...Returned to the starting lineup with 3 tackles and a stop behind the line of scrimmage.
Duke...Did not make a tackle...Recovered a fumble and advanced the ball 6 yards to set up a 29-yard field goal by Gary Cismesia.
North Carolina State...Stopped tailback T.A. McLendon for a 2-yard loss in the first quarter and deflected a pass.
Florida...Did not make a tackle, but batted away a pass and had a pair of pressures.
West Virginia (Gator Bowl)...Closed out his career with 2 tackles.

2003 SEASON

All-Atlantic Coast Conference 2nd-team selection...Started 12 games at right defensive end, missing the Duke contest with a hand contusion and a right ankle sprain...
Recorded 25 tackles (21 solo) with 7.5 sacks for minus-48 yards, 12 stops for losses of 55 yards and 15 quarterback pressures...His 12 stops behind the line of scrimmage rank 10th on the school's single-season list...Caused and recovered a fumble...Also deflected 4 passes.
Maryland...Posted a pair of solo tackles, deflected a 1st quarter Scott McBrien third-and-16 pass at the FSU 28, forcing the Terps to settle for a 44-yard field goal, and later sacked McBrien for a 3-yard loss on a third-and-13 play from the Maryland 47.
Georgia Tech...Had perhaps his best game as a Seminole, recording 5 tackles (4 solo) with 2 sacks for minus-13 yards, a pass deflection, a fumble recovery and a forced fumble. In the 1st quarter, on a third-and-6 play from the FSU 48, he sacked Reggie Ball for a 7-yard loss, forcing Tech to punt. He then joined defensive tackle Darnell Dockett in sacking Ball for a 12-yard loss in the 2nd quarter. In the 3rd quarter, he caused a fumble when he tackled Ball on a 2-yard gain on a third-&-14 running play.
Colorado...Stopped tailback Brian Calhoun for a 2-yard loss in the 1st quarter, deflected a pass and made 2 solo tackles.
Virginia...Sacked Matt Schaub for a 12-yard loss on a third-and-4 from the Virginia 23 in the 3rd quarter, forcing the Cavaliers to punt.
Clemson...Credited with 4 tackles(3 solo).
Florida...Had 2solo tackles, sacked Chris Leak for a 4-yard loss in the 2nd quarter and brought down tailback Ciatrick Fason for a 1-yard loss in the 1st quarter.
Miami (Orange Bowl)...Picked off a Brock Berlin pass and returned it one yard on a third-and-16 at the FSU 39 in the 3rd quarter, and added a solo tackle and a pass break-up.

2002 SEASON

Appeared in 9 games, playing behind Kevin Emanuel at left defensive end...Missed the Miami, Notre Dame and Wake Forest games after undergoing surgery on Oct. 22 for appendicitis...Finished with 25 tackles (20 solo), 3 sacks for minus-20 yards, 11 stops for losses of 45 yards and 9quarterback pressures...Recovered a fumble and caused 2 others...Also deflected a pass.
Virginia...Made a pair of solo tackles, including one for a 5-yard loss and recovered a fumble in the 4th quarter to set up a 5-yard touchdown run by tailback Willie Reid.
Maryland...Registered 4 solo tackles with 2 pressures, stopped tailback Chris Downs behind the line of scrimmage and sacked Scott McBrien for an 8-yard loss.
Louisville...Added a 6-yard sack, 2 stops for minus-7 yards and 2 solo hits.
Clemson...Sacked Willie Simmons for a

2004 SEASON GAME REVIEWS

EAGLES 31, GIANTS 17
At Philadelphia, Sept. 12, 2004

The Tom Coughlin era got off to a rocky start, as the Giants fell to the Philadelphia Eagles in Lincoln Financial Field, 31-17. But the Giants had plenty of positives to take away from this game, including 413 total yards, solid performances by Kurt Warner and Tiki Barber and a 53-yard field goal by Steve Christie. Barber led the Giants in rushing (125 yards on just nine carries) and receiving (five catches for 75 yards) and had the game's longest play with a 72-yard run in the fourth period. Ron Dayne scored the Giants' first touchdown on a short run in the opening quarter. Warner completed 16 of 28 passes for 203 yards, no interceptions and no touchdowns. But he had a crucial fumble near the Eagles goal line and was sacked four times. Eli Manning made his NFL debut in the Giants' final series and completed three of nine passes for 66 yards. The Giants, however, had two goal-to-go situations in the second half and came away with zero points. The Giants' defense, which featured six new starters, had problems. The Eagles rolled up 454 yards of total offense and punted just once in the first three periods. Donovan McNabb completed 26 of 36 passes for 330 yards and four touchdowns, three to Terrell Owns and the other to L.J. Smith. David Akers kicked a field goal and Brian Westbrook rushed for 119 yards, including a 50-yard run that set up Philadelphia's first touchdown. The Giants jumped out to a 7-0 lead on Dayne's touchdown run with 8:17 remaining in the first period. Philadelphia responded with a pair of McNabb-to-Owens touchdown passes, of 20 and three yards, to jump ahead, 14-7, at the end of the quarter. Smith's 14-yard reception and Akers' 45-yard field goal increased the advantage to 24-7. Christie responded with a long field goal. The Giants scored the first points and the last points of the opening half, but left the field with a 24-10 deficit. In the half, the Giants were out-gained by Philadelphia, 277-154. The Eagles virtually clinched the game in the third period, when Owens' 12-yard touchdown catch capped a 71-yard drive. On the Giants' ensuing possession, they marched from their own 20 to the Philadelphia one. But on third-and-goal, Warner mishandled the snap and Jevon Kearse recovered the ball for the Eagles. In the final period, the Giants had a first-and-goal at the Philly nine-yard line. Dayne picked up four yards on a first-down run before Warner threw three incompletions, the last to Ike Hilliard, as the Giants again went away empty-handed. Manning made his debut on the next possession, entering the game with 2:37 left and the Giants trailing by three touchdowns. On his first play, he handed the ball to Barber, who ran 72 yards for a score. In his first NFL action, Manning completed three of nine passes for 66 yards and was sacked once. Two of his completions were on third down, and his third was a 29-yarder to Tim Carter on fourth-and-10. Notes: The loss was the Giants' ninth in a row dating back to last season, tying the longest losing streak in franchise history. The Giants lost the first nine games of the 1976 season...Coughlin became the first Giants head coach to lose his debut since Bill Parcells in 1983...The Giants fell to 45-30-5 in opening day games, including 8-7 against Philadelphia. Coughlin is 6-3 in NFL openers...Steve Christie's 53-yard field goal was the longest by a Giant since Brad Daluiso kicked a 54-yarder against Phoenix in Giants Stadium on Nov. 28, 1993...Michael Strahan had one of the Giants' two sacks, increasing his career total to115.0. McNabb is Strahan's most frequent victim – he now has 11.5 sacks of the Eagles quarterback. He has sacked Philadelphia quarterbacks 18.5 times, his highest total against any team.

Game 2
GIANTS 20, REDSKINS 14
At East Rutherford, Sept. 19, 2004

Tom Coughlin had just finished congratulating the Giants for their initial victory of the season – and their first with Coughlin as head coach – when Michael Strahan stepped forward holding a football. The ball was from the Giants' 20-14 victory over the Washington Redskins and the Giants' senior player and six-time Pro Bowler presented it to the coach. The victory broke losing streaks of nine games overall and seven straight at home. The Giants rediscovered the formula for winning a football game: take the ball away from the other guy. They forced seven Washington turnovers – three fumbles and four interceptions – which turned the momentum and the game their way. Safety Brent Alexander intercepted two passes and defensive tackle Fred Robbins and rookie Gibril Wilson had the others. All three players played their first home game as Giants. Barrett Green, Michael Strahan and Osi Umenyiora recovered fumbles, with Green returning his for a 16-yard touchdown. Offensively, Kurt Warner completed 22 of 33 passes for 232 yards, including a 38-yard touchdown to Tim Carter. Steve Christie kicked field goals of 38 and 22 yards. The Giants scored all of their points in the second period. The Redskins took an early 7-0 lead when Mark Brunell threw a two-yard touchdown pass to rookie H-back Chris Cooley. Early in the second period, Fred Robbins picked up his first sack as a Giant, a six-yarder of Brunell. Robbins also forced the quarterback to fumble, and the ball was recovered by Strahan on the Redskins' 38-yard line. Coughlin immediately went for the jugular, as Warner faked a handoff into the line then threw deep down the middle to Carter, who caught the ball in the end zone for a 7-7 tie. It was the first career touchdown for the wide receiver, whose first three seasons have all been shortened by injuries. Later in the quarter, Clinton Portis fumbled after being hit by Shaun Williams. The ball was scooped up by Green, who returned it 16 yards for his first career touchdown. Two plays later, Robbins intercepted Brunell's pass and returned it 13 yards to the Washington 26-yard line. After the interception – the first of Robbins' career - the Giants gained six yards before Christie kicked a 38-yard field goal for a 17-7 advantage. On their next possession, the Giants drove 72 yards before Christie's three-pointer increased the Giants' lead at the half to 20-7. In the third period, Umenyiora recovered a fumble and Alexander intercepted a pass. Washington closed the gap to 20-14 early in the fourth quarter on Patrick Ramsey's 13-yard pass to Portis, but interceptions by Wilson and Alexander helped seal the victory. Notes: The night before the game, Coughlin showed the players a 10-minute tape of past Giants-Redskins games. The coach wanted to illustrate for the players the nature of this long and heated rivalry. Former Giant Phil McConkey and Bob Papa narrated the tape...The seven takeaways were the most by the Giants since they had seven at Buffalo in a strike replacement game on Oct. 18, 1987. It was their highest takeaway total in a non-strike game since they had seven at Washington on Dec. 7, 1986...The Giants are 16-13 in Giants Stadium openers, with victories in four of the last five...Robbins had two sacks, an interception and a forced fumble. In the first 57 games of his career, he had totaled 3.5 sacks and did not force a fumble...The four interceptions were the Giants' highest total since they had four vs. Dallas on Nov. 4, 2001 in a 27-24 overtime victory...Alexander became the first Giant to intercept two passes in a game since Will Allen did it at Minnesota on Nov. 19, 2001.

Game 3
GIANTS 27, BROWNS 10
At East Rutherford, Sept. 26, 2004

In a game of big plays and long drives, it was two relatively unnoticed plays that actually lost yardage which indicated how far the Giants had come early in the 2004 season. When Michael Strahan recovered Jeff Garcia's fumble with 1:22 remaining, the Giants had the ball at the Cleveland Browns one-yard line with an opportunity to score a bonus touchdown. But instead of taking the ball into the end zone, Tom Coughlin instructed Kurt Warner to take the snap and then a knee on the last two plays of the game. The Giants' 27-10 victory over the Browns was assured, and there was no need to pile on a defeated opponent. The Giants raised their record to 2-1 and their second home victory was one more than they had in the entire 2003 season. They benefited from many standout performances. Tiki Barber rushed for 106 yards and scored the first touchdown on an eight-yard run. Warner completed 19 of 27 passes, did not throw an interception for the third game in a row, and scored a touchdown on a one-yard run. Toomer caught five passes for 126 yards. Mike Cloud punctuated his Giants debut with a five-yard touchdown run. The offense did not turn over the ball. Defensively, the Giants had three takeaways, one on a Gibril Wilson interception and the other two on Strahan fumble recoveries. The Browns converted only two of 10 third down opportunities. Perhaps the most impressive portion of the game was the 95-yard drive the Giants' offense put together in the third period. The Browns had been on the verge of making it a 10-7 game when they had a second-and-two at the Giants five. But Garcia fumbled the snap and Strahan recovered at the five. Barber was then nailed for a four-yard loss on first down. No problem. The Giants gained 99 yards on the next 10 plays (and got some help from Robert Griffith's 15-yard penalty for a personal foul for hitting Tim Carter). Amani Toomer's sensational diving catch gave the Giants a first-and-goal at the six. Barber carried the ball inside the one. On the next snap, Warner rolled right with the intention of passing to Visanthe Shiacoe. But the tight end was held by defensive lineman Tyrone Rogers, so Warner took off and got just far enough to score the touchdown that increased the Giants' lead to 17-0. The Giants had scored all of the points in the first half on Barber's touchdown run and Steve Christie's 43-yard field goal. Cleveland got on the scoreboard early in the fourth quarter, when Phil Dawson kicked a 49-yard field goal. The Giants responded with Christie's 25-yard field goal, capping a 66-yard drive that was highlighted by a 41-yard pass to Barber, who was stopped just shy of the goal line for the second time in the game. The Browns padded their points total when Quincy Morgan caught a three-yard touchdown pass from Garcia with 3:36 remaining in the game. Notes: The 17-point margin of victory was the Giants' largest since a 44-27 triumph at Indianapolis on Dec. 22, 2002...The Giants held the Browns scoreless through the first three periods, the first time they've done that since a 37-7 victory over Dallas on Dec, 15, 2002...Warner increased his streak to 111 consecutive passes without an interception... Warner's rushing touchdown was his first since Feb. 3, 2002, when he scored one a two-yard run for St. Louis against New England in Super Bowl XXXVI. His previous regular season touchdown run was on Sept. 26, 1999 against Atlanta...Strahan twice sacked Jeff Garcia, boosting his career total to 117.0. Garcia became the 56th different quarterback that Strahan has sacked in his 12-year career...Will Allen picked up his first career sack, a six-yarder.

Game 4
At Green Bay, Oct. 3, 2004

The only thing close about the game was the final score. The Giants' revival branched out into a road show when they marched into Lambeau Field and defeated the Green Bay Packers, 14-7. Tiki Barber (52-yard run) and Jeremy Shockey (four-yard reception) scored touchdowns as the Giants won their third consecutive game and improved to 3-1. The Giants won the game far more handily than the final score indicates. They out-gained the Packers, 403-301, had more first downs (21-15) and limited Green Bay's time of possession to just 24:07, almost 10 minutes less than the NFL-leading average they enjoyed entering the game. Ahman Green, who was averaging 104.7 rushing yards a game, was limited to 59. Skeptics might point to the fact that Green Bay quarterback Brett Favre missed most of the second half after suffering a concussion. But Favre played the entire first half, when the Packers never snapped the ball in Giants territory and Green Bay gained just 98 yards and had five first downs. Barber rushed for 182 yards, the second-highest total of his career, and Kurt Warner completed 20 of 26 passes for the Giants. Defensively, rookie safety Gibril Wilson continued his fine play with 12 tackles, William Peterson and Terry Cousin had interceptions and Brent Alexander recovered a fumble. The Giants won the turnover battle, 3-1. They would have won the game by a larger margin had they cashed on in more scoring opportunities. Four times in a scoreless first half they had the ball in Green Bay territory. But they couldn't capitalize, punting twice, missing a field goal try and throwing an interception. In the second half, Steve Christie missed two more field goal attempts. The Packers scored first, under unusual circumstances in the third period. Green Bay took the second half kickoff and marched from its own 20 to the Giants' 29-yard line. On second-and-six, Favre was hit hard by William Joseph and was forced to leave the game. Green Bay gained one yard in two plays with Doug Pederson at quarterback. Pederson was in the huddle, seemingly calling the play on fourth-and-five, when Favre ran onto the field as the crowd cheered wildly. Favre then dropped back and threw to the right side to Jevon Walker, who caught the ball at the four, then fought this way past Cousin and Frank Walker into the end zone. It was later learned that Favre was not medically cleared to return to the field. He had run into the huddle on his own. He never returned to the game after throwing the touchdown pass. The Giants tied the score in just 50 seconds. After Warner's pass to Amani Toomer gained nine yards, Barber took a handoff, zipped through the line and scampered 52 yards for his third touchdown of the season. Early in the fourth quarter, the Giants scored the winning touchdown when Shockey stepped into the end zone, then leaped high over Michael Hawthoren to catch Warner's fade pass. Notes: The victory was the Giants' first in Green Bay since a 42-40 triumph on Sept. 19, 1971. The Giants had lost in Lambeau in 1985 and 1995 and in Milwaukee in 1975 and 1981. It was the Giants' first victory over the Packers since a 27-7 triumph in 1992...Neither team scored in the first half. It was first time the opening half of a Giants game ended at 0-0 since Nov. 21, 1994, when they played a Monday night game at Houston. The Giants won that game in overtime, 13-10... The Giants rushed for 245 yards, their highest total since they had 260 rushing yards in a 31-21 victory over Phoenix on Oct. 11, 1992. It was the highest total ever by a Tom Coughlin-coached team in a regular season game...Wilson, the rookie safety, led the Giants with 12 tackles, 10 of them unassisted.

Game 5
At Irving, Oct. 10, 2004

The red-hot Giants ran their winning streak to four games with a 26-10 victory over the Dallas Cowboys in Texas Stadium. The triumph gave the Giants their first four-game winning streak since they ended the 2002 season with four consecutive victories and their first 4-1 start since 1993. Jeremy Shockey and Tiki Barber again scored the Giants' touchdowns and Steve Christie kicked four field goals. The Giants trailed at halftime, 10-6, then dominated Dallas in a 20-0 surge over the final two periods. Barber rushed for 122 yards on 23 carries – his fourth 100-yard game of the season – and caught five passes for 76 yards. His 58-yard run and 55-yard reception set up the Giants touchdowns. Kurt Warner completed 18 of 33 passes for 217 yards and did not throw an interception. Kevin Lewis and Will Allen made critical tackles on fourth down plays. William Peterson intercepted a pass, Barrett Green forced and recovered a fumble on the same play and Gibril Wilson and Osi Umenyiora had sacks. Christie, who missed three field goal attempts the previous week in Green Bay, responded with a four-for-four performance that included field goals from 31, 51, 47 and 26 yards. The Giants seized control of the game on their initial possession of the third period, taking advantage of a huge play by Barber and several Dallas penalties to take a 13-10 lead on Shockey's one-yard touchdown catch, his second in as many weeks. Warner threw a fade pass for Shockey, who out-jumped safety Roy Williams and came down with the ball. The score completed a 12-play, 86-yard drive that was highlighted by Barber's 58-yard run to the Dallas 14-yard line. Christie's 47-yard field goal made it 16-10. On Dallas' next possession, the Cowboys faced a fourth-and-one from their own 43. Vinny Testaverde threw a short pass to fullback Darian Barnes, who was promptly tackled for no gain by Allen. The Giants took advantage of the defensive stop, driving 34 yards before Christie's 26-yard field goal increased the lead to 19-10. After Dallas went three-and-out, the Giants put the game out of reach. On third-and-10 from the 30, Warner flipped a screen pass to Barber, who turned it into a 55-yard gain. Four plays later Barber scored from the three to make it 26-10. Christie's 51-yard field goal with two seconds left in the first half pulled the Giants to within 10-6. The Giants took possession of the ball at their own 47-yard line with 45 seconds remaining when Green forced and then recovered a fumble by tight end James Witten. Billy Cundiff's 41-yard field goal had increased Dallas' lead to 10-3. Dallas jumped out to a 7-3 lead on Testaverde's seven-yard touchdown pass to Keyshawn Johnson with 9:24 remaining in the second period. Christie's 31-yarder field goal gave the Giants an early 3-0 lead. Notes: The Giants improved their record to 4-1, matching their victory total for the entire 2003 season. The Giants won for just the fourth time in their last 14 visits to Dallas and improved to 10-22 in Texas Stadium...The Giants improved to 13-3 in games prior to a bye, tying them with Dallas and Seattle for the NFL's best record in games before a week off. Tom Coughlin is 6-3 in pre-bye games... Barber rushed for more than 100 yards for the fourth time in the first five games, tying his career high for a full season... Christie's 51-yard field goal was the 20th of his career from at least 50 yards out, tying him with Norm Johnson for eighth place on the NFL's all-time list... The Giants won the coin toss for the fifth time in five games... Christie kicked four field goals, the first Giant to do so since Matt Bryant kicked four in a victory over Washington on Nov. 17, 2002.

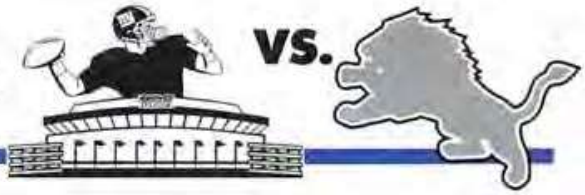
Game 6
LIONS 28, GIANTS 13
At East Rutherford, Oct. 24, 2004



The Giants, seemingly refreshed and ready to go after their bye week, saw their four-game winning streak come to a crashing halt as the Detroit Lions marched into Giants Stadium and earned a 28-13 victory. The Giants have lost eight of their last nine post-bye games and fell to 3-13 overall in games following a week off. The Giants lost the turnover battle for the first time this season, twice giving away the ball while taking it away just once. Their problems in the red zone continued – three trips netted a total of only six points. The Lions, who entered the game averaging an NFL-low average of 227.2 yards, gained 325 yards. Quarterback Joey Harrington completed 18 of 22 passes for 230 yards, including touchdowns to Roy Williams and Reggie Swinton. Kevin Jones and Artose Pinner scored Detroit's other touchdowns. Tiki Barber scored the Giants' lone touchdown, on a 62-yard catch-and-run in the second period. Barber had a career-high 102 receiving yards on seven receptions. Steve Christie kicked two field goals for the Giants. The game's pivotal sequence occurred in the fourth period. Facing a fourth-and-four from the Lions' seven-yard line, Tom Coughlin elected to try a field goal, and Christie's 25-yarder pulled the Giants to within a point, at 14-13. The defense then suffered a rare breakdown as Detroit immediately responded with a 70-yard drive that was capped by Harrington's two-yard touchdown pass to Swinton with 2:52 remaining in the game. The extra point gave the Lions an eight-point lead. The Giants took possession at their own 16. Moments later, they faced a fourth-and-four at the 22 with 2:16 remaining. Although he had two timeouts remaining, Coughlin chose not to punt and instead went for the first down. But Warner's pass to Jeremy Shockey fell incomplete. Four players later, Pinner's eight-yard touchdown run put the game out of reach. The Lions took a 14-10 lead on Jones' first career touchdown, a two-yard run with 9:34 remaining in the third period. The Giants led 10-7 at the end of a first half in which they did not punt and out-gained Detroit, 239-144, and enjoyed a 15-7 advantage in first downs. Christie's 19-yard field goal with 7:07 remaining in the second period gave the Giants their first lead. The Giants tied the game at 7-7 with just 16 seconds left in the opening period on yet another spectacular play by Barber. On third-and-12 from the 38-yard line, Warner flipped a screen pass to the right side for Barber, who caught the ball at the 35. Barber cut inside, got outstanding blocks from Chris Snee and Jamaar Taylor (who knocked down two pursuing Lions) and raced untouched up the middle of the field for a 62-yard touchdown. Detroit had taken an early 7-0 lead on Harrington's 18-yard touchdown pass to rookie Roy Williams on the game's opening possession. Notes: Both teams finished with 325 total yards and 22 first downs, the first NFL game in which both teams had the same number of yards and first downs since Oct. 8, 2000, when Miami and Buffalo each had 254 yards and 15 first downs...Barber caught a game-high seven passes for a career-high 102 yards, including a 62-yard touchdown. His previous high total was 100 receiving yards at Dallas on Jan. 2, 2000, when he set a team record with 13 catches...Barber rushed for 70 yards to increase his career total to 6,056 yards to become the second Giant in history with 6,000 rushing yards. Rodney Hampton (6,897) is the other...Michael Strahan played in his 173rd game in a Giants uniform, tying him with Harry Carson and Keith Hamilton for sixth on the franchise's all-time list.

Game 7
GIANTS 31, VIKINGS 13
At Minneapolis, Oct. 31, 2004

After fielding questions for a week about the difficulty of beating the red-hot Vikings in the noisy Metrodome, the Giants went out and quieted a crowd of 64,012 with a 34-13 thrashing of the home team. And it wasn't nearly that close. The Giants led 34-0 in the fourth period before Minnesota scored two meaningless touchdowns. The Giants' defense dominated Minnesota's high-flying offense. The Vikings finished with 324 yards, or 125 less than their league-leading average. But even that is misleading, as Minnesota gained 128 of those yards (39.5 percent) in the fourth quarter, after the game was out of reach. The defense forced three turnovers, which the Giants turned into 17 points. The offense did not cough it up once. Randy Moss, the Vikings All-Pro receiver, was limited to just a few snaps and was not even in uniform in the second half because of a pulled hamstring he suffered two weeks ago. But the Vikings can't blame a beating like this on the absence of one player. The Giants began to take charge on the game's fourth play. Daunte Culpepper threw to the right side for rookie running back Mewelde Moore, who couldn't hold the ball and then let it roll away, apparently thinking it was a forward pass. But it was a lateral, and Giants linebacker Kevin Lewis picked it up and returned it 16 yards to the Minnesota 22-yard line. The takeaway resulted in Steve Christie's 50-yard field goal. The Vikings went three-and-out before the Giants took the ball on their own 40-yard line. On the first play of the drive, Warner threw long down the right sideline to Jeremy Shockey. The pass fell incomplete, but Corey Chavous was penalized 38 yards for pass interference, putting the Giants back on the Minnesota 22-yard line. Moments later, Tiki Barber's two-yard touchdown run made it 10-0. Late in the opening quarter, the Vikings moved from their own one to the Giants' 39 where, on second-and-10, Culpepper's pass for Jemaine Wiggins was intercepted by rookie safety Gibril Wilson, his team-high third of the season. Wilson returned the ball 39 yards to the Vikings' 26-yard line. The Giants capitalized on Barber's five-yard score, which increased their lead to 17 points. Christie's 30-yard field goal with five seconds before halftime enabled the Giants to take a 20-point lead into the locker room. The Giants increased their lead to 27-0 on Mike Cloud's one-yard run with 5:39 remaining in the third period. They took possession at their own 45 after cornerback Will Allen's first interception of the season. Shockey made two big catches on the drive, including a 26-yarder that put the ball on the one. Cloud's second score, on a one-yard run early in the fourth period, increased the lead to 34-0, and capped a 51-yard drive that was highlighted by Cloud's 26-yard run. The Vikings finally scored with 9:01 left on Michael Bennett's 10-yard run. After the Giants punted, Minnesota closed the scoring on Culpepper's one-yard touchdown pass to Nate Burleson. Notes: The Giants' 21-point margin of victory was their largest on the road since Nov. 26, 2000, when they won at Arizona, 31-7, and largest overall since they beat Dallas, 37-7, on Dec. 15, 2002…It was the Giants' third victory in the Metrodome in as many seasons, the first time they won in the same road venue in three consecutive years since they beat Philadelphia in Veterans Stadium from 1997-2000…Barber and Cloud rushed for two touchdowns apiece, the first time the Giants rushed for four touchdowns in a game since a 29-27 victory over Cincinnati on Oct. 26, 1997. That was also the last time the Giants had two backs rush for two touchdowns apiece; Charles Way and Tyrone Wheatley each scored twice on the ground against the Bengals.

Game 8
BEARS 28, GIANTS 21
At East Rutherford, Nov. 7, 2004

The Giants jumped ahead, 14-0, then engineered their own demise, by committing five turnovers (three fumbles and two interceptions) and lost, 28-21. Four of them were in the first half, including three on consecutive plays late in the second period. Those miscues led to 13 points. The Giants were also flagged for a season-high 14 penalties for 109 yards, including one that took a touchdown off the board and another that wiped out an 86-yard kickoff return. Plus Kurt Warner got sacked seven times, the Giants went one-for-14 on third-down conversion attempts, and one-for-six when it was third-and-one or fourth-and-one. Chicago, playing a low-risk offense with rookie quarterback Craig Krenzel at the controls, gained only 231 yards and had 13 first downs. Krenzel completed just eight of 21 passes for 144 yards and a touchdown to Bernard Berrian. Anthony Thomas rushed for 110 yards and two touchdowns, one a 41-yarder. For the Giants, Tiki Barber rushed for 72 yards and two scores. Warner completed 18 of 36 passes for 195 yards, a late touchdown to Jeremy Shockey and two interceptions. The Giants took a 7-0 lead on their second possession. A 21-yard pass to Amani Toomer helped set up Barber's three-yard touchdown run. Chicago didn't hold the ball for long as Gibril Wilson forced a Krenzel fumble that was recovered by Osi Umenyiora, who returned it 15 yards to the Bears' 21. The Giants scored in two plays, a 20-yard pass to Shockey and Barber's wide run to the right. After a Chicago punt, the Giants had a chance to pad their lead late in the quarter after a 14-yard pass to Shockey gave them a first down at the Bears' 13-yard line. Barber scored a touchdown on a run to the left, but it was taken off the board because of Toomer's holding penalty. Three plays after the score was taken off the board, on third-and-13 from the 16, Warner was sacked by Jerry Azumah, who batted the ball out of his hand. Rookie Nathan Vasher scooped it up and returned it 12 yards to the Chicago 30. The Bears didn't score off the turnover, but the game had begun to turn their way. The Giants did not score again until less than two minutes remained in the game. Chicago scored 20 points in the final 5:13 of the second period, thanks in large measure to the three turnovers on three plays. The Bears scored their first points on Krenzel's 35-yard touchdown pass to Berrian. Moments later, Ike Hilliard lost a fumble that set up Thomas' four-yard score. On the Giants' first play after the touchdown, Vasher intercepted a Toomer pass, which set up Paul Edinger's 22-yard field goal and a 17-14 Chicago lead. Willie Ponder seemed to seize the momentum back for the Giants with an 86-yard kickoff return to the Bears 12. But Kevin Lewis' holding penalty pushed the ball all the way back to the Giants' 28-yard line. On the first play from scrimmage, Warner's pass bounced off Shockey and was picked off by Azumah, who returned it to the Giants' 41, setting up Edinger's 21-yard field goal as time expired in the second half. Thomas' 41-yard touchdown run up the left side and Krenzel's two-point conversion with 7:44 remaining increased Chicago's lead to 28-14. Shockey scored a late touchdown for the Giants. Notes: Barber scored two touchdowns for the second week in a row to become the first Giant to score at least two touchdowns in each of two consecutive games since Lionel Manuel did it on Oct. 25 and Nov. 2, 1987...Michael Strahan sacked Krenzel for a 14-yard loss to increase his career total to 118.0 sacks. Krenzel became the 57th different quarterback Strahan has sacked. But Strahan (torn pectoral muscle) and fellow defensive end Keith Washington (knee) suffered season-ending injuries in the game.

Game 9

At Tempe, Nov. 14, 2004

For the second week in a row, the Giants jumped out to a big early lead, then sputtered, stalled and ultimately lost a game they firmly believe they should have won. After scoring touchdowns on 80-yard drives the first two times they touched the ball, the Giants never again reached the end zone. They squandered an 11-point lead and lost to the Arizona Cardinals in Sun Devil Stadium, 17-14. What made this one tough to swallow was that the Giants were the better team in many respects. They out-gained the Cards by 130 yards, 308-178. They limited Arizona to only 74 net passing yards. The Giants owned the ball for 33:27, compared to the Cardinals' time of possession of 26:33. Neither team turned the ball over. But after gaining 160 yards on their first two possessions they totaled 148 in their last nine. Their longest drive was a 64-yarder to start the third period, but that ended with a missed field goal that was partially blocked. The Giants were penalized 10 times for 97 yards and Kurt Warner was sacked six times while completing 19 of 30 passes for 193 yards and a touchdown. The following day, Tom Coughlin announced that Eli Manning would replace Warner as the starting quarterback. Jeremy Shockey and Tiki Barber scored the Giants' touchdowns. Emmitt Smith, the NFL's career rushing leader, scored both of Arizona's touchdowns while rushing for 67 yards and became the first player in league history with 18,000 yards. Neil Rackers kicked a field goal for Arizona. The Giants took a 7-0 lead on Warner's two-yard touchdown pass to Shockey with 3:38 remaining in the first period. The Giants used 13 plays to move 80 yards – 40 rushing and 40 passing. The Cardinals pulled to within 7-3 on Rackers 41-yard field goal with 13:36 remaining in the second period. Barber's two-yard touchdown run with 9:03 remaining in the second period increased the Giants' lead to 14-3. Smith's two-yard touchdown run with 39 seconds left in the second quarter lifted the Cardinals to within four points at 14-10. The Cards converted two key third-down opportunities on the 68-yard drive. On third-and-11 from the Arizona 43, Josh McCown completed a 16-yard pass to Obafemi Ayanbadejo to the Giants' 41. Moments later, the Cardinals faced a third-and-four when McCown ran for six yards to the 24. Smith scored two plays later. Smith's second touchdown, a three-yard run with 1:09 remaining in the third period, gave Arizona a 17-14 lead. The Cardinals took possession at the Giants' 37-yard line after a 38-yard punt return by Karl Williams. The Giants seemed to seize the momentum when rookie Reggie Torbor sacked McCown for a 12-yard loss, but Peterson was penalized for illegal use of hands, giving Arizona a first down at the 21. Moments later, Smith scored his 21st career touchdown against the Giants. Notes: Barber scored a touchdown in his seventh consecutive game, tying the longest single-season streak in team history. Bill Paschal scored in seven straight games in 1944...The Giants' touchdown on their first possession broke a streak of 17 consecutive games in which the Giants failed to score a touchdown on their opening drive. The Giants had last scored a first-possession touchdown on Oct. 26, 2003 at Minnesota, when Ike Hilliard caught a 19-yard scoring pass from Kerry Collins...Hilliard caught one pass, the 350th reception of his career. He is the fifth Giant in history to reach that plateau...Smith, the NFL's career rushing leader, ran for 2,027 yards and 21 touchdowns in 25 games against the Giants...Arizona gained 178 yards, the lowest total by a Giants opponent since Philadelphia had 134 yards on Oct. 19, 2003.

Game 10
FALCONS 14, GIANTS 10
At East Rutherford, Nov. 21, 2004

Eli Manning gave the Giants and their fans energy, excitement and enthusiasm in his NFL starting debut. But he could not give them a victory. Although the league's top draft choice played a strong second half, the Giants fell to Atlanta in Giants Stadium, 14-10. Manning completed 17 of 37 passes for 162 yards, a touchdown to Jeremy Shockey and two interceptions. He was sacked just once, on the Giants' first possession. At least four of his passes were dropped. In the second half, he looked more comfortable and hit 12 of 23 passes for 116 yards. But a late drive stalled in the waning moments when Manning's fourth-down pass fell incomplete. Tiki Barber rushed for 107 yards, his franchise-record 20th 100-yard game. The Giants held the high-flying Falcons scoreless in the second half and to just 97 net passing yards. But tight end Alge Crumpler caught two touchdown passes from Michael Vick, who completed 12 of 20 passes for 115 yards and rushed for 104 yards on 15 carries. The Giants trailed, 14-0, at the end of a first half in which Vick rushed for 91 yards and threw touchdown passes to Crumpler of six yards in the first quarter and two yards in the second. Manning's first NFL touchdown pass, a six-yarder to Shockey with 4:37 remaining in the third period, lifted the Giants to within 14-7. The Giants drove 72 yards in 16 plays and 7:53. Shockey caught four passes for 32 yards on the march and Manning completed four third-down passes – two to Shockey, one to Barber and another to Amani Toomer. After the score, Shockey carried the ball to the sideline, where he faked throwing it into the stands before handing it to Manning. Steve Christie's 24-yard field goal with 6:28 remaining in the game moved the Giants to within 14-10. The Giants had first-and-goal at the Atlanta seven, but Barber lost a yard on first down and Manning threw a pair of incompletions. With his defense playing so well, Coughlin elected to kick the field goal, believing his defense would get the ball back with plenty of time remaining. But linebacker Carlos Emmons was called for a critical roughing-the-passer penalty with 4:55 remaining. Atlanta faced a third-and-13 from its own nine when Vick rolled to his left, chased by Will Allen and Emmons. Vick fired a desperation incompletion and it appeared Atlanta would have to punt from its end zone. But referee Jeff Triplette called the penalty on Emmons, saying the linebacker hit Vick in the facemask. Emmons appeared to be pulling up when he collided with Vick. The call enabled the Falcons to hold the ball for an extra three minutes. When the Giants finally took possession at their own 26, only 1:52 remained, and they had one timeout. They got as far as the Atlanta 42, but Manning's fourth-down pass for Jeremy Shockey fell incomplete with 45 seconds left. Notes: The Falcons became the first team to defeat the Giants in Giants Stadium in three consecutive seasons since the Washington Redskins from 1981-83... Manning's first NFL touchdown pass went for six yards to Jeremy Shockey. Ironically, the initial pro scoring pass for all three Manning quarterbacks was six yards long. Archie Manning threw a six-yarder to Dave Parks in 1971. Peyton Manning's six-yard scoring throw went to Marvin Harrison on Sept. 6, 1998...Manning was the 14th quarterback selected No. 1 overall in the NFL Draft since 1970. He was the 13th to make his starting debut as a rookie. Those 13 quarterbacks are 4-9 in their debuts...Christie kicked a field goal and an extra point, and his four points increased his career total to 1,441, moving him past Jim Turner and into 11th place on the NFL's career list...Barber did not score a touchdown for the first time in eight games.

Game 11
At East Rutherford, Nov. 28, 2004

Four was the Giants' unlucky number against Philadelphia. Their 27-6 loss to the Eagles was their a) fourth in a row overall, b) fourth consecutive at home, and c) fourth straight to the Eagles. The defeat dropped the Giants to 5-6. The Eagles improved to 10-1 and clinched their – what else? – fourth consecutive NFC East title. The Giants, who wore red jerseys for the first time since 1953, trailed at halftime, 7-6, but surrendered 20 unanswered points in the second half, including 13 in the third period. Eli Manning, making his second start, completed only six of 21 passes for 148 yards, including strikes of 50 and 52 yards to fellow rookie Jamaar Taylor. He threw two interceptions. The Giants failed to score a touchdown and got only two field goals from Steve Christie. They had a punt blocked and finished with 12 first downs. Donovan McNabb and Brian Westbrook scored touchdowns on short runs and hooked up for a 34-yard scoring pass and David Akers kicked a pair of field goals for Philadelphia. The Eagles seized control of the game with 13 points in the third period that increased their lead to 20-6. Akers kicked two field goals just 2:31 apart – from 47 and 42 yards – and Westbrook scored a touchdown. After the first field goal, Manning overthrew Toomer on the left side and the ball was intercepted by safety Brian Dawkins at the Giants' 47-yard line. A 20-yard pass to L.J. Smith helped the Eagles move the ball to the 24 before Akers came on to kick his second field goal. The Giants' next possession also ended poorly. After Manning was sacked for an eight-yard loss, Jeff Feagles' punt was blocked by Jevon Kearse and recovered by Hugh Douglas on the Giants' 28-yard line. That set up Westbrook's one-yard touchdown run. Westbrook scored again when he caught a screen pass from McNabb and weaved his way through the Giants defense for a 34-yard score with 9:52 remaining in the fourth period. That completed a nine-play, 82-yard drive and increased Philly's lead to three touchdowns. The Giants took a 3-0 lead on Christie's 22-yard field goal with 3:26 remaining in the first period. The score capped an 87-yard drive that included Manning's 50-yard pass to Taylor. Philadelphia took a 7-3 lead on McNabb's four-yard touchdown run to the right side on the first play of the second quarter. The Giants squandered an opportunity to score in the second period. On the first play after Osi Umenyiora recovered a McNabb fumble, Manning threw a 52-yard pass to Taylor that gave the Giants a first down at the Eagles three-yard line. But on the next play, Manning's fade pass to the left side for Jeremy Shockey was intercepted by substitute defensive back Quintin Mikell. Christie's second field goal, a 31-yarder with 9:08 remaining in the second period, pulled the Giants to within 7-6 at halftime. Notes: The 21-point margin of defeat was the Giants' largest in a home game since a 50-21 loss to the Redskins on Sept. 19, 1999... The Giants and Eagles continued their tradition of series sweeps. In the 20 season series from 1985-2004, 18 have ended in sweeps. The teams split their season series in 1990 and 2002. The Giants swept in 1985, '86, '87, '93, '94, '97, '98, '99 and 2000 (plus a playoff game). Philadelphia won both games in 1988, '89, '91, '92, '95, '96, 2001, '03 and '04...The Giants completed only six passes, their lowest total since they had five completions in a 23-10 victory over Seattle on Oct. 25, 1992...Taylor became the first Giants receiver to have two receptions of at least 50 yards in the same game since Dec. 5, 1999, when Amani Toomer had two against the Jets... The Giants failed to score a touchdown since a 19-3 loss in Dallas on Dec. 21, 2003.

Game 12
At Landover, Dec. 5, 2004

Very little went right for the Giants in their 31-7 loss to the Washington Redskins at FedEx Field. Washington enjoyed huge advantages in total yards (379-145), rushing yards (211-38), first downs (27-7) and time of possession (40:29-19:31). The Redskins had two touchdown drives of more than 90 yards. Tiki Barber was held to a season-low 38 rushing yards and did not catch a pass for the first time since Sept. 12, 1999. Eli Manning completed 12 of 25 passes for 113 yards, including a 48-yarder to Amani Toomer with 2:22 remaining in the game. Redskins quarterback Patrick Ramsey completed 19 of 22 passes and threw three touchdown passes, one each to Clinton Portis. Robert Royal and Chris Cooley, Portis rushed for 148 yards – or three more yards than the Giants' total offensive output – and a score and John Hall kicked a field goal for the Redskins. The Giants scored on a 92-yard kickoff return by rookie running back Derrick Ward. Portis' one-yard run midway through the first quarter gave the Redskins a 7-0 lead. The score capped a 13-play, 93-yard drive on which Washington never faced a third-down situation. The Redskins made it 14-0 with 4:44 remaining in the quarter when Ramsey threw a four-yard shuttle pass to Portis. The score capped the Redskins' second long drive of the game, a 91-yard, 10-play march. The Giants went three-and-out on their next possession and to make matters worse, Jeff Feagles' punt was blocked by Walt Harris. It was the second game in a row a Feagles punt was blocked. Harris broke through the left side and got his hand on the ball, giving Washington the ball on the Giants' 31-yard line. The Redskins needed just five plays to travel the distance as Ramsey threw his second touchdown pass, a nine-yarder to Royal. Ramsey rolled to his right and fired the ball to Royal, who had established position in the end zone. The 21-0 halftime deficit was the largest the Giants faced after two periods since Nov. 19, 2000, when they trailed Detroit by the same score. In the half, the Redskins enjoyed advantages of 217-57 in total yards, 119-19 in rushing yards and 17-3 in first downs. Hall's 43-yard field goal late in the third period put the Redskins up, 24-0. The Giants got on the board when Ward returned Hall's kickoff 92 yards for a touchdown with 5:25 remaining in the third period. It was the first Giants regular-season kickoff return for a touchdown in 60 regular season games (plus one playoff game). The Giants had last scored on a regular season kickoff on Dec. 23, 2000, when Jason Sehorn picked up an attempted onside kick and returned it 39 yards for a score. The Giants won that game, 28-25, against Tom Coughlin's Jacksonville Jaguars. Ron Dixon returned two kickoffs for touchdowns in the 2000 postseason, one against Philadelphia in an NFC Divisional Playoff Game and the other for the Giants' only points versus Baltimore in Super Bowl XXXV. With 11:42 remaining in the fourth quarter, the Redskins added another touchdown when Ramsey and Cooley hooked up for a six-yard scoring pass. Notes: The 24-point defeat was their worst in Washington since a 27-0 loss on Sept. 17, 1979…The Giants gained 145 yards, their lowest total since they had 107 yards in a 17-13 victory at Tampa Bay on Sept. 12, 1999…The Giants' time of possession of 19:31 was their lowest since they owned the ball for just 17:14 in a 28-14 loss at Tennessee on Oct. 10, 2000… For just the second time in his 17-year career and the first time since 1990, Feagles had two punts blocked in the same season. His kicks have been blocked 11 times in his career… The Giants had seven first downs, their lowest total since they had four in the season-opening victory at Tampa Bay in 1999.

Game 13,
At Baltimore, Dec. 12, 2004

The Giants continue to reside on skidding row. Undermanned on defense and ineffective on offense, the Giants suffered their sixth consecutive defeat, 37-14, to the Baltimore Ravens in M&T Bank Stadium. Kyle Boller threw a career-high four touchdown passes, two to rookie wide receiver Clarence Moore and two to tight end Todd Heap. Matt Stover kicked field goals of 46, 44 and 27 yards. The Giants played without four defensive starters. Ends Michael Strahan and Keith Washington are on injured reserve, and tackle Norman Hand (groin) and Gibril Wilson (burner) missed the game. Weakside linebacker Barrett Green re-injured his knee early in the first period and did not return. Green's replacement, Nick Greisen, re-injured his ankle in the third quarter and was replaced by rookie Jim Maxwell. The Giants' offense sputtered as Eli Manning completed only four of 18 passes for 27 yards and had a 0.0 quarterback rating. Manning was replaced with 6:07 remaining in the game by Kurt Warner, the former starter. Warner led the Giants on a 78-yard drive that ended with Tiki Barber's one-yard touchdown run. Defensive end Osi Umenyiora scored the Giants' other touchdown, on a 50-yard fumble return in the second quarter. The Giants turned the ball over six times – four fumbles (the first two of the season lost by Barber, one by Manning, one by Derrick Ward on the opening kickoff) and two Manning interceptions, which led to 20 Baltimore points. The Giants were out-gained, 353-196, including 169-51 on the ground, had less than half as many first downs as Baltimore (23-11) and owned the ball for only 20:19. Baltimore took possession at the Giants' 27-yard line after Ward's early fumble was recovered by Edgerton Hartwell. The Ravens capitalized with Boller's 12-yard touchdown pass to Moore. The Giants didn't hold the ball for long as Barber's fumble set up Stover's first field goal. Baltimore increased its lead to 17-0 on Boller's six-yard touchdown pass to Heap with 7:05 remaining in the second period. The Giants had closed the gap to 17-7 with 2:43 remaining in the half when Umenyiora picked up a Boller fumble and raced 50 yards for his first career touchdown. But the Giants couldn't sustain the momentum, Baltimore scored 10 points in the final 21 seconds of the half to take a 27-7 lead into the locker room. Boller's third touchdown pass of the half and second to Moore, extended the Ravens' lead to 20-7. After the kickoff, the Giants took possession at their own 33-yard line with 14 seconds to play. A Manning pass was intercepted by Ed Reed, who ran for six yards, then lateraled to Deion Sanders, who gained an additional 16 yards. That gave Baltimore the ball on the Giants' 26-yard line with three seconds remaining. Stover immediately kicked a 44-yard field goal for the 20-point halftime lead. The Ravens tacked on 10 third-quarter points before Warner led a late drive that ended with Barber's one-yard touchdown. Notes: The Giants lost three consecutive games by at least 21 points apiece for the first time since Sept. 22 – Oct. 5, 1980, when they fell to Philadelphia (35-3), the Rams (28-7) and Dallas (24-3)...Amani Toomer gained 53 yards on two receptions to increase his career yardage total to 7,044. He is the first Giants player in history with 7,000 receiving yards. No one else has 6,000. Frank Gifford is second on the franchise's receptions yardage list with 5,435...Rookies Reggie Torbor and James Maxwell each recorded the first sack of their careers. Torbor's 16-yard sack of Boller resulted in the forced fumble that Umenyiora returned for the Giants' first touchdown...The Giants fell to 0-3 against the Ravens – 0-2 in the regular season, plus a loss in Super Bowl XXXV.

Game 14
STEELERS 33, GIANTS 30
At East Rutherford, Dec. 18, 2004

Despite being heavy underdogs, the Giants gave the Pittsburgh Steelers – who would finish with an NFL-best 15-1 regular season record – all they could handle before falling, 33-30. Eli Manning completed 16 of 23 passes for 182 yards and threw touchdowns to Jeremy Shockey and Marcellus Rivers. Tiki Barber ran in for another score, Willie Ponder returned the opening kickoff 91 yards and Steve Christie kicked a field goal for the Giants. Pittsburgh's Antwaan Randle El threw one touchdown pass and caught another, Jerome Bettis rushed for 140 yards and a touchdown and Jeff Reed kicked four field goals for Pittsburgh. Hines Ward nine catches for 134 yards) and Randle El (five for 149 yards) were Ben Roethlisberger's favorite targets. It was a game in which six consecutive second-half possessions ended in scores. But it was the seventh possession that might have decided the game. Pittsburgh took a three-point lead when Bettis scored from a yard out with 4:47 remaining. The Giants took possession at their own 36, hoping to at least kick the tying field goal. On third-and-two, Manning threw long down the right side for Amani Toomer As he reached for the ball, Toomer was bumped by cornerback Willie Williams. Toomer fell to the ground and Williams intercepted the ball and returned it to the Pittsburgh 43-yard line (it was brought back to the 18 after Coughlin challenged the spot). The Giants thought Williams should have been penalized for pass interference. The Steelers held the ball for the final 3:19. Touchdowns by Ponder and Shockey gave the Giants a 14-10 lead after one quarter. Pittsburgh used some trickery to score its early touchdown, as Roethlisberger pitched the ball to Randle El, who flipped a shuttle pass to Verron Haynes, who scored to make it 7-7. Pittsburgh scored 10 points in the final 5:36 of the second period to take a 20-14 halftime lead. Roethlisberger's 35-yard touchdown pass to Randle El gave the Steelers their first lead at 17-14. On a third-and-13 from the Giants' 35-yard line, Randle El eluded the Giants secondary on the right side, caught the ball near the 10-yard line and stepped into the end zone. After the Giants went three-and-out, Pittsburgh took possession in its 22-yard line and drove 74 yards before Reed kicked a 21-yard field goal with 14 seconds left in the half. In the third period, Reed booted a 36-yard field goal, but the Giants countered with Marcellus Rivers' one-yard scoring pass and Christie's 22-yard field goal, which put the home team up 24-23 lead entering the final quarter. The teams traded the lead as Reed kicked a 28-yard field goal and Barber scored from a yard out. The two-point conversion attempt was no good and the Giants led, 30-26. The Steelers then drove 67 yards in seven plays and Bettis scored the winning touchdown from a yard out with 4:57 remaining. Notes: Manning was not sacked, the first time the Giants did not allow a sack since Dec. 22, 2002 at Indianapolis in a 44-27 victory... Pittsburgh did not punt, the first time in Tom Coughlin's coaching career an opponent was not forced to punt. It was the first time a Giants opponent did not punt since Oct. 14, 1990, a 24-20 Giants victory in Washington... Ponder's kickoff return touchdown was the 19th in the Giants' history, the 17th in the regular season. It was the first time the Giants returned a regular season opening kickoff for a touchdown since Dec. 4, 1966, when Clarence Childs scored on a 90-yard return at Cleveland. Ponder was the first Giant to return an opening kickoff for a score in a Giants home game. The 2004 season was the first in the 80-year history of the franchise in which the Giants returned two kickoffs for touchdowns in the same regular season.

Game 15
BENGALS 23, GIANTS 22
At Cincinnati, Dec. 26, 2004

Once again, the Giants' search for victory yielded only a new way to lose. Red zone failures, costly mistakes and an inexplicable chain of events in the game's final moments resulted in an excruciating 23-22 loss to the Bengals in Paul Brown Stadium. In the last 2:19, the Giants, in order, surrendered a 42-yard punt return, a completed pass on fourth-and-10 and a five-yard touchdown pass and squandered a final opportunity to pull out a victory by throwing an interception. And that was after five trips inside the Cincinnati 20-yard line netted just one touchdown and four field goals. Tom Coughlin called it "one of the most bizarre games I've ever seen in my life." The Giants lost their eighth consecutive game to fall to 5-10, their second straight double-digit loss season. Eli Manning completed 19 of 37 passes for 201 yards – his first 200-yard game. Tiki Barber rushed for 109 yards and scored the Giants' only touchdown, and Steve Christie kicked five field goals for the Giants. Cincinnati got two touchdown receptions from Chad Johnson, including the game-winner with 44 seconds remaining, a rushing touchdown from Rudi Johnson and a field goal by Shayne Graham. Christie's 41-yard field goal, his fourth of the game, put the Giants back in front at 19-17 with 12:38 remaining in the game. The Giants got the ball back four minutes later, when Nick Greisen forced a fumble by fullback Jeremi Johnson that was recovered by Brent Alexander and returned 29 yards to the Cincinnati 28-yard line. The Giants soon had second-and-one at the five, but muffed the opportunity to score a touchdown. Ron Dayne was stopped for no gain. Then Luke Petitgout was penalized for a false start, moving the Giants back five yards. Manning's pass for Jeremy Shockey was knocked down by Kevin Kaesviharn, and Christie came on to kick a 28-yarder, which made it 22-17. Late in the fourth quarter, Keiwan Ratliff's long punt return gave Cincinnati the ball at the Giants' 24 with 2:05 left. Three Jon Kitna incompletions left Cincinnati facing a fourth-and-10. But Kitna threw to the left side for T.J. Houshmandzadeh, who caught the ball at the five for a first down. After Kenny Watson gained a yard, a sliding Chad Johnson caught Kitna's pass in the end zone. The two-point conversion attempt failed, but the Bengals led, 23-22. Willie Ponder returned the kickoff 35 yards to the Giants' 48. A five-yard penalty put the ball on the Bengals' 47. The Giants had 36 seconds and two timeouts, plenty of time to get in position for another Christie field goal. But on first down, Manning's pass to Shockey was tipped high into the air by Robert Geathers and intercepted by another lineman, Carl Powell. The Giants led at halftime, 13-10, thanks to Barber's touchdown run and two Christie field goals. Notes: The one-point loss was the Giants' first since a 10-9 defeat to Philadelphia on Oct. 22, 2001...The Giants fell to 0-5 in Cincinnati...Christie became the first Giant to kick five field goals since Raul Allegre at Minnesota on Nov. 16, 1986...Barber increased his season rushing total to 1,429 yards, breaking his previous career best of 1,387 yards, set in 2002. It was his ninth 100-yard game of the season, breaking Joe Morris' team record, set in 1986. Barber scored his 12th rushing touchdown of the season, breaking his previous career best of 11 in 2002...Amani Toomer caught three passes to increase his season total 51, the sixth consecutive season in which he passed the 50-catch plateau... The Giants finished 3-5 on the road for the second year in a row... Cincinnati rushed for 63 yards, the lowest total for a Giants opponent since St. Louis had 40 yards on the ground on Sept. 7, 2003.

Game 16
GIANTS 28, COWBOYS 24
At East Rutherford, Jan. 2, 2005

The Giants were putting on their uniforms prior to their season finale when center Shaun O'Hara approached Tiki Barber. "Are you ready for a storybook ending?" O'Hara asked the Pro Bowl running back. Obviously, he was. Barber scored on a three-yard run up the middle with just 11 seconds remaining to give the Giants a 28-24 victory over the Dallas Cowboys in Giants Stadium. As if that wasn't enough, Barber, who earlier had set the franchise career rushing record, set a new single-season standard on the game-winning play. More importantly, the Giants ended an eight-game losing streak and finished with a 6-10 record, good enough for second place in the NFC East. The victory was also the first for Eli Manning as the Giants' starting quarterback. After Dallas had taken a 24-21 lead with 1:49 remaining, Manning led the Giants on a six-play, 66-yard drive that began with a 23-yard pass to Barber. The Giants picked up 15 more yards to the Dallas 28 when Leonardo Carson was penalized for roughing the passer. Barber ran for 10 yards and Marcellus Rivers caught a five-yard pass. Barber then gained 10 yards on a pair of runs to set up a first-and-goal from the three with 16 seconds left. The Giants called their final timeout and let Manning decide what to do. He handed the ball to Barber, who gave the Giants their latest come-from-behind win since Nov. 1, 1953, when Arnold Galiffa threw a 75-yard touchdown pass to Kyle Rote with seven seconds left to give the Giants a 23-20 victory over the Cardinals in Chicago, 23-20. Manning completed 18 of 27 passes for 144 yards and three touchdowns – to Visanthe Shiancoe, David Tyree and Barber. The running back had one of the most memorable games of his extraordinary career. He rushed for 95 yards, caught three passes for 21 yards, scored two touchdowns and set three significant franchise records. Barber set a single-season rushing records with 1,518 yards, two more than Joe Morris had in 1986. Barber increased his career rushing total to 6,927 yards, which tops Rodney Hampton's old standard of 6,897 yards. And Barber finished the season with an NFL-best 2,096 yards from scrimmage, which is also a new Giants record. The old mark of 2,085 yards was set by Barber in 2000. The Giants won despite being severely undermanned. Their top two receivers, tight end Jeremy Shockey (back) and wide receiver Amani Toomer (hamstring) did not suit up. Their defensive line was so depleted, the starting tackles were Davern Williams and Damane Duckett, players who joined the roster just over a month ago and had hardly played. Offensive lineman Morgan Pears, who was promoted to the active roster on Christmas Day, played on the defensive line in goal-line situations. Despite that, the Giants outscored Dallas in the fourth quarter, 21-8. Notes: The Giants trailed at the end of the third quarter, 16-7. They had lost their previous 16 games in which they trailed entering the fourth quarter. The Giants' most recent victory in a game in which they were behind after three periods was on Oct. 26, 2003 at Minnesota, when a 17-16 deficit became a 29-17 win... David Diehl became the first Giant since the introduction of the 16-game schedule in 1978 to start all 32 games in his first two seasons. Diehl started 16 games at right guard as a rookie and 16 at right tackle in 2004. Diehl is one of just eight players – and two offensive linemen – who entered the league in 2003 to start every game over the previous two seasons...Barber finished the season with 15 touchdowns (13 rushing and two receiving), tying Morris for the third-highest total in team history. Morris had 21 touchdowns in 1985, and Gene Roberts had 17 in 1949.

2004 GIANTS PRESEASON REVIEW

GIANTS 34, KANSAS CITY 24
At Giants Stadium,
August 13, 2004

The first game of the Tom Coughlin era was a success, as the Giants defeated the Kansas City Chiefs, 34-24, in their preseason opener. The Giants trailed after one quarter, 14-0, and at halftime, 24-17. After a scoreless third period, they outscored the visitors in the final quarter, 17-0. Kicker Bill Gramatica started the late surge with a 26-yard field goal. Later in the quarter, linebacker Robert Peace recovered a fumble by Kansas City's Jonathan Smith at the Chiefs' 16-yard line. Two plays later, Jesse Palmer threw an 11-yard touchdown pass to David Tyree that gave the Giants a 27-24 lead. Rookie running back Chris Douglas iced the game with a 26-yard run up the middle with 1:54 remaining. But the Giants' biggest star in the game was Ron Dayne, who rushed for 118 yards on 11 carries and scored two touchdowns. The Chiefs struck quickly, as Trent Green threw a 23-yard touchdown pass to Kris Wilson and Larry Johnson scored on a 3-yard run to give Kansas City a 2-touchdown lead. After the second score, the Giants drove 62 yards in 8 plays, with Dayne scoring the touchdown on a 29-yard run early in the second quarter. After Lawrence Tynes' 27-yard field goal stretched the Chiefs' lead to 17-7, Dayne went around right end for a 67-yard score. Gramatica kicked a 42-yard field goal as time expired in the second quarter to pull the Giants to within 7 points at halftime. Eli Manning made his NFL debut in the second period and finished with 7 completions in 13 attempts for 91 yards, including a 24-yarder to JaJuan Dawson. Kurt Warner completed 3 of 7 passes for 49 yards, including a 33-yarder to Marcellus Rivers. Willie Ponder returned 4 kickoffs for 109 yards, a 27.3-yard average.

CAROLINA 27, GIANTS 20
At Bank of America Stadium,
August 19, 2004

Eli Manning started for the first time as a professional, but the Giants came up short in a 27-20 loss to the defending NFC Champion Panthers in Charlotte. Manning completed 9 of 15 passes for 117 yards before giving way to Kurt Warner, who hit 9 of 11 throws for 71 yards. Neither threw a touchdown pass and Warner threw an interception. Ron Dayne rushed for a team-high 63 yards and a touchdown and Chris Douglas scored the Giants' other touchdown. Todd France kicked a pair of field goals. Carolina's John Kasay started the scoring with a 55-yard field goal. France, subbing for the injured Bill Gramatica, responded with a 51-yarder on the Giants' first possession, a score set up by Manning's 23-yard pass to Ike Hilliard. The Panthers took a 10-3 lead late in the first quarter when Jake Delhomme threw a 7-yard touchdown pass to Muhsin Muhammad, a score set up by back-to-back passes to Steve Smith that covered 56 yards. France kicked a 42-yard field goal in the second quarter before Carolina increased its lead to 17-6 on Delhomme's 1-yard run. Dayne scored from a yard out in the third period before Kasay kicked his second long field goal, a 52-yarder, to make it 20-13. On the Giants' next possession, Warner's pass for Jamaar Taylor was intercepted by safety William Hampton, who returned it 49 yards for a touchdown that gave Carolina a 27-13 lead. Jesse Palmer took played quarterback for the rest of the game and led 2 drives, including a 15-play, 54-yard march that ended with Douglas' 1-yard touchdown run with 1:49 remaining. Palmer completed 5 of 15 passes for 65 yards. Willie Ponder caught a team-high 5 passes for 31 yards, while Amani Toomer had 4 receptions for 45 yards.

2004 GIANTS PRESEASON REVIEW

JETS 17, GIANTS 10
At Giants Stadium,
August 27, 2004

The Giants played poorly and lost their annual preseason game against the Jets, 17-10, their ninth consecutive summertime loss to the Jets. The Giants lost 2 of their 4 fumbles and were penalized 11 times for 98 yards. The first fumble was lost on the Jets' 6-yard line. One of the penalties was a false start when the Giants were trying to score on a fourth-and-1 from the Jets' 1. The offense, with starter Kurt Warner or Eli Manning at the controls, never found a rhythm. Defensively, the Giants limited the Jets to 206 yards, but the unit committed 3 penalties on the Jets' only offensive possession that resulted in a touchdown. After Warner started and completed 9 of 11 passes for 104 yards, Manning came on and hit just 4 of 14 passes for 20 yards and 2 interceptions. Tiki Barber led the Giants with 50 rushing yards and Barber, Amani Toomer and Tim Carter all caught a team-high 3 passes. The Giants took a 7-0 lead on their second possession when Ron Dayne scored on a 9-yard touchdown run up the middle. The Jets responded early in the second quarter on Doug Brien's 23-yard field goal. After a Giants punt, the Jets embarked on an 11-play, 80-yard drive that resulted in Chad Pennington's 15-yard touchdown pass to Matt Dominguez. Manning then entered the game and his first pass was intercepted by Donnie Abraham. Late in the quarter, Manning was sacked by John Abraham and fumbled. The ball was scooped up by Omare Lowe, who returned it 27 yards for a touchdown that gave the Jets a d 17-7 halftime lead. Todd France's 24-yard, third-quarter field goal accounted for all of the second-half scoring. The field goal was set up by Lance Legree's recovery of a LaMont Jordan fumble.

BALTIMORE 27, GIANTS 17
At Giants Stadium,
September 2, 2004

The Giants concluded preseason play with their third consecutive defeat, a 27-17 loss to the Baltimore Ravens. More unnerving was that most of the damage was done when the starters were in the game. But at the end of a first half in which the Giants starters got the bulk of the action, they trailed by three touchdowns after allowing 24 unanswered points. Kurt Warner, named the Giants' regular season starting quarterback 4 days before the game, completed 7 of 9 passes for 79 yards, with an interception that was returned for a touchdown. Warner was relieved by Eli Manning late in the second period. Manning completed 4 of 7 passes for 99 yards. He fumbled the ball attempting to pass, but it was recovered by the Giants. The Giants got all of their points from rookies. Jamaar Taylor scored on a 42-yard touchdown pass from Jesse Palmer, Chris Douglas rushed for a touchdown and Todd France kicked a 24-yard field goal. Taylor, the sixth-round draft choice from Texas A&M, caught 4 passes for 135 yards, including a 580yarder from Manning. Baltimore scored on a variety of plays. Kevin Johnson caught a 3-yard touchdown pass from Kyle Boller, Musa Smith ran in for a 6-yard score and Chris McAllister picked off a Warner pass and returned it 23 yards for a touchdowns. Matt Stover and Wade Richey (a 50-yarder in the fourth period) each kicked field goals for the Ravens. Douglas led the Giants with 47 rushing yards. Ron Dayne added 35 on 9 carries. France put the Giants ahead on the game's first possession. But Johnson's touchdown capped an 80-yard drive and just 1:28 later, McAllister's interception return gave the Ravens a commanding lead. Baltimore scored 10 unanswered points in the second period to take a 24-3 halftime lead.

GIANTS FOUNDER, TIM MARA

HISTORY OF THE NEW YORK GIANTS

The city of New York was introduced to professional football on the same day that the city was introduced to the New York Giants. It was a clear sunny October afternoon in 1925 when the Giants took the field to play against the Frankford Yellow Jackets. The Giants lost their home debut by the score of 14-0 to lower their record to 0-3 after opening with two losses on the road. But more importantly, the New York Giants and professional football had arrived.

Tim Mara, a bookmaker (legal at the time) and successful businessman and promoter, purchased the team for a reported $500. In an era when professional football was in the shadows of baseball, boxing and college football, and professional football teams hailed from the towns of Dayton, Rochester and Columbus, league officials believed that a team in a large market such as New York was exactly what was needed to keep pro football alive.

The Giants struggled financially through the first decade but managed to win their first title in only their third season, going 11-1-1 in 1927. With the fall of the Stock Market and the Depression that followed, the 1930s were not off to a great start. Tim Mara suffered substantial losses during the crash that threatened the existence of the Giants. With that fear in mind, Tim Mara handed control of the franchise over to his two sons, Jack Mara, who was twenty-two, and Wellington, who was fourteen. Wellington Mara became the youngest owner of a football team and began his storied career as a major player in the Giants organization.

In 1934 the Giants beat the Chicago Bears, 30-13, in nine-degree temperatures at the Polo Grounds in a game that has become famous as the "Sneakers Game." With the Giants trailing 10-3 at the half, head coach Steve Owen provided his squad with basketball shoes to increase traction on the icy turf. The team responded with four touchdowns in the second half to turn the game into a Giants rout.

If there ever were a time for the National Football League and the New York Giants to fold, it would have come during the years of World War II. The NFL decided to continue during the war despite losing players to military service. Many of the players that stayed behind were older players that were past their prime. Low attendance forced some teams to fold and other teams like the Philadelphia Eagles and the Pittsburgh Steelers to merge into one team. Fortunately, the New York Giants were able to survive the war years and managed to reach three NFL championship games during the 1940s.

The 1950s were filled with Giants players that would become household names and help bring football to a playing field equal to other spectator sports. With the growing interest in professional football, the Giants continued to make strides to attract the most talented players from the college level. By the time the decade was over, Kyle Rote, Eddie Price, Rosie Brown, Frank Gifford, Sam Huff and Tom Landry would send the Giants and professional football into a new era.

The 1960s marked a decade of change for the Giants. Since they were founded in 1925, the Giants had been a talented team filled with success. The 1960s marked a turning point for our country as well as the Giants. After reaching the title games of 1961, 1962, and 1963 the Giants were hit with injuries and a series of retirements to key players that sent the team through a period of mediocrity.

The Giants in the 1970s could best be described as a team in transition. The team called four different stadiums home, played in three different states, and did not play in one postseason game. Teams like the Green Bay Packers, Chicago Bears, and Giants, so strong in the NFL's formative years, gave way to new powers like Dallas, Pittsburgh and Minnesota.

The Giants ended almost two decades of losing with one of their most prosperous decades in the 1980s. After finishing in last place or next-to-last eight times in the 1970s, the Giants appeared in three wild card games and won two NFC East division titles. Through the draft and key trades, the Giants slowly built a winning program.

HISTORY OF THE NEW YORK GIANTS

By 1986 the championship pieces fit together and the team was back on top with their first Super Bowl appearance and their first world championship since 1956.

The Giants were back on top of the NFL in 1990, winning their second Super Bowl in a dramatic 20-19 win over the Buffalo Bills. The next two years were filled with coaching changes, quarterback controversies, and a step back into the middle of the pack of the National Football League.

In February, 1991, less than a month after winning their second Super Bowl, it was announced that after 66 years of ownership by the Mara family, a 50% interest in the club had been sold to Preston Robert Tisch by Tim Mara. A native of New York City and a lifelong Giants fan, Tisch is one of the country's most successful businessmen.

Dan Reeves was hired as coach before the start of the 1993 season, and he helped bring the Giants back into Super Bowl contention. The Giants finished their first season under Reeves tied with the Detroit Lions for the best turnaround in football, going from 6-10 to 11-5. Reeves was named the NFL Coach of the Year by the Associated Press and others for his efforts.

On January 15, 1997, a new chapter in Giants history began when Jim Fassel was named the 15th head coach. In the first season under Fassel's leadership, the Giants captured the NFC East Championship with a 10-5-1 record. The Giants finished the 1997 season with a 7-0-1 Division record to become the first team ever to go undefeated in NFC East Division play. The Giants fell short of a playoff berth in 1998 after overcoming a 3-7 start to finish with an 8-8 record. The Giants were 7-9 in 2000.

In 2000, the Giants returned to the upper echelon of the NFL. They won the NFC East title and earned home field advantage throughout the playoffs with a 12-4 regular season record. The Giants then beat Philadelphia in the divisional playoffs and routed Minnesota, 41-0, in the NFC Championship Game to advance to the Super Bowl for the third time. But they failed to win the game for the first time, falling to the Baltimore Ravens.

The Giants slipped to 7-9 in 2001, losing their last two games to fall out of playoff contention. In 2002, the Giants won their final four regular season games, including an overtime thriller in the regular season finale against Philadelphia, to clinch a wild card playoff berth. In the third period of the post-season game in San Francisco, the Giants led the 49ers, 38-14. But San Francisco rallied for a 39-38 victory.

Because of their impressive stretch run, the Giants began the 2003 season with high hopes. At midseason, they were in the thick of the playoff race with a 4-4 record. But a second-half collapse against Atlanta set the tone for an eight-game, season-ending losing streak. With two games remaining, the Giants announced that Fassel would not return. On Jan. 6, 2004, Tom Coughlin, a highly-successful head coach at Boston College and with the Jacksonville Jaguars, and a former Giants assistant, was hired as the 16th head coach in Giants history.

WHY GIANTS?

Owner Tim Mara "borrowed" the Giants' name from the city's Major League Baseball team of the same name. This was not unusual among early day pro football franchises. At one time or another there were NFL franchises named the New York Yankees, Brooklyn Dodgers, Cleveland Indians, Cincinnati Reds, and Detroit Tigers.

HISTORY OF THE GIANTS YEAR-BY-YEAR

Tim Mara purchased a National Football League franchise for New York for $500. Bob Folwell was named head coach and all-time great Jim Thorpe was signed. Thorpe was later released by the team after the third game of the season. The Giants played their first game at the Polo Grounds, losing to the Frankford Yellow Jackets, 14-0. Later that season, more than 70,000 jammed the Polo Grounds to see the Giants play Red Grange and the Chicago Bears. The Giants went 8-4 in their first season.

1926
Bob Folwell left and was replaced by Dr. Joseph Alexander as head coach. Despite an 8-4-1 record in 1926, Tim Mara lost $40,000. After the season concluded, the seventh place Giants faced the American Football League champion Philadelphia Quakers. The Giants won convincingly, 31-0.

1927
Earl Potteiger replaced Dr. Joseph Alexander in 1927 and the Giants won their first title with an 11-1-1 record. (Note: until the NFL's playoff system was established in 1933, the team with the league's best record was awarded the championship title.) In the 13-game season the Giants defense posted ten shutouts and allowed only 20 points all year.

1928
After a dismal 4-7-2 season in 1928, Tim Mara decided it was best to clean house. Head coach Earl Potteiger and eighteen players were not asked to return for the following season. Tackle Steve Owen would be the only returning starter from that season. It still ranks as one of the most massive turnovers in football history.

1929
Before the season began, Tim Mara purchased a struggling Detroit Wolverines franchise in order to obtain the rights to quarterback Benny Friedman and the best of the Detroit players for the Giants. LeRoy Andrews became the new head coach. The 13-1-1 Giants averaged 25,000 fans, turned a small profit and narrowly lost the NFL title to the Green Bay Packers, who finished 12-0-1.

1930
For the second consecutive season the Green Bay Packers edged out the Giants for the title. Ownership of the club was turned over to Jack and Wellington Mara, the two sons of the founder. On December 14, the Giants played a team of former Notre Dame All-Stars coached by the legendary Knute Rockne. Fifty-five thousand fans turned out at the Polo Grounds to see the Giants win the contest, 22-0. The proceeds of $115,153 went to the New York Unemployment Fund to help those suffering due to the Great Depression.

1931
After an All-American season at Washington State, center Mel Hein wrote to three NFL teams offering his service. The Giants bid the most at $150 per game and Hein was signed to a contract. Former tackle Steve Owen was named head coach. The Giants finished in 5th place with a 7-6-1 record.

1932
Considered a rebuilding year, the Giants finished the season with a 4-6-2 record. On November 20, the Giants faced the defending champion Green Bay Packers. Expected to be an easy win for the undefeated Packers, 8-0-1 at the time, the Giants displayed promise for the future with a hard- fought, 6-0, victory. End Ray Flaherty became the NFL's first official pass-reception champion with 21 catches.

1933
The Giants won the Eastern Division of the newly-divided NFL with an impressive 11-3 record. 1933 was also the year the NFL established a new playoff system and in the league's first championship game, the Giants lost to the Western Division champion Chicago Bears, 23-21, at Wrigley Field in Chicago.

1934
In what is now known as the "Sneakers Game," the Giants defeated the Chicago Bears 30-13 for the NFL title. Trailing 13-3 in the third quarter, some of the Giants players changed into basketball shoes to increase traction on the icy Polo Grounds turf. The Giants responded with a 27-point fourth quarter to capture the championship.

After beginning the season with a 4-3 record, the Giants rolled off five consecutive victories, shutting out their opponents four times, and finished with a 9-3 record and first place in the Eastern Division. The Giants advanced to their third straight NFL championship game, but lost to the Detroit Lions, 26-7, at Detroit

1936
The initial NFL draft was held in 1936, and the Giants first pick was Art Lewis, a tackle from Ohio University. The Giants finished with a 5-6-1 record, marking only the third time in the team's twelve-year history that it did not have a winning record.

1937
Seventeen rookies helped make up the 25-man roster in 1937, a season that also marked the debut of the now-familiar blue jerseys. The Giants lost to the Washington Redskins on the last day of the season and finished as a runner-up in the Eastern Division with a 6-3-2 record.

1938
A 23-17 victory over the Green Bay Packers produced the Giants third NFL title. A crowd of 48,120 fans attended the title game at the Polo Grounds in New York, a playoff record at the time. With the victory, the Giants earned the distinction of being the first NFL team to win two championship games.

1939
On January 15, the Giants defeated the Pro All-Stars, 13-10, in the first Pro Bowl held at Wrigley Field, Chicago. During the 1939 season, in front of 32,279 fans at Milwaukee State Fair Park, the Green Bay Packers avenged the 1938 loss with a 27-0 drubbing of the Giants in the NFL title game.

1940
The Giants finished third in the East with a 6-4-1 record. Midway through the season, leading rusher Tuffy Leemans was lost for the year with a back injury. Center Mel Hein was the only Giant to win All-Pro honors, accomplishing the feat for the 10th year in a row.

1941
With just 50 seconds to go in the 1941 Eastern Division championship game, the Washington Redskins held a 13-10 lead, but the Giants scored a field goal and a touchdown to win, 20-13, and advance to the NFL title game. In the wake of Pearl Harbor, only 13,341 spectators turned out to see Chicago top the Giants in the title game, 37-9.

1942
After losing many players to the service, the Giants finished with a 5-5-1 record and in third place in the Eastern Division. The Giants recorded a memorable victory in the season opener, defeating the Washington Redskins, 14-7, although they didn't have a first down, gained only one yard rushing and completed just one pass. That pass happened to go for a touchdown. The Giants also scored on an intercepted return and handed the Redskins their only defeat in their championship season.

1943
With the league down to just nine teams due to World War II, the Giants overcame a 2-2-1 start to finish with a 6-3-1 record. The Giants advanced to the Eastern Division championship game where they dropped a 28-0 decision to the Washington Redskins.

1944
Luring quarterback Arnie Herber and back Ken Strong out of retirement, the Giants scored five shutouts en route to the Eastern Division title, but lost the NFL championship game at the Polo Grounds in New York to the Green Bay Packers, 14-7.

1945
The War ended in 1945, but the Giants finished with their worst record to date. The Giants started the year off with a 34-6 win at Pittsburgh, but everything seemed to collapse after the opener. The Giants 3-6-1 record was only one game better than the last place Pittsburgh Steelers.

1946
Quarterback Frankie Filchock, an understudy to Sammy Baugh at Washington, signed with the Giants for a reported $35,000. Filchock and teammate, back Merle Hapes, were questioned about an attempt by a New York man to fix the championship game with the Chicago Bears. Hapes was suspended indefinitely for the alleged gambling involvement, but Filchock was allowed to continue playing. The Giants went on to lose the title game to Chicago, 24-14.

The Giants went from the title game in 1946 to the cellar, finishing with a 2-8-2 record, including a seven-game losing streak. Halfback Frank Reagan tied for the league lead with ten interceptions for 203 yards. Reagan also tied for the league's punting championship with 61 kicks for a 42.8 average.

1948
The Giants renovation was accelerated in 1948 when they acquired quarterback Charlie Conerly from the Washington Redskins. The franchise reached another milestone in its illustrious existence, but it had nothing to do with their 4-8 record. That season, the Giants signed their first black player, defensive back Emlen Tunnell.

1949
Giants head coach Steve Owen switched from the "A" formation to the "T," which helped the Giants improve to a 6-6 record. Allie Sherman was hired to work with quarterback Charlie Conerly. The Giants shared the Polo Grounds with another NFL team, the New York Bulldogs.

1950
The Giants and New York Bulldogs divided the players of the former All-American Football Conference Yankees. The Giants received a young defensive back from Texas, Tom Landry, and a defensive tackle from Washington, Arnie Weinmeister. The Giants finished with a surprising 10-2 record and tied for first place with the Cleveland Browns, their first season above .500 since the Eastern Division championship season of 1946. The Browns defeated the Giants, 8-3, in the American Conference playoff game.

1951
End Kyle Rote of Southern Methodist was the Giants bonus pick in the draft, but he was injured in the preseason and saw little action. The Giants finished in second place with a 9-2-1 record, behind the only team they would lose to all season, the Cleveland Browns. Fullback Eddie Price led the NFL in rushing with 971 yards.

1952
Tailback Frank Gifford of USC was drafted number one. Playing in his fifth year, Emlen Tunnell gained more yardage on kick returns and interceptions (924) than the league's leading rusher, Dan Towler (894), of the Los Angeles Rams.

1953
Tackle Roosevelt "Rosie" Brown Jr. of Morgan State, a future Hall of Famer, was the Giants 27th pick in the 1953 NFL draft. Steve Owen retired at the end of the season after 23 years as the Giants head coach. Owen was asked to keep his affiliation with the Giants as a scout in the personnel department, a position he held for one year.

1954
Former Giants end Jim Lee Howell was promoted from end coach to head coach. The Canadian Football League began a series of raids on NFL teams, signing Giants three-time Pro-Bowl defensive tackle Arnie Weinmeister, among others. In an effort to save the Giants and the NFL, Wellington Mara went out and signed the best player in the CFL, Montreal Alouettes halfback Alex Webster.

1955
On August 28, the sudden-death rule was used for the first time in a preseason game between the Giants and the Los Angeles Rams in Portland, Oregon. The Rams won, 23-17, three minutes into overtime. After opening with three straight losses, the Giants got their act together and finished with a 6-5-1 record.

1956
Defensive end Andy Robustelli was obtained from the Los Angeles Rams. The Giants switched their home games from the Polo Grounds to Yankee Stadium. A 47-7 rout of the Chicago Bears produced New York's first NFL championship since 1938. Linebacker Sam Huff, who was originally drafted as an offensive lineman but was switched to MLB when Ray Beck went down with an injury, was voted Rookie of the Year. Frank Gifford was named NFL Player of the Year and tackle Rosie Brown was named the NFL's Lineman of the Year.

The Giants were still in the running for the title in 1957 until they dropped their final three games. For the second straight season Frank Gifford finished in the top ten in both receiving (fourth) and rushing (tenth), with 588 yards receiving and 528 yards rushing. Gifford also completed four of six passes for 143 yards and two touchdowns.

1958
After completing the season at 9-3, the Giants faced a Cleveland Browns team led by running back Jim Brown in the Eastern Conference playoff game. Brown, who had gained an NFL-record 1,527 yards rushing, was held to just eight yards by the stingy New York defense as the Giants prevailed, 10-0. Advancing to the title game, the Giants lost to the Baltimore Colts, 23-17, in the first sudden death overtime in an NFL championship game. That game has been referred to as, "The Greatest Game Ever Played."

1959
On February 4, assistant offensive coach Vince Lombardi left to join the Green Bay Packers as their new head coach. On February 17, Giants co-founder Tim Mara died. The Baltimore Colts exploded for 24 points in the fourth quarter to defeat New York in the NFL title game for the second straight year.

1960

1961
The NY logo was added to the helmets for the 1961 season. Allie Sherman replaced the retired Jim Lee Howell as head coach. The Giants obtained quarterback Y.A. Tittle (San Francisco) and end Del Shofner (Los Angeles) in trades. Back Alex Webster gained 928 yards to help the Giants reach the NFL title game. With the league championship on the line, the Giants were no match for the Green Bay Packers, losing 37-0.

1962
Back Frank Gifford, who returned to the team from retirement, quarterback Y.A. Tittle, end Del Shofner and back Alex Webster led the Giants into the NFL title game against the Green Bay Packers. Held in Yankee Stadium, 64,892 fans watched as Green Bay prevailed, 16-7. Defensive end Andy Robustelli was named the NFL's top player.

1963
Quarterback Y.A. Tittle threw 36 touchdown passes and kicker Don Chandler led the league with 106 points (52-pat, 18-fg) in scoring as the Giants romped to their third straight conference title. Halfback Dick Lynch tied for the league lead with nine interceptions for 251 return yards and a record-setting three touchdowns. With Tittle injured in the second quarter, New York lost yet another bid for the league championship, dropping a 14-10 decision to the Chicago Bears.

1964
Defensive end Andy Robustelli ended his long playing career with the Giants and became a full-time defensive coach. For the first time in 17 years, the Giants finished in last place in their conference with a 2-10-2 record. Backs Alex Webster and Frank Gifford announced their retirement at the end of the season.

1965
Quarterback Y.A. Tittle announced his retirement on January 22 at Mamma Leone's restaurant in New York City. Offensive lineman Jack Stroud also retired. On June 15, Jack Mara died after serving as team president for thirty-one years. The Giants rebounded with a 7-7 record, good enough for second place in the Eastern Conference.

1966
Before the season began, tackle Rosie Brown retired after 13 years of service to the team. The Giants had their worst season to date, finishing with a 1-12-1 record. They allowed a then NFL-record 501 points. Kicker Pete Gogolak became the first American Football League player to cross to the NFL.

1967
On March 7, the Giants announced the acquisition of quarterback Fran Tarkenton from the Minnesota Vikings. To get Tarkenton, the Giants gave up their first and second-round picks in 1967, number one pick in 1968, and second-round pick in 1969. Tarkenton's 29 touchdown passes led the Giants to a 7-7 record and a second place finish in the newly named Century Division of the Eastern Conference.

Opening the season with four straight wins and concluding it with four consecutive losses, the Giants finished with a 7-7 record in Allie Sherman's last season as head coach. End Homer Jones became only the second Giant, behind end Del Shofner, to record 1,000 receiving yards or more in three successive seasons.

1969
The Giants lost, 37-14, to the New York Jets in the first of the annual preseason meetings. Former back Alex Webster replaced Allie Sherman as head coach. After losing seven games in a row, the Giants finished with three straight victories to capture second place in the Century Division with a 6-8 record.

1970
After losing their first three games, the Giants won six in a row, including an upset win over the first place Dallas Cowboys, 23-20. Heading into the final game of the season, the Giants were still in a position to make the playoffs, but they lost a home game against the Los Angeles Rams, 31-3, and were left out of the postseason with a 9-5 record. Running back Ron Johnson became the Giants first 1,000-yard rusher, totaling 1,027 yards.

1971
After a disappointing 4-10 finish in 1971, quarterback Fran Tarkenton asked for a trade. The Giants obliged and traded him back to the Minnesota Vikings for quarterback Norm Snead, two additional players and draft choices. Bob Tucker became the first tight end in Giants history to lead the league in receptions with 59 catches.

1972
Quarterback Norm Snead, obtained in the Fran Tarkenton trade, led the league in passing and the Giants finished above .500 for only the second time in nine years with an 8-6 record. On November 26, the Giants offense scored eight touchdowns against the Philadelphia Eagles, setting a Giants all time one-game scoring record. Kicker Pete Gogolak added a pair of field goals to bring the final score to 62-10.

1973
Prior to the final game of the season, head coach Alex Webster announced his retirement. New York lost the game 31-7 to the Minnesota Vikings to close out the year at 2-11-1. After two games at Yankee Stadium, the Giants played the rest of their home games at the Yale Bowl in New Haven, Connecticut.

1974
Bill Arnsparger was named the Giants ninth head coach. Quarterback Norm Snead was traded to the San Francisco 49ers. In addition, quarterback Craig Morton was obtained from the Dallas Cowboys. For the second straight season, the Giants won only two games and finished in fifth place in the NFC East with a 2-12 record.

1975
The Giants finished in fourth place in the NFC East with a 5-9 record. The team played all of its home games at Shea Stadium while they waited for Giants Stadium to open. DE George Martin made the team as an 11th round draft choice out of Oregon.

1976
Larry Csonka, the former Miami running back who had played in the World Football League, signed as a free agent. Snead was reacquired from San Francisco. The Giants moved to Giants Stadium in East Rutherford, New Jersey. Arnsparger was fired in midseason and replaced by assistant coach John McVay, who signed a long-term contract following the 3-11 season.

1977
Morton was traded to Denver. The Giants improved to a 5-9 record. McVay went with Joe Pisarcik and Jerry Golsteyn at quarterback. Csonka rushed for 100 yards on the last day of the season and finished the year with 464 yards.

1978
The Giants had a 5-3 record at the halfway point of the season but lost seven of its final eight games and finished 6-10. Punter Dave Jennings and linebackers Harry Carson and Brad Van Pelt were named to the NFC Pro Bowl team. McVay was fired in late December. Robustelli, who had been the Giants' director of operations since 1974, resigned. George Young was named general manager in January, 1979. He announced the appointment of San Diego Chargers assistant Ray Perkins as head coach.

1979
Before the season began, tragedy struck as defensive tackle Troy Archer was killed in a traffic accident on June 22. Rookie Phil Simms, a first round choice, took over at quarterback. But the Giants had another 6-10 record. Dave Jennings led the NFC with a 42.7-yard punting average.

1980

A porous defense allowed opponents to score 425 points, the second-highest total in the NFL. The Giants fell to 4-12. A highlight was a 38-35 defeat of Dallas that ended an eight-game losing streak. Dave Jennings led NFL punters with a 44.8-yard average.

1981

With the second selection in the draft. New York chose Lawrence Taylor, a linebacker from North Carolina. The Giants started slowly, going 2-3, before obtaining running back Rob Carpenter from Houston. Carpenter sparked a three-game winning streak. The Giants lost three straight to drop to 5-6. Second-year quarterback Scott Brunner replaced an injured Phil Simms and the team responded with four victories in the final five weeks, including a 13-10 overtime defeat of Dallas in the season finale that sent them into the playoffs. On December 27, the Giants defeated the Eagles 27-21 in the NFC wild card game. The season ended for New York on January 3 when it was defeated by the 49ers 38-24 in a divisional playoff game.

1982

A wild and turbulent year in which the NFL players' strike shortened the season to just nine games. The final game played before the strike pitted the Giants and Packers on a Monday night from Giants Stadium in which a power failure caused a blackout during the game. Rob Carpenter was a holdout until late November, returning to play in just the final five games. On December 15, head coach Ray Perkins resigned to accept the head coaching job at Alabama, with defensive coordinator Bill Parcells being named to replace him in 1983. The Giants then lost two straight after the Perkins' announcement, and missed the playoffs on the final day of the season with a 4-5 record. Despite the adversity, four Giants – Lawrence Taylor, Harry Carson, Mark Haynes and Dave Jennings – were named to the Pro Bowl.

1983

After breaking even in their first four games for a 2-2 record, the Giants were decimated by injuries during the rest of the year, with a total of 25 players appearing on the injured reserve list at one time or another. With players such as Harry Carson, Phil Simms and Rob Carpenter missing most of the season, and with the club leading the entire NFL in turnovers with 58 on 31 interceptions and 27 lost fumbles, the record tumbled to 3-12-1. The year was also marred by the tragic deaths of assistant coach Bob Ledbetter and former star running back Doug Kotar. Four players were nonetheless named to the Pro Bowl again—Lawrence Taylor, Harry Carson, Mark Haynes and rookie place-kicker Ali Haji-Sheikh who set an NFL record with 35 field goals.

1984

With Phil Simms enjoying his first full season at quarterback, the Giants earned the NFC wild card playoff berth, finishing with a 9-7 mark and second place in the NFC East. Simms set three single-season club records with 286 completions in 533 attempts for 4,044 yards. The Giants knocked off the Los Angeles Rams 16-13 in that wild card game, then bowed to the eventual Super Bowl champion San Francisco 49ers 21-10 in the divisional playoff. Taylor, Carson and Haynes were again named to the Pro Bowl, while head coach Bill Parcells was named NFC East Coach of the Year and five rookies—Karl Nelson, Gary Reasons, Carl Banks, Perry Williams and Bobby Johnson–were named to the All-NFL Rookie team.

1985

With a final 10-6 mark, the Giants put back-to-back winning seasons on the board for the first time in 22 years, won another trip to the playoffs and had their first home playoff game since 1962, winning 17-3 over the defending Super Bowl champion 49ers. Again, the club lost in the divisional playoffs to the eventual Super Bowl champion team, the Chicago Bears, 21-0. Five players—Lawrence Taylor, Harry Carson, Phil Simms, Joe Morris and Leonard Marshall—were named to the Pro Bowl. There were 12 team records set by this club, and 16 individual club records. Morris set a team records with 1,336 rushing yards and 21 touchdowns. Simms set club marks with 40 completions and 513 passing yards in a game. Marshall added another club mark with 15 1/2 QB sacks in a season, while rookie TE Mark Bavaro, an All-NFL Rookie team choice set a club mark with 12 receptions in one game.

The club's first Super Bowl championship, an all-time final record of 17-2, as well as a club record 12 straight victories, made this year the greatest in team history. The Giants also set a record for all-time composite margin of victory in the playoffs, outscoring three opponents 105-23, for an 82-point domination, the most ever in NFL playoff history. Phil Simms was the MVP of the 39-20 Super Bowl victory over Denver after completing a playoff record 88% of his passes (22-25). Lawrence Taylor was named the league's MVP, Joe Morris broke his own club rushing record with 1,516 yards, and eight players—Taylor, Morris, Harry Carson, Leonard Marshall, Jim Burt, Brad Benson, Mark Bavaro and Sean Landeta, were named to the Pro Bowl. Coach Bill Parcells was a unanimous NFL Coach of the Year in all the national polls, the Giants were 10-0 at home, including regular season and the two playoff games, and the team set attendance records at home and on the road.

1987
After winning the Super Bowl, the Giants dropped to a 6-9 record, thanks to an 0-5 start in a season that included a players strike and three games with replacement players. In addition, injuries sidelined 11 starters. While the Giants finished with six wins in its final ten games, it was a case of too little, too late. Despite the final record, four players—Lawrence Taylor, Carl Banks, Harry Carson and Mark Bavaro—were selected to the Pro Bowl and all four also were named to various All-NFL teams.

1988
The Giants bounced back and after splitting the first six games, engineered a 7-2 run which had them all alone in first-place in the NFC East with a 10-5 record heading into the final weekend of the season. But an upset loss to the Jets not only knocked the Giants out of first-place, but also cost them a playoff berth. The Giants 10-6 record gave them a five-year mark of 54-32 (.628), including postseason play. Those 54 victories were the most in club history for any five-year span. Joe Morris set a club record with his third 1,000-plus rushing season and Lionel Manuel had his first 1,000-yard receiving year. Morris also surpassed Alex Webster as the Giants' career rushing leader, moving past the 5,000-yard plateau. Lawrence Taylor was named to his eighth straight Pro Bowl and All-NFL designation and safety Terry Kinard was selected for his first Pro Bowl appearance.

1989
Despite the loss of several starters due to injuries, the Giants won their second NFC East championship in four years with a 12-4 record. Ottis Anderson rushed for 1,023 yards at the age of 32 as the replacement for the injured Joe Morris and rookie David Meggett set club marks with 582 punt return yards and a 12.7 average, while also accounting for 1,807 all-purpose yards. Linebacker Lawrence Taylor equaled an NFL record by being named to his ninth consecutive Pro Bowl, and also ran his league record sack total to 104. Meggett also went to the Pro Bowl and scored a TD.

1990
The Giants started the season by winning its first ten games, and eventually won the division with a 13-3 record despite losing Phil Simms late in the year. With Jeff Hostetler at the helm, the club surged through the playoffs to win their second Super Bowl title with a stirring 20-19 win over the Buffalo Bills. Seven Giant players were named to the Pro Bowl, including Lawrence Taylor for a record-setting 10th straight year. Veteran running back Ottis Anderson won Super Bowl MVP honors after rushing for 102 yards. At season's end, the Mara family's sole ownership ended when Tim Mara sold his 50% share of the club to Preston Robert Tisch, who became Chairman and Co-Chief Executive Officer. In May, 1991, head coach Bill Parcells resigned after a career mark of 85-52-1 and was succeeded by offensive coordinator Ray Handley.

1991
In Ray Handley's first year as head coach, the Giants were in contention for another playoff spot late in the year with a 7-5 record, then dropped three straight to finish at 8-8 and out of the playoffs. Jeff Hostetler became the starting quarterback, but was injured late in the season and Phil Simms finished the campaign. Simms added his 15th club record when he passed Charlie Conerly for career TD passes with 179. Rodney Hampton became the fourth back in club history to rush for 1,000 yards when he finished the year with 1,059. Center Bart Oates was named to his second consecutive Pro Bowl.

Ray Handley's team struggled through a 6–10 season as injuries to key players hurt the team. Phil Simms regained his starting quarterback spot, but was limited to starting the first four games before an elbow injury forced him to miss the rest of the season. Before his injury, Simms became just the 14th player in NFL history to surpass 30,000 passing yards. Jeff Hostetler started the next nine games before being forced to the sidelines with a concussion. In the ninth game of the season against Green Bay, Lawrence Taylor injured his Achilles tendon that placed his career in jeopardy. After announcing plans to retire following the season, Taylor re-considered and decided to re-join the Giants. RB Rodney Hampton turned in another outstanding season, rushing for 1,141 yards and earning his first trip to the Pro Bowl. After dismissing Handley, George Young hired former Denver Broncos head coach Dan Reeves to lead the team in 1993.

1993
Dan Reeves and a rejuvenated Phil Simms led the Giants to an 11-5 regular season record. The Giants finished second to Dallas in the NFC East race, a race that was decided on the final Sunday of the regular season when Dallas defeated the Giants, 16-13, in overtime at Giants Stadium. Reeves became the first Giants head coach to lead his team to the playoffs in his initial campaign since Allie Sherman in 1963. Reeves was selected as NFL Coach of the Year by several organizations, including the Associated Press, which bases its honor on voting by coaches around the league. The Giants earned a wild card berth in the playoffs and defeated the Minnesota Vikings at Giants Stadium, 17-10, in the Wild Card game. San Francisco defeated the Giants, 44-3, at Candlestick Park in an NFC divisional playoff game. Following the San Francisco game, LB Lawrence Taylor announced his retirement, capping a 13-year career that altered the nature of the game. Taylor was elected into the Pro Football Hall of Fame at the conclusion of the 1998 season.

1994
After a 3-7 start, the Giants climbed back into playoff contention with a six-game winning streak that resulted in a 9-7 record. The Giants came into Week 16 needing a victory over the World Champion Dallas Cowboys, combined with a Tampa Bay Buccaneers victory over the Green Bay Packers, to win a wild card berth. The Giants defeated Dallas, 15-10, but the season ended when the Bucs lost to the Packers, 34-19. Dave Brown won the starting quarterback job in training camp and responded by leading the team to a 9-6 record in games that he started. Rodney Hampton finished the season with 1,075 yards to become the first Giant in history to record four career 1,000-yard seasons. The 1994 season was the first in many years that the Giants roster did not include Lawrence Taylor or Phil Simms. Taylor's jersey number 56 was officially retired at halftime of the Giants-Minnesota Monday Night game on Oct. 10. Simms was released on June 15, prior to the start of training camp.

1995
The Giants concluded the 1995 season with a 5-11 record, their worst mark since 1983 when they were 3-12-1. The Giants lost seven games that were decided on the final drive of the game. In six of those games, the Giants were either tied or leading at some point in the fourth quarter. A highlight of the 1995 season was the play of Rodney Hampton, who turned in the best season of his six-year career with 1,182 yards rushing on 306 carries. Hampton became the Giants all-time leading rusher (5,989) on 10-29 at Washington on his third carry of the game, a workmanlike two-yard run for a first down. Phil Simms jersey number 11 was officially retired at halftime of the Giants-Dallas Monday Night game on Sept. 4, 1995.

For the first time since 1982-83, the Giants finished with a losing record in consecutive seasons as they closed out the 1996 campaign with a 6-10 record. Following the 23-22 defeat to New England in the season finale, the Giants dismissed head coach Dan Reeves. On January 15, the Giants hired Jim Fassel as the 15th head coach in the team's history. The Giants stood at 5-7 on December 1 after a 20-6 upset of the defending world champion Dallas Cowboys and headed into a game against the Philadelphia Eagles with a chance at the NFC playoff field. In one of the lowest moments of the year, the Giants were officially eliminated from playoff contention with a 24-0 loss to the Eagles. The Giants improved to 6-8 but dropped two consecutive home contests and secured a last place finish in the NFC East for the first time in a non-strike season since 1983. The Giants defense played solid all season, but the offense struggled, finishing last in the National Football League. The Giants ground game failed to generate a 100-yard rushing performer and averaged just 100.3 yards per game, the lowest non-strike total since the Giants had 100.3 in 1964. The Giants defense held the opposition to 10 points or less in six games and had a streak of 7.5 straight games (30 quarters) without allowing the opponent's offense a touchdown pass.

In his first season as head coach of the Giants, Jim Fassel led his team to a 10-5-1 record and the team's first NFC East Championship since the 1990 Super Bowl season. The Giants started the year with a 1-3 record before rebounding to become the 15th team in NFL history to finish in first place in their division the season after finishing in last place. The Giants finished the 1997 season with a 7-0-1 Division record to become the first team ever to go undefeated in NFC East Division play. Second-year QB Danny Kanell filled in for an injured Dave Brown and led the Giants to a victory over the Dallas Cowboys in Week Six. Kanell was eventually named the new starting quarterback and finished with a 7-2-1 record. His season was highlighted by a three-touchdown performance at Philadelphia in a key NFC East victory on December 7. The Giants defense blossomed into one of the NFL's strongest, finishing first in the league with a franchise-record 44 takeaways. The Giants defense led the league in interceptions with 27 and finished third in the NFL with 54 sacks. The season ended when the Minnesota Vikings overcame a 19-3 second half deficit to pull out a 23-22 victory at Giants Stadium in a Wild Card game. Fassel was named NFL Coach of the Year by numerous publications, including The Sporting News, which is determined by a vote of NFL coaches. Jessie Armstead set a team-record with 134 total tackles and was named a starter on the NFC Pro Bowl squad. DE Michael Strahan set a career-mark in sacks, finishing tied for third in the NFL with 14. Strahan was also named a starter for the NFC Pro Bowl squad. At the end of the season, George Young announced that he was leaving the Giants to become Vice President of Football Operations in the National Football League office. Ernie Accorsi was named the team's new General Manager.

1998

After overcoming a 3-7 start, the Giants remained in the hunt for a playoff berth until the final week and finished with an 8-8 record. The Giants won five out of their last six games, including a 20-16 victory over the previously undefeated (13-0) and eventual Super Bowl Champion Denver Broncos. Entering the final game, the Giants needed a victory over Philadelphia, combined with a Tampa Bay loss and an Arizona loss, to qualify as the third wild card participant in the NFC playoff field. The Giants beat the Eagles at Veterans Stadium, but the Buccaneers and Cardinals were victorious to spoil the Giants playoff hopes. Kent Graham replaced Danny Kanell at quarterback after the team fell to 3-7 and finished with a 5-1 record in the starting role. Gary Brown emerged as the Giants top running back, reaching the 1,000-yard mark with a career-best 1,063 yards that included six 100-yard games. Jessie Armstead and Michael Strahan were selected to represent the NFC in the Pro Bowl for the second straight season. Armstead eclipsed the 100-tackle mark for the third straight year with 101 tackles (75 solos). Strahan set a career-high with 15 sacks as he triggered a Giants defense that led the league with 54 sacks.

For the second straight year, the Giants entered the final week of the regular season with a chance to make the NFL's postseason field. The difference between the two seasons is that in 1998 the Giants won five of their last six games. In 1999, victories over the Jets and at Buffalo raised the Giants' record to 7-6; however, the Giants dropped their last three games to finish 7-9. It was the team's first losing season in three years under head coach Jim Fassel. The final blow was a 26-18 loss at Dallas, a game that followed the Giants' elimination from the playoff race with Green Bay's victory over Arizona earlier in the day. In spite of the obvious disappointment, a few bright spots emerged for the Giants in 1999. The Giants set records on offense, led by Amani Toomer, who established a team single-season record with 79 receptions (breaking Earnest Gray's record of 78 receptions set in 1983). Toomer fell 26 yards shy of the team record of 1,209 receiving yards, set by Homer Jones in 1967. Also, for the first time in the 75-year history of the team, the Giants had four receivers record over 50 receptions in a season: Toomer (79), Ike Hilliard (72), Tiki Barber (66), and Pete Mitchell (58). Jessie Armstead and Michael Strahan were selected to represent the NFC in the Pro Bowl for the third consecutive season. Armstead surpassed the 100-tackle mark for the fourth straight year with 124 tackles (97 solos) and recorded a career-high 9.0 sacks. Strahan recorded 56 tackles (41 solos) and posted 5.5 sacks. QB Kerry Collins started the final six games of the season after replacing Kent Graham in the lineup following the 10th game.

The Giants enjoyed their finest season in a decade, winning the NFC East and home-field advantage in the playoffs with a 12-4 record before defeating Philadelphia and Minnesota to advance to Super Bowl XXXV. The highlight of the season was a 41-0 victory over Minnesota in the NFC Championship game at Giants Stadium. In their first Super Bowl appearance in 10 years, the Giants lost to Baltimore, 34-7. The Giants took a seven-game winning streak into the Super Bowl, a surge that began after Jim Fassel issued his now-famous playoff guarantee on November 22. The Giants finished 7-1 in the division and 7-1 away from Giants Stadium. The seven road victories tied a franchise record set in 1930 (when three of the road games were in Newark, Staten Island and Brooklyn) and marked the first time since 1963 that the Giants lost just one game as visitors. The Giants averaged 125.6 rushing yards a game, a robust 37.5-yard gain over the 1999 average. Quarterback Kerry Collins was sacked 28 times; in 1999 Giants quarterbacks were sacked 42 times. Collins had the best season of his career, setting career highs in passes (529), completions (311), completion percentage (58.8) and touchdown passes (22). Halfback Tiki Barber set a Giants record of 2,085 all-purpose yards (1,006 rushing, 719 receiving, 332 punt returns and 28 on kickoff returns). Amani Toomer caught 78 passes (one less than the franchise record he set in 1999. Ike Hilliard led the team with a 14.3-yard average and eight touchdown catches. The defense was second in the NFL against the run (72.3 yards a game) and fifth in points allowed (15.4 per game). In 359 rushing attempts, opponents had an NFL-best two runs of longer than 20 yards. Jessie Armstead led the team with 102 tackles – his fifth consecutive season with more than a hundred tackles – and was selected to his fourth straight Pro Bowl. Defensive tackle Keith Hamilton had the best season of his nine-year career. He was a dominating run-stopper and he led the Giants with 10 sacks, an impressive feat for a tackle. Defensive end Michael Strahan had perhaps his finest all-around season and raised his sack total from 5.5 in 1999 to 9.5.

After a strong 3-1 start, the Giants lost eight of their last 12 games and finished 7-9 and in third place in the NFC East, the third time in as many tries they failed to make the playoffs a season after reaching the Super Bowl. The terrorist attacks in New York and Washington on Sept. 11 – the day after the Giants lost their Monday night opener in Denver – made the rest of season a minor footnote by comparison. After the attacks, many players reached out to victims' families, firefighters, police officers and other rescue workers and their children. Despite the disappointing record, the season included many highlights, notably Michael Strahan setting a new NFL single-season record with 22.5 sacks. Kerry Collins became the first quarterback in league history to throw every one of his team's passes in two consecutive seasons. Collins set team marks for passes (568) and completions (327). Tiki Barber accounted for 1,782 total yards, Mike Barrow set a team record with 135 tackles, Morten Andersen became the second-leading scorer in NFL history, Howard Cross set a new franchise record for games played (207), Amani Toomer caught more than 70 passes for the third season in a row, rookie Rodney Williams established a team record with a 90-yard punt against the Broncos and Jessie Armstead played in his fifth consecutive Pro Bowl (and was joined in Hawaii by Strahan and Ron Stone). Although they struggled with two three-game losing streaks, the Giants thrilled their fans with scintillating last-second victories over Dallas (in overtime), Arizona and Seattle. After the defeat in Denver – and a week off after the NFL's decision not to play the Sunday after the attacks – the Giants won three straight, against Kansas City, New Orleans and Washington. The winning streak was followed by consecutive heartbreaking 1-point losses to St. Louis and Philadelphia, and a defeat at Washington. The Giants then rebounded with victories over Dallas and Arizona before again dropping three straight, to Minnesota, Oakland and Dallas. They played their way back into playoff contention with dramatic triumphs over Arizona and Seattle, but closed the season with losses to Philadelphia and Green Bay.

An exciting and rewarding season concluded with the Giants winning their final four regular season games to finish 10-6 and in second place in the NFC East. More importantly, they earned a Wild Card berth in the NFC playoffs, where they lost a heartbreaking 39-38 game to the San Francisco 49ers. But the game did not diminish the season's many team and individual achievements. The Giants made their 26th appearance in the playoffs, tying them with the Dallas Cowboys for the most postseason appearances in NFL history. They finished the regular season ranked sixth in the NFL in total offense, with 364.1 yards a game. It was their highest ranking and most yards per game since the 1985 Giants finished fifth in total offense with 367.8 yards a game. The Giants improved to 19-5 in regular season December games under Jim Fassel. Many individuals enjoyed outstanding seasons. Kerry Collins completed 335 passes, a Giants record, and was 1st in the NFC and 4th in the NFL with 4,073 passing yards, breaking the previous team record of 4,044, set by Phil Simms in 1984. Collins completed 61.5 percent of his passes, a career-high and the third-best percentage in team history. Tiki Barber was 4th in the NFL and 1st in the NFC with 1,984 yards from scrimmage (1,387 rushing and 597 receiving). He rushed for 1,387 rushing yards, the second-highest total in team history after Joe Morris' 1,516 yards in 1986. Amani Toomer set team records with 82 receptions for 1,343 yards and established a career-high with eight touchdown catches. Pro Bowler Jeremy Shockey caught 74 passes, the fifth-highest total in Giants history, and a team record for both rookies (shattering the mark of 48 set by Bobby Johnson in 1984) and tight ends (eclipsing the 66 passes Mark Bavaro caught in 1986). Michael Strahan was selected to his 4th Pro Bowl in 5 years and from Sept. 22 through Dec. 1, he had at least a half-sack in 10 consecutive games, tying the NFL record set by Denver's Simon Fletcher in 1991 and tied by Tennessee's Jevon Kearse in 1999.

The Giants endured one of their most unpleasant seasons in recent memory, losing their last eight games to finish 4-12. The Giants were 4-4 at midseason. In Game 9, they were tied at halftime with Atlanta, 7-7. But the Falcons scored 20 unanswered second-half points to send the Giants to a defeat from which they would never recover. The Giants finished the season 1-7 at home, the first time since 1983 they won a single home game. Despite their poor record, the Giants had several individual highlights. Michael Strahan led the NFL with 18.5 sacks, the second-highest total of his career, and became the first Giant to twice lead the league in sacks. For the second consecutive year, Strahan and tight end Jeremy Shockey were the only Giants selected to the Pro Bowl. Shockey became the first Giant to be selected to the Pro Bowl in each of his first two seasons since Taylor in 1981-82. Running back Tiki Barber had team-high totals of 1,216 rushing yards (the second-highest total of his career) and 69 receptions. He became the first Giant to lead the team in both rushing and receptions since Joe Dawkins in 1974. Barber finished the season as the franchise's all-time leader in total yards (10,746) and receptions (422) and is second in rushing (5,409 yards). Amani Toomer extended his own team record with his fifth consecutive 1,000-yard season. Quarterbacks Kerry Collins and Jesse Palmer combined to throw a franchise-record 616 passes in 2003. Right guard David Diehl became the first Giants rookie to start all 16 games since Mark Bavaro in 1985. He was one of 14 NFL rookies to start all 16 games in 2003. The team announced with two games remaining that Jim Fassel would not return as head coach. Fassel was replaced by Tom Coughlin on January 6, 2004.

A new era dawned in Giants Stadium in 2004 with the arrival of Tom Coughlin as the 16th head coach in franchise history. With Coughlin at the helm, the Giants revamped their roster and entered the 80th season in the organization's history with great optimism and hope. Early in the season, the team enjoyed success, running out to records of 4-1 and 5-2. But the Giants couldn't sustain the momentum and lost eight consecutive games before winning the season finale against the Dallas Cowboys.

The Giants finished in second place in the NFC East with a 6-10 record, a two-game improvement over their 2003 mark. Despite the sub-.500 record, the Giants had several players turn in superb performances. Running back Tiki Barber set four significant team records and was selected to his first Pro Bowl, the first Giants running back so honored since Rodney Hampton in 1993. Barber finished first in the NFL with a Giants-record 2,096 yards from scrimmage. He was fifth in the league and second in the conference with a team-record 1,518 rushing yards, two more than Joe Morris' total in 1986. He set the record on a game-winning three-yard run with 11 seconds remaining in the finale against Dallas. Barber tied a career high by averaging 4.7 yards a carry, an average he also maintained in 2000. His 1,518 yards placed him second in the NFC and fifth in the NFL. Barber rushed for at least 100 yards in nine games, breaking the team's previous single-season record of eight, set by Morris in 1986. Barber finished the season with 6,927 career rushing yards, eclipsing Hampton's former team record of 6,897. Barber also has a franchise-record 474 receptions. He was second in the NFL and led the NFC with 95 first downs (77 rushing, 18 receiving). He was third among non-kickers in the NFC with 90 points (15 touchdowns, 13 rushing and two receiving). Barber had 19 plays of 20 or more yards and tied for the NFL high with five plays of 50 or more yards (three runs and two receptions). Willie Ponder's 26.9-yard average also led the league. It was the highest kickoff return average by a Giant since Leon McQuay averaged 27.6 yards in 1974. The Giants finished first in the NFL with a 25.1-yard kickoff return average, the first time since 1953 they led the NFL in that statistical category. Ponder was the first Giant to lead the NFL in average kickoff return yardage since Clarence Childs in 1964 (David Meggett led the NFC in 1990). Jeff Feagles remained one of the most consistent and reliable punters in NFL history. For the 17th consecutive season, and second with the Giants, Feagles played in all 16 games. He has played in 272 games without ever missing one, the second-longest streak in history. Minnesota defensive end Jim Marshall played in 282 straight games from 1960-79. Feagles' 74 punts increased his career total to 1,364, just three behind NFL record-holder Sean Landeta. Feagles' 23 punts inside the 20-yard line increased his NFL-record career total to 430, 56 more than runner-up Landeta. Michael Strahan's four sacks increased his career total to 118.0, the highest total among active players. Strahan is 12th on the NFL's career list. Strahan missed the final eight games of the season after undergoing surgery to repair a torn pectoral muscle. Jeremy Shockey led the Giants with 61 receptions to become the first tight end to top the team since Mark Bavaro had 55 catches in 1987. Bavaro had 55 catches that season. Shockey's team-leading six touchdown receptions were two more than he had in his first two seasons combined. Amani Toomer led the team's wide receivers with 51 catches for 747 yards. It was the sixth consecutive season Toomer had more than 50 receptions and 700 yards. Toomer is first on the team's career list with 6,813 receiving yards. David Diehl started all 16 games at right tackle after starting every game at guard as a rookie. He is the first Giant since the introduction of the 16-game schedule in 1978 to start every game in his first two seasons.

Eli Manning, the quarterback who was selected with the top pick in the 2004 draft and then acquired by the Giants in a trade, started the last seven games and improved markedly down the stretch. He finished the season with 95 completions in 197 attempts for 1,043 yards, six touchdowns and nine interceptions. Osi Umenyiora, a second-year defensive end, led the Giants with 7.0 sacks, six more than he had as a rookie. Linebacker Carlos Emmons led the team with 97 tackles (62 solo). David Tyree led the Giants with 23 special teams tackles (20 solo) and was voted as a first alternate to the Pro Bowl.

THE GIANTS STADIUMS

The Giants shared the Polo Grounds with the New York Baseball Giants from the time they entered the league in 1925 until they moved to the larger Yankee Stadium for the start of the 1956 season.

In 1973, the Giants announced plans to move to a new stadium in New Jersey for the 1976 season, and the city of New York announced that Yankee Stadium was planning a two-year renovation after the 1973 baseball season. The Giants were allowed to play their first two games of the 1973 season at Yankee Stadium before moving to a new location.

THE POLO GROUNDS (1925-1955)

YANKEE STADIUM (1956-1973)

The Giants spent the offseason searching for a place to play their games. The Giants' first choice was the Yale Bowl, but the Yale Bowl representatives turned down the team's first request because it would have meant a blackout for the local schedule due to the blackout rule. The Giants' next choice was to play at Princeton University, but they also turned down the Giants. Things were so bad that when the league announced the 1973 schedule, it didn't even say where the games would be played. In light of the Giants' problems, Commissioner Pete Rozelle, with the help from national politicians, modified the blackout rule so that the rule was only in effect if the game was not sold out in advance. With the rule change came a change of heart by the Yale Bowl representatives. It was official. The Giants would play their first two games of the 1973 season at Yankee Stadium and would play the rest of the schedule and the 1974 season at the Yale Bowl in New Haven, Connecticut.

SHEA STADIUM (1975)

After the 1974 season, it was announced that the Giants were going back to New York City to play at Shea Stadium until the opening of Giants Stadium in 1976. The Giants played the first four games of the 1976 season on the road just in case there were any delays with the opening of the new stadium. The Giants made their debut at Giants Stadium on October 10, 1976 against the Dallas Cowboys before a sellout crowd.

THE YALE BOWL (1973-1974)

GIANTS STADIUM HISTORY

After calling four different stadiums home in their first 50 years in the National Football League, the Giants moved into Giants Stadium in 1976. The idea of playing at a stadium built in the Meadowlands first attracted the Giants attention when they realized that they could provide 15,000 more seats and help meet the increasing demands of the fans without a major switch in location. Giants Stadium is only 6.9 miles from Times Square, compared to Yankee Stadium which is 6.6.

In May of 1967, a local New Jersey newspaper first proposed the idea of building a Sports Complex. The idea of the complex could not begin until a major sports franchise could be attracted to the concept. With an aging Yankee Stadium, the Giants and the Yankees became immediate targets. The original construction idea called for separate stadiums for football and baseball with convenient parking and easy highway access just miles from New York City.

In 1970, the William Cahill administration began serious efforts to lure the Giants. On August 27, 1971, the Giants signed a 30-year lease for a 75,000-seat stadium to be built by the 1975 season. The New Jersey Sports and Exposition Authority was established by an act of the state legislature on May 10, 1971 to finance, construct and administer the complex. It was also decided that the complex would include a stadium for football and a racetrack. The Authority was granted powers through legislature to lease property, borrow money, issue bonds and conduct horse racing. To finance the complex the state was authorized to issue revenue bonds backed by the state-run racetrack proceeds. The complex was built and operated with no expense to the taxpayers.

Prior to construction of the facility, the project was hit with many obstacles. First, there were legislative disputes that resulted from objections to the complex, then environmentalists were concerned about the issue of wildlife preservations and air pollution from the increase of cars. Despite these problems, the Authority pushed the project along, hiring real estate consultants, accountants, bond attorneys and brokerage firms.

In September of 1973, New Jersey Governor-elect Brendan Byrne negotiated a new lease with the Giants, and the sale of bonds began and was completed in 1974. Simultaneous construction of the racetrack and stadium began in 1972. September 1, 1976 marked the opening of the Meadowlands racetrack. The Giants made their debut in Giants Stadium on October 10, 1976 against the Dallas Cowboys before a sellout crowd.

Giants Stadium got a new look for the 2000 season when the playing surface was natural grass for the first time. The grass was grown in a series of replaceable trays, which was allowed workers to remove tray containing worn or poor grass and replacing them with a fresh tray. The trays were used for three years, through the 2002 system, but never succeeded as planned. The field was often brown and bumpy, and by the end of the 2002 season, new sod had to be installed to cover what had essentially become an unplayable field.

The 2003 season marked the debut of a new surface of FieldTurf, a state of the art synthetic grass field. FieldTurf has been installed on more than 550 sports surfaces in 25 countries in the previous three years (including NFL stadiums in Detroit and Chicago). FieldTurf looks like real grass. Under its surface is what FieldTurf calls, "a special silica sand, cryogenic rubber and Nike Grind filling." That filling includes sneakers. Drainage is said to be immediate, and the heat on the field – which was a problem with previous artificial surfaces - is supposed to be dispersed to the rubber layer below the surface.

NEW YORK GIANTS IN THE PRO FOOTBALL HALL OF FAME

BENNIE FRIEDMAN

QUARTERBACK
MICHIGAN
ENSHRINED IN 2005

Pro Career:
1927 Cleveland Bulldogs,
1928 Detroit Wolverines,
1929-1931 New York Giants,
1932-1934 Brooklyn Dodgers

Benny Friedman, a two-time All-America quarterback at Michigan, played with the Cleveland Bulldogs (1927), Detroit Wolverines (1928), New York Giants (1929-1931), and the Brooklyn Dodgers (1932-1934). When he turned pro, the college football sensation was greeted with fanfare that was exceeded only by the media attention given future Hall of Fame halfback Red Grange when he turned pro in 1925. A versatile player and field general, Friedman could run, kick, and most importantly pass the ball better than any player who preceded him and for many years better than those who followed him.

During his first four pro seasons, Friedman's play was nothing short of remarkable, earning him first-team All-NFL honors each season. Although official statistics were not kept, he is believed to have completed more than half his passes, at a time when 35 percent was considered a very good performance. From 1927 through 1930 Benny tossed 11, nine, 20, and 13 touchdown passes, leading the league each year. In 1928, he led the league in both rushing touchdowns and touchdown passes; no other player has ever accomplished that. His 20 touchdown passes in 1929, including four in one game, were both NFL records for years.

Following the 1928 season New York Giants owner Tim Mara purchased the Detroit franchise just to secure the services of Friedman. Mara's decision was based not only on the quarterback's league-leading performances, but also on his all-important gate appeal. He proved to be an asset in both categories, not only for the Giants, but for the emerging pro league as well. Although very durable, a knee injury coupled with the rigors of serving as an assistant coach at Yale, Friedman's productivity dropped in 1931. Still the player-coach managed to earn third-team All-NFL honors that year and second-team All-NFL honors in 1933.

2005 INDUCTEE

GIANTS IN THE HALL OF FAME

WELLINGTON MARA

CO-OWNER

FORDHAM ENSHRINED IN 1997

Wellington Mara, along with CB Mike Haynes, coach Don Shula and C Mike Webster, made up the four-man class of the 1997 Pro Football Hall of Fame. Mara and his father Tim, who was the founder of the Giants and a charter member of the Hall of Fame, were the first father and son to be accorded pro football's highest honor. Mara, whose entire lifetime has been dedicated to pro football, has helped the Giants produce 18 NFL/NFC divisional titles and six NFL championships during his 62-season tenure that began with his graduation from Fordham in 1937.

TIM MARA

FOUNDER

CHARTER ENSHRINEE IN 1963

Mara introduced the city of New York to pro football when he purchased the franchise for a reported $500 (others claim it was $2,500) in 1925, thus giving the National Football League a vital showcase in the nation's largest city. Mara withstood heavy financial losses his first year until the Giants were saved on the last home game of the season. Mara needed a good showing at the gate to keep the team alive. The most heralded college player of the era, Red Grange, showed up at the Polo Grounds as a Chicago Bear and helped draw a crowd of over 70,000 people to save the Giants. After seeing the crowd that formed, Mara decided that under the right circumstances, professional football could be a big success. Mara bore the brunt of the fight against the rival American Football League in 1926 and the All-American Football Conference from 1946-49. He helped build the Giants into a perennial powerhouse with three NFL and eight divisional titles. He was honored in 1963 as one of 17 charter members of the Pro Football Hall of Fame.

MORRIS (RED) BADGRO

END

SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA ENSHRINED IN 1981

Badgro joined the Giants in 1930 and played six seasons at end. He made a name for himself as a superior defender, excellent blocker and big-play receiver. Badgro helped lead the Giants to the NFL's first championship game in 1933. He scored the first touchdown in NFL Championship Game history in 1933. In the championship game, the Giants spotted the Chicago Bears a 6-0 lead on two field goals at Wrigley Field. The Giants took a 7-6 halftime lead when Badgro caught a 29-yard touchdown pass from QB Harry Newman in the second quarter. He tied for the NFL receiving title in 1934 with 16 receptions for 206 yards, including one touchdown. Badgro was named to the All-NFL team three times: 1931, 1933 and 1934. Before joining the Giants, Badgro played with the Red Grange-led New York Yankees in the American Football League (12 games in 1927 and one game in 1928). He played pro baseball for three season, the first with the Tulsa in the minor leagues and then with the St. Louis Browns for two seasons. Badgro has the distinction of being the oldest player ever to be elected into the Hall of Fame. He was 77 when he was enshrined in 1981.

GIANTS IN THE HALL OF FAME

ROOSEVELT BROWN

TACKLE
ENSHRINED IN 1975

Brown played for the Giants from 1953 through 1965 after joining the team as a 27th round draft choice, regarded as one of the greatest "sleeper" picks of all time. Brown held the starting tackle spot for 13 straight seasons. During that period, he was named to the Pro Bowl nine times and was an All-NFL eight straight seasons. In 1956, when the Giants won the championship game, Brown was named Lineman of the Year by the Associated Press. Brown was known as a big, fast blocker who could make the block downfield. He was also used along the defensive front on goal-line stands. Brown helped the Giants advance to the NFL Championship game in 1956, 1958, 1959, 1961, 1962 and 1963. After his playing career, Brown continued his Giants affiliation as a coach before being appointed as a scout, where he has served since the 1971 season. He was immediately named assistant line coach by the Giants after a phlebitis condition forced him to retire in 1966.

FRANK GIFFORD

HALFBACK, FLANKER
SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA
ENSHRINED IN 1977

Gifford played for the Giants from 1952-64, although he voluntarily retired in 1961 season due to a serious injury suffered the previous season. He was known as one of the most versatile backs in NFL history. Gifford was the first pick in the draft by the Giants in 1952 after an All-America career at Southern California. He totaled 9,862 combined yards during his career. Gifford's record includes 3,609 yards rushing, 367 receptions and 484 points. He was named to the Pro Bowl as a defensive back in 1953 and as an offensive back the following year - a first in NFL annals. Gifford played in seven Pro Bowls during his career and was named All-NFL four times and NFL Player of the Year in 1956. He holds the Giants team record with 78 touchdowns, and formerly held the marks for highest average gain (500 attempts) rushing (4.30) and most receiving yards (5,434). A real triple-threat in his halfback heyday, Gifford threw 14 touchdown passes in 60 attempts on the halfback option. He retired after the 1960 season and then decided to return in 1962 at a new position, flanker. The Giants reached the NFL Championship game five times during his career, including 1956, when they won the world championship.

MEL HEIN

CENTER
ENSHRINED IN 1963

Originally joined the Giants in 1931 and played 15 seasons for the Giants, a record of team service that is matched by only Phil Simms. He was named All-NFL eight straight years from 1933-40. Following a successful college career at Washington State, Hein wrote to three NFL clubs offering his services. The Giants bid the highest at $150 per game. Hein was a 60-minute regular for 15 years, playing in 170 games. Hein never missed a game in the National Football League or in college and high school. He took time out only in two games and was injured only once. Hein was named the League's Most Valuable Player after anchoring a line that helped guide the Giants to the 1938 World Championship with a 23-17 victory over the Green Bay Packers at the Polo Grounds.

GIANTS IN THE HALL OF FAME

CAL HUBBARD

TACKLE
ENSHRINED IN 1963

Hubbard played for the Giants from 1927-28, and then again in 1936. He was one of 17 charter enshrinees into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1963. Hubbard was named All-NFL six years in a row from 1928-33. He played for the Green Bay Packers from 1929-35 and the Pittsburgh Pirates in 1936 before returning to the Giants. He was acquired before the start of the 1927 season in order to help beef up the Giants defense. That season the Giants defense surrendered only 20 points as the Giants captured their first NFL championship. He was acquired by the Green Bay Packers in 1929 in a move that would haunt the Giants, as Hubbard led the Packers to a 12-0-1 record in 1929, edging out the 13-1-1 Giants for the league title. The Packers handed the Giants their only loss of the season by a 20-6 score.

SAM HUFF

LINEBACKER
WEST VIRGINIA
ENSHRINED IN 1982

Huff was originally drafted by the Giants in the third round in 1956 after an All-America career at West Virginia and became an immediate star as middle linebacker. He played in five Pro Bowls and was named All-NFL four years. Huff won recognition for his great individual efforts against the premier running backs of his era, Jim Brown of Cleveland, Rick Casares of Chicago and Alan Ameche of Baltimore. Huff was named Outstanding Lineman in the NFL for his play in 1959. He anchored a defense that helped the Giants reach the Championship game in 1956, 1958, 1959, 1961, 1962 and 1963. Huff was traded to the Washington Redskins before the start of the 1964 season and is currently a color analyst during Redskins radio telecasts.

TOM LANDRY

COACH
ENSHRINED IN 1990

Landry played with the Giants from 1950-55 as a defensive back and was an assistant coach with the Giants from 1954-59. The Giants 1956 Championship team not only consisted of players that would eventually find their way to the Pro Football Hall of Fame, but it also had a Hall of Fame coaching staff. Head coach Jim Lee Howell's staff had Vince Lombardi coaching the offense and Landry coaching the defense. When the Dallas Cowboys entered the league in 1960, Wellington Mara recommended that the Cowboys hire Landry as head coach. Landry coached the Cowboys from 1960 through 1988 and led Dallas to two Super Bowl victories and five NFC titles. Landry coached the Cowboys to 20 consecutive winning seasons.

ALPHONSE (TUFFY) LEEMANS

HALFBACK, FULLBACK
G. WASHINGTON/
OREGON
ENSHRINED IN 1978

Leemans played for the Giants from 1936-43. He was a second-round draft choice in the first-ever NFL draft in 1936 out of George Washington. Leemans was personally scouted by Giants co-owner Wellington Mara. Mara sent a telegram setting up a meeting with Leemans to convince him to accept a career in the NFL with the Giants. Leemans was the 1936 College Football All-Star game MVP. He led NFL rushers as a rookie in 1936 with 830 yards on 206 attempts. Leemans was named All-NFL in 1936 and 1939. An aggressive, dedicated do-everything team leader, he totaled 3,142 yards rushing, 2,324 yards passing, 442 yards receiving and threw 16 touchdown passes during his career.

GIANTS IN THE HALL OF FAME

VINCE LOMBARDI

COACH
ENSHRINED IN 1971

Lombardi was head coach of the Green Bay Packers and the Washington Redskins after spending the 1954-58 seasons as an assistant with the Giants. Behind Lomardi's leadership running the offense, the Giants captured the League Championship in 1956. In 10 years as head coach, Lombardi had a 105-36-6 record, including five NFL titles and victories in Super Bowl I and Super Bowl II. He directed the Packers to five NFL championships in seven years (1961-62 and 65-66-67), a feat without precedent or parallel in pro football history. A guard, Lombardi played his collegiate football at Fordham, where he was one of the legendary "Seven Blocks of Granite."

STEVE OWEN

COACH
ENSHRINED IN 1966

A great defensive star of the 1920s, played for the Giants from 1926-31, plus a one-game return in 1933. He captained the 1927 team that won the National Football League title and held its foes to a record-low total of 20 points. Owen coached the Giants for 23 years. He was a co-coach with Benny Friedman in 1930, then assumed the full head coaching responsibility in 1931, a position he kept until 1953. Owens had a coaching record of 153-100-17, including eight divisional and two NFL title teams. Some of his coaching innovations include the A-formation offense, the umbrella defense and the two-platoon system. Owen went to college at Phillips University in Enid, Oklahoma. After a year coaching at his alma mater following his graduation in 1921, Owen joined the Kansas City Blues in 1924. Two years later, the team changed its name to Cowboys. With the Giants, Owens was a four-time All-NFL tackle.

ANDY ROBUSTELLI

DEFENSIVE END
ARNOLD COLLEGE
ENSHRINED IN 1971

Robustelli was originally drafted by the Los Angeles Rams in 1951 and played on two Rams Championship teams. In 1956, Giants co-owner Wellington Mara orchestrated a trade for Robustelli, who provided a tremendous lift in the Giants title drive that season. Robustelli, who stayed with the Giants through the 1964 season, played on a winning team in 13 of his 14 pro seasons. During his career, he played in eight NFL title games and seven Pro Bowls. He was named All-NFL seven years, two with the Rams and five with the Giants. Was acknowledged as the field leader on a Giants defense that was largely responsible for the Giants participation in six championship games and winning the 1956 league title. He also served as a defensive player-coach. Robustelli was a durable player who missed only one game in his 14-year career.

KEN STRONG

HALFBACK
NEW YORK UNIVERSITY
ENSHRINED 1967

Strong played for the Giants from 1933-35, in 1939 and from 1944-47. He excelled in every phase of the game - blocking, running, passing, punting, placekicking and defense. At the time of his retirement, Strong was the Giants all-time leading scorer with 324 points on 13 touchdowns, 35 field goals and 141 extra points. He scored 17 points to pace the Giants to the 1934 title over the Chicago Bears in the famous "Sneakers Game." Strong scored a league-high 64 points in 1933 and was All-NFL in 1934. He began his career with the Staten Island Stapletons in 1932. After four seasons, he joined the Giants. In 1936, he began a two-year stint in the rival AFL. Strong served as a placekicking specialist only when he returned to the Giants from 1944 until 1947. He scored 479 points in his career.

GIANTS IN THE HALL OF FAME

LAWRENCE TAYLOR

LINEBACKER
NORTH CAROLINA
ENSHRINED IN 1999

Lawrence Taylor played for the Giants from 1981 through 1993 after joining the team as a first round draft pick in 1981. He finished his 13-year career as the No. 2 all-time quarterback sack leader in the NFL with 132.5. That total does not include the 9.5 he accumulated as a rookie in 1981 before the sack was an official NFL statistic. Taylor established an NFL record by appearing in 10 consecutive Pro Bowls from 1981-1990. He was named NFC's Defensive Player of the Week nine times during his career (since that recognition was initiated in 1984) and was the conference's Defensive Player of the Month twice, in October 1986, and again in September, 1989. In 1989 he was a unanimous choice to the NFL's All-1980s team. Taylor had the finest statistical season of his career in 1986 and it earned him unanimous selection as the NFL's Most Valuable Player. That year, he had a career-high 20.5 sacks, 105 total tackles, five passes defensed and two forced fumbles. As a rookie in 1981, he set the tone for his Hall of Fame career as he earned every defensive and rookie postseason honor possible.

Y.A. TITTLE

QUARTERBACK
ENSHRINED IN 1971

The Giants engineered one of the most profitable trades in their long history prior to the 1961 season when they sent guard Lou Cordileone to the San Francisco49ers for Tittle. The then 35-year old Tittle promptly led the Giants to their 12th Eastern division championship. Tittle spent 11 seasons in the NFL and two seasons in the All-American Conference before coming to the Giants. In 1962, Tittle completed 200 passes in 375 attempts for 3,224 yards. His 33 touchdowns that season set an NFL record and his seven touchdown passes against the Washington Redskins tied another league mark. Tittle had his greatest year as a pro in 1963. He led the league in passing with 221 completions in 367 attempts for 3,145 yards. His 36 touchdown passes set a Giants single-season record that still stands. All told, Tittle had 2,427 completions, 33,070 yards, 242 touchdowns and 13 games with over 300 yards passing. He was the NFL Player of the Year in 1957 when he led the 49ers to a tie for the Western title, and won the same honor again in 1961 and 1963 as he took the Giants to eastern championships. Tittle was named All-NFL in 1957, 1962 and 1963, and also played in six Pro Bowls.

EMLEN TUNNELL

DEFENSIVE BACK
TOLEDO/IOWA
ENSHRINED 1967

Tunnell was signed by the Giants as a free agent out of Iowa in 1948, and played for the team for 11 seasons. He also attended Toledo University. Ignored in the NFL draft, Tunnell walked into the Giants office and asked Tim Mara for a try-out. The Giants reached a milestone in their illustrious existence by signing Tunnell as their first black player. He holds the Giants team-records with 74 interceptions and 257 punt returns. In 1952, Tunnell gained more yards (923) on interceptions and kick returns than the NFL rushing leader did running the ball. He earned the nickname "offense on defense." Tunnell was named All-NFL four times and played in nine Pro Bowls.

ARNOLD WEINMEISTER

Weinmeister played for the Giants from 1950 through the 1953 season. He was one of the first defensive players to captivate the masses in the same manner a star running back or quarterback could. A big, extremely fast player with great ability to diagnose plays. Weinmeister began his pro career in the All-American Football Conference with the New York Yankees in 1950, and moved to the NFL during the 1950 merger. He played two ways in the AAFC, but was used exclusively on defense in the NFL.

OTHER HALL OF FAME MEMBERS WITH GIANTS EXPERIENCE

LARRY CSONKA

FULLBACK
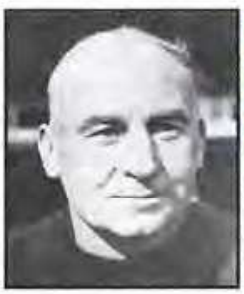
ENSHRINED IN 1987

Csonka played for the Giants from 1976-78. He was originally drafted by the Miami Dolphins in the first round in 1968. He left the Dolphins following the 1974 season and played for the Memphis Southmen of the World Football League in 1975. He returned to the Dolphins to finish his career in 1979. A five-time Pro Bowl selection, Csonka put together three consecutive 1,000-yard seasons (1971-73) as Miami advanced to the Super Bowl each year. He shined in those Super Bowls, averaging 6.3 yards a carry and going over 100 yards rushing in two of them. His career rushing totals in the NFL, which place him 19th on the league's all-time rushing list, are: 1,891 carries for 8,081 yards (4.3 average) and 64 TDs.



RAY FLAHERTY

END, COACH
GONZAGA
ENSHRINED IN 1976

Flaherty played for the Giants from 1928-29 and 1931-35 and helped the Giants advance to the NFL Championship game in 1933, 1934 and 1935. He spent the 1930 season coaching at Gonzaga. Flaherty finished with an 80-37-5 record as a coach with the Boston Redskins, Washington Redskins, New York Yankees and Chicago Hornets. He introduced the screen pass in the 1937 title game when the Washington Redskins scored a 28-21 victory over the Chicago Bears. Flaherty also played for the Los Angeles Wildcats and the New York Yankees. He suggested to coach Steve Owen that the Giants wear sneakers in the icy conditions at the Polo Grounds in the 1934 championship game, known as the "Sneakers Game."

JOE GUYON

HALFBACK
CARLISLE
ENSHRINED IN 1966

Guyon played for the Giants during the championship season in 1927. His career highlight was catching a touchdown pass that gave the Giants a win over the Bears for the 1927 NFL Championship. He also played for the Canton Bulldogs in 1920, the Cleveland Indians in 1921, Oorang Indians from 1922-23, the Rock Island Independents in 1924 and the Kansas City Cowboys from 1924-25.

WILBER (PETE) HENRY

TACKLE
ENSHRINED IN 1963

Henry played for the Giants during the championship season in 1927. He was the largest player of his time at 250 pounds. Henry was the bulwark of the Canton Bulldogs' championship lines in the 1920s. He played for the Canton Bulldogs and the Pottsville Maroons in addition to the Giants.

ARNIE HERBER

QUARTERBACK
ENSHRINED IN 1966

Herber played for the Giants in 1944 and 1945. Pro football's first great long passer, Herber was the NFL passing leader in 1932, 1934 and 1936. Herber left retirement in 1944 to lead the Giants to the NFL Eastern crown. He also played for the Green Bay Packers from 1930-40, and ranks fifth in Packers annals with 64 career touchdowns.

OTHER HALL OF FAME MEMBERS WITH GIANTS EXPERIENCE

DON MAYNARD

WIDE RECEIVER
TEXAS WESTERN
ENSHRINED IN 1987

Maynard played for the Giants in 1958. He went on to play for the New York Titans from 1960-62, the New York Jets from 1963-72 and the St. Louis Cardinals in 1973. At the time of his retirement, Maynard was the all-time leading receiver in NFL history. He caught 633 passes for 11,834 yards (18.7) and 88 touchdowns. Maynard's yardage still ranks fourth all-time and his number of catches is seventh. He had at least 50 catches and 1,000 yards in five different seasons. Maynard caught eight passes for 118 yards, including the winning touchdown, against Oakland in the AFL Championship game to help the Jets advance to Super Bowl III.

HUGH McELHENNY

HALFBACK
ENSHRINED IN 1970

McElhenny played for the Giants in 1963 and helped the Giants advance to the championship game that season. His career totals include 5,281 yards rushing and 360 points. On his first play as a professional, McElhenny scored on a 40-yard touchdown run. He also played with the San Francisco 49ers from 1952-60, the Minnesota Vikings from 1961-62 and the Detroit Lions in 1964.

FRAN TARKENTON

QUARTERBACK
ENSHRINED IN 1986

Tarkenton played for the Giants from 1967-71. Originally with the Minnesota Vikings in 1961, he moved to the Giants in 1967 and back to the Vikings in 1972 in stunning trades. He retired as the NFL's record holder for career passing yards with 47,003. An elusive scrambler, Tarkenton rushed for 3,674 yards and 32 touchdowns. A four-time All-NFL and nine-time Pro Bowl selection, he led the Vikings to Super Bowl appearances in 1973, 1974 and 1976.

JIM THORPE

HALFBACK
ENSHRINED IN 1963

Thorpe played for the Giants during their first season in 1925. He was a charter enshrinee into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1963. Thorpe was the biggest name in football at the time that the Giants signed him at the age of 37. He also played for the Canton Bulldogs, Cleveland Indians, Oorang Indians, Toledo Maroons, Rock Island Independents and the Chicago Cardinals. He was the first president of the American Professional Football Association in 1920.

GIANTS ALL-TIME ROSTER

This list is comprised of players who have been on the Giants' game-day active roster for at least one game. It does not mean they actually played in a game, but only that they were on the active roster on the day of game, even if they were inactive for that particular game. It also includes players who were on injured reserve and the physically unable to perform list and did not appear in a game.

NFC Championship
Jan. 20, 1991 at Candlestick Park (65,750)

One of the most exciting championship games in Giants history as the Big Blue blunted the Niners quest for a third straight Super Bowl on Matt Bahr's 42-yard FG at the gun... Key plays included Erik Howard's jarring tackle on Roger Craig which produced a fumble, recovered by Lawrence Taylor with just 2:36 left to play, and a 30-yard run on a fake punt by LB Gary Reasons that set up a FG to close the gap to 13-12 midway through the final period... Bahr booted an NFC championship record five FGs in the fray and DE Leonard Marshall won Defensive Player of the Week honors with four tackles, two QB sacks and two forced fumbles, with one of the sacks a hellacious hit on Joe Montana that knocked him out of the game with multiple injuries to say nothing of a classic headache.

As if the Giants' NFC title win over the 49ers was not exciting enough, this Super Bowl championship win over the Bills was every bit as thrilling and, in fact, has been called the best Super Bowl game ever... Gutsy Giants bounced back from a 12-3 deficit to take a 17-12 lead after a Super Bowl record 9:29 drive in the third period, gave up a go-ahead Bills' TD, and then won it when Matt Bahr drilled a 21-yard FG late in the game and when his counterpart, Scott Norwood of the Bills, misfired on a 47-yard attempt with four seconds left...Ottis Anderson rushed for 102 yards and won the MVP Award as the Giants also set an all-time Super Bowl record with 40:33 possession time.

1993-GIANTS 17, VIKINGS 10

NFC Wild Card Game
Jan. 9, 1994 at Giants Stadium (75,089)

It was Giants football Dan Reeves' style, as the Giants won the toss and elected to defend the east goal, taking the wind (17 mph at kickoff) in the first quarter. The Giants scored on their first possession, a PK David Treadwell 26-yard FG, but the Vikings took a 10-3 halftime lead on a Jim McMahon-to-Cris Carter 40-yard TD pass and a PK Fuad Reveiz 36-yard FG. Giants RB Rodney Hampton exploded in the third quarter, scoring on runs of 51 and 2 yards. Hampton finished the day with 161 yards on 33 carries to tie the team postseason marks in each category. The Giants defense did not allow Minnesota to run a single play inside the Giants 20-yard line all day.

NFC Divisional Playoff Game
Jan. 15, 1994 at Candlestick Park (67,143)

The '49ers ended the Giants' season in dominant fashion as SF scored on its first three possessions for a 16-0 lead. The Giants only score of the day came on a PK David Treadwell 25-yard FG in the second quarter, but the Giants trailed at the half, 23-3. After allowing just seven rushing TDs the entire regular season, the Giants defense watched SF RB Ricky Watters set an NFL postseason single-game record as he scored five rushing TDs. Watters rushed for 118 yards on 24 carries, while Giants RB Rodney Hampton rushed for just 12 yards. The game marked the end of Giants LB Lawrence Taylor's 13-year career as he announced his retirement following the game. The 44 points were the most ever allowed by the Giants in a postseason game.

1997-VIKINGS 23, GIANTS 22

NFC Wild Card Game
Dec. 27, 1997 at Giants Stadium (77,710)

In a stunning collapse, the Giants watched a nine-point lead evaporate in the final two minutes of the game as the season ended in a 23-22 loss to Minnesota. The Giants were in front, 22-13, at the two-minute warning, but the Vikings were at the Giants 49-yard line following a 26-yard punt by P Brad Maynard. Vikings QB Randall Cunningham completed a 19-yard pass to WR Cris Carter to get the Vikings to the Giants 30-yard line with 1:38 left to play, and then he completed a 30-yard touchdown pass to WR Jake Reed to close the gap to 22-20. Minnesota executed an onside kick on the ensuing kickoff that bounced off WR Chris Calloway and into the hands of Minnesota WR Chris Walsh at the Vikings 39. Faced with a third-and-four situation, Cunningham fired a slant pass to Carter, who turned the play into a 21-yard gain to the Giants 34-yard line. A pass interference call gave the Vikings a first down at the Giants 21 with 50 seconds left. Vikings RB Robert Smith ran up the middle for 16 yards to the Giants five to set up PK Eddie Murray's game-winning 24-yard field goal with 10 seconds remaining for a 23-22 Vikings lead.

NFC Divisional Playoff Game
Jan. 7, 2001 at Giants Stadium (78,765)

The Giants won their ninth consecutive game against Philadelphia without scoring an offensive touchdown, thanks to a dominant defensive performance. Rookie Ron Dixon gave the Giants an instant lead when he returned the opening kickoff 97 yards for a touchdown. The Giants increased their lead to 10-0 on Brad Daluiso's 37-yard field goal on the first play of the second period. Jason Sehorn made it 17-0 when he scored on a spectacular 32-yard interception return in which he fell to the ground while tipping the ball in the air, then jumped up and grabbed the ball before racing to the end zone. Daluiso later added a 25-yard field goal. The Giants defense held Philadelphia to 186 total yards (46 on the ground) and 11 first downs.

NFC Championship Game
Jan. 14, 2001 at Giants Stadium (79,310)

In one of the most dominant performances ever in a championship game, the Giants raced to a 34-0 halftime lead and crushed the Vikings to advance to their first Super Bowl in 10 years. The Giants rolled up 518 total yards and 31 first downs, while the defense limited Minnesota's heralded attack to 114 yards and nine first downs. Quarterback Kerry Collins played the finest game of his career, completing 28 of 39 passes for 381 yards and five touchdowns. Ike Hilliard caught 10 passes for 155 yards and two scores. Collins' 46-yard pass to Hilliard gave the Giants a 7-0 lead just four plays into the game. After the Giants recovered a Minnesota fumble on the ensuing kickoff, Collins hit Greg Comella for another score and a 14-0 lead. In the second period, Joe Jurevicius and Hilliard caught touchdown passes and Brad Daluiso kicked a pair of field goals. Amani Toomer closed out the scoring with a 7-yard touchdown reception. The Giants held the ball for the final 12:53.

2000-GIANTS 7, RAVENS 34

Super Bowl XXXV
Jan. 28, 2001 at Raymond James Stadium (71,921)

For the first time in three Super Bowl appearances the Giants came up flat and lost to the Ravens. The Giants could not get untracked against Baltimore's highly-rated defense, gaining only 152 yards (66 on the ground) and picking up 11 first downs (2 rushing). Quarterback Kerry Collins struggled, completing only 15 of 39 passes for 112 yards and four interceptions. Brad Maynard punted a Super Bowl-record 11 times for a 38.4-yard average. The Giants defense played well, limiting the Ravens to 244 yards and 13 first downs. Baltimore took a 7-0 lead in the first period on a 38-yard pass from Trent Dilfer to Brandon Stokley. Matt Stover added a 47-yard field goal in the second period for a 10-0 halftime lead. The Ravens advantage grew to 17-0 when Duane Starks intercepted a Collins pass and returned it 49 yards for a touchdown early in the third period. The Giants responded with their only touchdown of the day, on Ron Dixon's 97-yard kickoff return. But Baltimore immediately scored on the next kickoff, as Jermaine Lewis returned it 84 yards for a score and a 31-7 lead. Jamal Lewis, who rushed for 102 yards, scored on a 3-yard run and Stover kicked a 34-yard field goal in the fourth period.

2002-49ERS 39, GIANTS 38

NFC Wild Card Game
Jan. 5, 2003 at Candlestick Park (66,318)

The Giants' season ended with a shocking and heartbreaking defeat as they wasted a 38-14 third-quarter lead and fell to the 49ers. Four touchdown passes by Kerry Collins – three to Amani Toomer and one to Jeremy Shockey – a touchdown run by Tiki Barber and Matt Bryant's field goal gave the Giants what seemed to be a commanding 24-point lead with 4:27 left in the third quarter. But the 49ers mounted a quick and complete comeback. Terrell Owens caught a 26-yard touchdown pass from Jeff Garcia, who then ran 14 yards for another score. Jeff Chandler's 25-yard field goal pulled San Francisco to within 38-33. With 1:00 remaining, Garcia threw a 13-yard touchdown pass to Tai Streets. The 2-point conversion attempt failed, but the Niners had a 1-point lead. The Giants had a chance to pull the game out. After Delvin Joyce's 32-yard kickoff return, the Giants drove from their own 48-yard line to the San Francisco 23. Matt Bryant lined up for what could have been the game-winning 41-yard field goal. But Trey Junkin's snap was low and wide. Holder Matt Allen took off and threw a desperation pass toward Rich Seubert, a guard who was an eligible receiver on the play. Seubert was interfered with by Chike Okeafor, but the officials did not throw a flag and the game ended as a huge disappointment for the Giants.

CHARLIE CONERLY-1956 CHAMPIONSHIP GAME VS. BEARS

THE GIANTS IN CHAMPIONSHIP GAMES

GIANTS 13, Chicago Bears 7
Led by Steve Owen, the Giants finished with an 11-1-1 record, then stunned Red Grange, John Driscoll and the Bears 13-7 at the Polo Grounds. "It was the toughest, roughest football game I ever played in," Owen would say later. With the score tied 7-7, the Bears drove to the Giants' one-yard line, but Owen and Cal Hubbard spearheaded a goal line defense which held the Bears out of the end zone. Hinkey Haines then faked a punt from his own end zone and completed a pass to Charlie Corgan for a 58-yard gain that set up the winning score and elation for Tim Mara and the Giants.

Chicago Bears 23, GIANTS 21
Jack Manders opened the scoring for the Bears before 26,000 fans in Wrigley Field, with a 16-yard field goal in the first period that ignited 60 minutes of fireworks. Manders kicked a 40-yard field goal for a 6-0 lead in the second quarter before Harry Newman hit Red Badgro for a touchdown pass and a 7-6 Giants halftime lead. Manders' third field goal regained the lead for the Bears, but Max Krause's touchdown and the conversion by Ken Strong put the Giants back in front, 14-9. A pass from Bronko Nagurski to Bill Karr gave Chicago a 16-14 lead before Strong lateraled to Newman, who then threw a touchdown pass back to Strong for a 21-16 Giant advantage late in the game. The Bears bounced back to win, however, when Nagurski's jump pass to Bill Hewitt was lateraled to Karr for the game-winning touchdown.

GIANTS 30, Chicago Bears 13
With the temperature at nine degrees and the Polo Grounds covered with a sheet of ice, this became the famous "Sneakers Game" when Steve Owen provided his squad with basketball shoes to open the second half, when his club faced a 10-3 deficit. The Giants responded with four touchdowns which had a crowd of 35,059 roaring its approval. The Bears had a string of 33 games without a defeat entering the game, but fell behind 3-0 on a 38-yard FG by Ken Strong. A TD by Bronko Nagurski and a field goal by Jack Manders gave the Bears their halftime lead. After taking a 13-3 lead on another Manders' field goal, the Bears were swamped by a fourth-period Giant uprising which saw Ed Danowski throw a 28-yard TD pass to Ike Frankian and Ken Strong race 42 yards for another touchdown just moments later for a 17-13 lead. Danowski and Strong later scored again to turn the game into a rout.

Detroit Lions 26, GIANTS 7
With a crowd of about 15,000 looking on, the Lions took a 13-0 lead in the first period when Leroy "Ace" Gutowsky plunged over from the 5-yard line and Earl "Dutch" Clark shook loose on a 40-yard touchdown romp. The Giants closed the gap to 13-7 in the third period when Ed Danowski connected with Ken Strong for a 42-yard touchdown pass. But the Lions' defense set up two more scores in the final period with a blocked punt and an intercepted pass. Ernie Caddel scored the first on a 4-yard slant and Buddy Parker the second on a 9-yard run.

GIANTS 23, Green Bay Packers 17
The two rivals staged a thrilling game before 48,120 fans in the Polo Grounds, the largest crowd to see a championship game at that time. With the victory, the Giants became the first team to win the championship twice since the NFL split into two divisions in 1933. The Giants blocked two punts early in the game, and capitalized on both with Ward Cuff kicking a 13-yard field goal and Tuffy Leemans blasting over on a 6-yard plunge. Arnie Herber's 40-yard TD pass to Carl Mulleneaux got the Packers on the scoreboard, but Ed Danowski hit Hap Barnard for a 21-yard TD pass and a 16-7 lead. The Packers closed to 16-14 at halftime on Clark Hinkle's 1-yard TD before taking a 17-16 lead on Paul Engebretsen's third-period field goal. The Giants scored the game-winning touchdown on a 23-yard pass from Danowski passed to Hank Soar.

1939
Green Bay Packers 27, GIANTS 0
The Packers earned a measure of revenge for the previous year's defeat in a game played before 32,279 fans at Milwaukee's State Fair Grounds. Cold weather and a *Victory clinched the NFL Championship; there was no Championship game played at that time.

35-MPH wind made throwing the football a difficult exercise, but Green Bay scored quickly on a 7-yard pitch from Arnie Herber to Milt Gantenbein. Paul Engebretsen kicked a 29-yard field goal in the third period for a 10-0 lead, and the Packers wrapped it up with Joe Laws' 31-yard touchdown reception from Cecil Isbell, a 1-yard plunge by Ed Jankowski and Ernie Smith's 42-yard field goal.

Chicago Bears 37, GIANTS 9
Attendance was only 13,341 at Wrigley Field, just two weeks after Pearl Harbor Day. The Giants led 6-3 in the first period on Tuffy Leemans' 31-yard pass to George Franck. But the Bears scored on a pair of field goals, then broke the game wide open in the second half on touchdowns by Norm Standlee (two) George McAfee and Ken Kavanaugh.

Green Bay Packers 14, GIANTS 7
The Packers took a 14-0 lead at halftime before 46,016 at the Polo Grounds on touchdowns by Ted Fritsch – the first on a 2-yard plunge and the second on a 26-yard pass from Irv Comp with Don Hutson adding the conversions. Ward Cuff scored on a 1-yard plunge on the first play of the final period for the Giants, but the Packers hung on for the triumph.

Chicago Bears 24, GIANTS 14
Sid Luckman was the big man for the Bears in this win before 58,346 at the Polo Grounds. He threw a 21-yard touchdown pass to Ken Kavanaugh to open the scoring, then ran 19 yards for a score later in the game. Dante Magnani's 19-yard pass interception accounted for the third Bear score, while the Giants scored on touchdown passes from Frank Filchock to Frank Liebel and Steve Filipowicz.

GIANTS 47, Chicago Bears 7
The Giants won their first championship in 18 years by overwhelming the Bears. Fullback Mel Triplett scored early on a 17-yard run. Ben Agajanian then added a pair of field goals for a 13-0 lead. It was 34-7 at halftime after Alex Webster crashed over for a pair of touchdowns from inside the 5-yard line. Charlie Conerly threw two touchdown passes in the second half, the first a 9-yarder to Kyle Rote, the second a 14-yarder to Frank Gifford.

Baltimore Colts 23, GIANTS 17 (OT)
Because of its drama and sudden-death conclusion, this is still called The Greatest Game Ever Played. With a crowd of 64,185 on hand in Yankee Stadium, the Giants led 3-0 on a 36-yard, first-period field goal by Pat Summerall. The Colts rallied for a 14-3 halftime advantage on a 2-yard run by Alan Ameche and Johnny Unitas' 15-yard scoring pass to Raymond Berry. The Giants scored in the third period on a 1-yard plunge by Mel Triplett that was set up by an 86-yard throw from Charlie Conerly to Kyle Rote, with Webster picking up Rote's fumble. The Giants went in front 17-14 on Conerly's 15-yard touchdown pass to Gifford in the fourth period. But the Colts tied the game with seven seconds to play on Steve Myrah's 20-yard FG and won in the overtime on Ameche's 1-yard plunge, the 13th play of a Colt drive.

Baltimore Colts 31, GIANTS 16
A sellout crowd of 57,577 was on hand at Baltimore's Municipal Stadium for the big rematch of the divisional champions. The home crowd had plenty to cheer about early in the game, as Johnny Unitas hit Lenny Moore for a 59-yard touchdown pass. But the Giants surged back to stop the Colt offense. With Pat Summerall kicking three field goals (23, 27 and 22 yards), the Giants led 9-7 going into the final period. But the Colts stormed back with a furious onslaught as Unitas scored on a 4-yard run, threw a 12-yard TD pass to Jerry Richardson and Johnny Sample returned an interception for another score.

Green Bay Packers 37, GIANTS 0
With a crowd of 39,029 looking on in Green Bay, Paul Hornung paced the Packers to a stunning triumph by scoring 19 points on a touchdown, three field goals and four conversions. On leave from his Army duties in Fort Riley, Kan., Hornung scored on a 6-yard slant in the second period to break a scoreless deadlock and set off a Packer splurge which accounted for 24 points in the quarter. The Giants were unable to recover from this onslaught and suffered their first shutout loss in nine seasons. Bart Starr's touchdown pass to Ron Kramer and a pair of Hornung field goals closed out the scoring in the second half.

Green Bay Packers 16, GIANTS 7
Bitter cold weather at Yankee Stadium was no deterrent to 64,892 fans who turned out for the championship game. A trio of field goals by Packer guard Jerry Kramer (26, 29 and 30 yards) made the difference in a game where both defensive units turned in superlative jobs. The only Giant score was a result of defensive work when Erich Barnes blocked a Max McGee punt and reserve end Jim Collier fell on the ball in the end zone.

Chicago Bears 14, Giants 10
The Bears defense turned the tide in this championship game, played in 10-degree weather in Wrigley Field. After taking an early lead on Y.A. Tittle's 14-yard touchdown pass to Frank Gifford and Don Chandler's 13-yard field goal, the Giants were then victimized by five Chicago interceptions, two of which set up the Bear scores. Larry Morris swiped the first one for a return of 61 yards, while Ed O'Bradovich's steal of a screen pass set up what turned out to be the winning score. Tittle suffered a knee injury in the first half, but gallantly returned to action in the second half, though he was hampered and hobbled by his injury.

GIANTS 39, Denver Broncos 20
Led by the brilliant record-setting passing of Phil Simms, the Giants won their first Super Bowl with a 30-point second-half onslaught before 101,063 spectators at the Rose Bowl in Pasadena. Simms played the finest game ever by a Super Bowl quarterback, completing 22 of 25 passes for 268 yards and three TDs, setting an all-time NFL playoff mark by hitting 88 percent of his passes and winning the game's MVP award. Down 10-9 at halftime, the Giants rang up 24 unanswered points to take a commanding 33-10 lead in the fourth period. Simms threw touchdown pass to tight ends Zeke Mowatt and Mark Bavaro and wide receiver Phil McConkey. Linebacker Carl Banks was a star on defense with 10 solo tackles as the Giants concluded their greatest season ever with a 17-2 record.

GIANTS 20, Buffalo Bills 19
The Giants won their second Super Bowl championship before 73,813 at Tampa Stadium by battling back from a 12-3 deficit in what many consider to be the best of all Super Bowls. Ahead 20-19 in the final moments of play, the Giants prevailed when Buffalo kicker Scott Norwood missed a 47-yard field goal attempt wide right. QB Jeff Hostetler, who replaced the injured Phil Simms late in the season, completed 20-for-32 passes for 222 yards and one touchdown. Veteran running back Ottis Anderson rushed for 102 yards and a touchdown and won the MVP honors. The Giants set an all-time Super Bowl record for time of possession with 40:33 in their ball-control offensive game plan.

Baltimore Ravens, 34, GIANTS 7
The Giants lost for the first time in three Super Bowl appearances and saw their seven-game winning streak end before 71,921 fans at Raymond James Stadium in Tampa. The Giants endured a rough evening, falling behind 10-0 at halftime and 17-0 in the third period before scoring their only touchdown on Ron Dixon's 97-yard kickoff return. But the Ravens countered immediately with Jermaine Lewis' 84-yard kickoff return, which increased Baltimore's lead to 24-7. Quarterback Kerry Collins completed 15 of 39 passes for 114 yards and tied a Super Bowl record by throwing four interceptions. Tiki Barber led the Giants in rushing (49 yards) and receiving (six catches for 25 yards). The defense played well, limiting the Ravens to 244 yards.

As the result of a 57-day players' strike, the 1982 NFL regular season schedule was reduced from 16 weeks to 9. At the conclusion of the regular season, the NFL conducted a 16-team postseason Super Bowl Tournament. Eight teams from each conference were seeded 1-8 based on their records during the season.

GIANTS TRAINING CAMP
THE UNIVERSITY AT ALBANY

Established in 1844 and designated a University Center of the State University of New York in 1962, the University at Albany today is a nationally recognized public research university with a broad mission of undergraduate and graduate education, research and public service.

Approximately 17,000 students are enrolled in nine schools and colleges offering 185 undergraduate, master's and doctoral degree programs. While UAlbany's historical roots are in the liberal arts and professional teacher education, the University's research and graduate education portfolio has transformed the institution over the past three decades. The University developed strong programs in the social and behavioral sciences, in atmospheric and environmentally related sciences, in public policy, particularly in relation to research and service needs at the state and local levels of government and in management and administration, literacy, and information science and technologies. More recently, the University has been strategically building its strength in nanosciences and nanotechnology and in the life sciences. In 2001, the University established its ninth school, the School of NanoSciences and NanoEngineering, and in 2002, the University was selected as the site for an international computer chip and research development center, International SEMATECH North. All these developments have driven dramatic physical transformations across the University. In just the last six years, the University acquired a third campus, the East Campus in East Greenbush, opened its Center for Environmental Sciences and Technology Management (CESTM), built new apartment-style housing for students, opened a new sculpture studio and began construction of a new Life Sciences Research Building and a major expansion of CESTM.

The University plays a major role in the economic development of the Capital Region and New York State, particularly through CESTM and the East Campus, both places where University researchers and businesses work together. The focus of the East Campus is biotechnology and biomedical sciences, and CESTM, home to the School of NanoSciences and NanoEngineering, offers one-of-a-kind research and education in the fields of nanoelectronics, nanotechnology and advanced materials.

The University's unique character is grounded in the quality of its highly regarded faculty and national recognized programs across the arts and sciences and in the professions (business, education, criminal justice, information science, public administration, public health, and social welfare), and in the interdisciplinary and international character of much of the institution's research and curricula. (The University enrolled 923 international students during the 2000-01 academic year, setting a new record.) In addition, UAlbany is committed to being proactive in relating the research conducted by faculty and students to its various communities - local, regional, national, and global. Many of the University's initiatives and programs are supported through strategic partnerships with government and business.

UAlbany's intercollegiate athletics program for men and women competes at the NCAA Division I level. The University accepted an invitation to become a full member of the America East Conference in January 2001. Seventeen of the school's nineteen varsity teams are eligible through America East competition for conference championships and NCAA post-season play. In 2002-03, men's lacrosse captured an America East championship and secured the school's first-ever NCAA appearance, while men's track and field won the conference's indoor and outdoor team titles. Football, a Division I-AA program, has been an associate member of the Northeast Conference since 1999. The Great Danes won their first-ever NEC championship last fall and went on to beat previously undefeated Duquesne in the ECAC Football Classic.

GIANTS AROUND THE COMMUNITY

GIANTS COMMUNITY RELATIONS MISSION STATEMENT

The entire New York Football Giants organization is committed to the betterment of the lives of those, especially young people and families, who live in the New York/New Jersey metropolitan area. Since the team's inception in 1925, the Giants have a rich history of community involvement in and around New York City. The Giants Community Relations Department works as a mechanism to create and implement efficient and effective programs that work toward the organizational goal of being a productive and contributing member of the community. The Giants are appreciative of the opportunity, through an alliance with our neighbors, to give back to a community that has given so much to us.

COMMUNITY RELATIONS PROGRAMS

Memorabilia Donations

As a means of working toward our organizational goal of being a productive and contributing member of the community, the New York Giants assist over 2,000 tri-state area charities with fundraising efforts through the donation of Giants memorabilia each year. By capitalizing on the public's passion for these items, our recipients are able to generate much-needed funding to support their charitable endeavors.

Player Appearances

Our players recognize the effect they have on the people who they come in contact with. While Tuesdays are generally the only day off for our players during the season, it doesn't stop most NFL players from using the day to go to work in their communities. In fact, the volunteer rate of NFL players is so high on Tuesdays that the NFL has tagged the day as "NFL Tuesdays." On this day and several others throughout the week, members of the New York Football Giants can be found using their free time to make appearances at hospitals, schools, fundraisers, and other civic events. In addition to in-season appearances, many players reside in our community throughout the year, making them available for appearances during the off-season. This assists us in reaching more of our neighbors and community based initiatives.

The Tom Coughlin Jay Fund Foundation

was established by Coach Tom Coughlin and named in honor of Jay McGillis, a young man who played for Coughlin at Boston College and lost his battle with leukemia at the age of 21. Jay and his family set an example of courage and dignity that would forever leave its mark on those who knew him. The mission of the Tom Coughlin Jay Fund Foundation is to assist children with leukemia and other childhood cancers and their families during the course of their child's illness and to support clinical and laboratory research in leukemia and other childhood cancers that will be of benefit to these children and their families. The Jay Fund has found a need in serving families who have a child with leukemia or another form of cancer in the Jacksonville area. The foundation provides them with financial support so they may focus on the health of their children and not financial difficulties at such a stressful time. Approximately 60 children in the Jacksonville area are diagnosed with leukemia or childhood cancer every year. The Tom Coughlin Jay Fund Foundation has donated over $1 million to help these local families since it's inception in 1996. In conjunction with his hiring as head coach of the New York Football Giants in 2004, Tom Coughlin has worked to expand his foundation to provide the same support to the children of the New York metropolitan area.

GIANTS AROUND THE COMMUNITY

Giants Player Initiatives

Tiki Barber – Supports the Children's Miracle Network, through Tiki Barber's 21 Club, which raises funds through fan contributions, donations based on Tiki's performance on the field, and through the annual Tiki Barber Invitational Golf Tournament. Teams up with Michael Strahan to Co-Chair the Ronald McDonald House "Meet the Giants" fundraiser each year. This annual event is held to raise funds for the Giants Room on the Sports Floor of the Ronald McDonald House located in New York City. Is very involved with the Fresh Air Fund, where he sits on the Board of Directors. Barber is also involved with My Sister's Place, the "Giants Courage House," in Westchester, NY. Each year, he attends their annual Mall Walk and Talk, which raises awareness about domestic violence and date-abuse. Tiki and his twin brother, Ronde, served as national co-captains of the National Education Association's "Read Across America" literacy celebration, as Tiki kicked off the reading campaign by visiting Giants Academy in Newark where he read several books including the Barbers' own "By My Brother's Side." Tiki also participated in the Giants voter registration initiative by joining several of his teammates to open the NASDAQ Stock Market on Election Day as a national reminder to vote. He is a regular participant in the Giants Foundation Golf Outing. Besides these numerous commitments, Tiki also showed his dedication to the greater metropolitan area over the past several years by benefiting many worthwhile causes, including: The National Education Association's "Play It Smart" program, The Breast Cancer Research Fdtn., The Big Bam Foundation, the Autism Coalition, and the Muscular Dystrophy Association's "Muscle Team."

Michael Strahan teams up with Tiki Barber to Co-Chair the Ronald McDonald House "Meet the Giants" fundraiser, where he also serves as highly effective auctioneer. This annual event is held to raise funds for the Giants Room on the Sports Floor of the Ronald McDonald House located in New York City. Michael also serves on the Muscle Team to benefit the fight against muscular dystrophy. He supports H.E.L.P., a non-profit organization that assists people in their efforts to return to the work force. Is involved in Restore America, a program established to handle the task of restoring historical buildings and homes to their original conditions. In 2004, Strahan and General Manager, Ernie Accorsi joined executives, player representatives, and team mascots from all 12 New York/New Jersey professional sports teams for the first time to announce the formation of a united effort to bring awareness to issues that face the greater metropolitan community. The teams partnered with the National Education Association (NEA), the New Jersey Education Association (NJEA) and the National Education Association-New York (NEA-NY) to kick off Read Across America Day and celebrate Dr. Seuss's 100th birthday. Attended a Play It Smart football clinic, spending time with the student athletes enrolled in the National Football Foundation's high school personal development program that focuses on athletic and educational advancement. Golfed in the annual Giants Foundation Golf Outing. Strahan has also served as the Giants United Way Spokesman.

Amani Toomer – In 2001, Amani Toomer and his wife, Dr. Yola Dabrowski, founded the Amani Toomer Foundation, a not-for-profit organization dedicated to increasing the awareness of, and providing resources to after-school recreation programs in the New York metropolitan area. The mission of the foundation is to identify established after-school programs in these underserved communities and assist them in furthering their efforts. Through the foundation, they have constructed several new playgrounds in local under served neighborhoods. For his efforts, Toomer was named by Ameriquest as their "Neighborhood MVP." In February of 2004, Amani and his wife joined the United Nations' World Food Program along with quarterback Kurt Warner, his wife Brenda, and Tony Richardson of the Kansas City Cheifs, traveling to the tsunami-affected areas of Indonesia and Sri Lanka. During the 12-day trip, the group visited the most damaged areas, separating and delivering food rations to the affected people. Prior to departing, Toomer joined several teammates in heading up to the AmeriCares warehouse in Connecticut, where they packaged items to send for the tsunami relief effort and created a PSA that ran during the Super Bowl thanking the American public for their efforts towards the cause. Amani has also been very involved with the Giants community efforts. He participated in the Giants voter registration initiative by joining several of his teammates to open the Nasdaq Stock Market on Election Day as a national reminder to vote. He is also a regular participant in the Giants Foundation Golf Outing and the annual "Meet the Giants" event to benefit the Ronald McDonald House of New York City. Amani ran with fans in the inaugural Giants Draft Day 5K Race and served as emcee of the Giants 2004 Community Quarterback luncheon, honoring 10 local volunteers for their efforts in the community. Participated in the 2003 NFL Hometown Huddle in New York City, where the Giants, Jets and NFL donated $10,000 to create a computer center for the after-school program at Highbridge Recreation Center in Washington Heights, NYC. In 2003, Amani donated money to a kung fu program that went oversees to participate in a tournament. Amani funded the entire trip, which these children would never have been able to attend. Amani has also used his time in the past to benefit the Breast Cancer Research Foundation, the Newark YMCA, the Autism Coalition, Big BAM! Foundation. For his excellence on the field as well as his dedication to helping others, Amani was honored as the 2003 New York Giants "Walter Payton Man of the Year." He was also honored as the "2004 United Way Hometown Hero" by the United Way of New York City during their annual, "Gridiron Gala."

Carlos Emmons' 51 Ways, Inc. Foundation's mission is to support families of children that have been diagnosed with cancer and/or blood disorders. That support includes financial, spiritual and physical resources. In May 2003, Carlos and Takeo Spikes of the Buffalo Bills teamed up to form 51 Ways, Inc., named after both players jersey numbers and created a charity that provides financial support to the Children's Healthcare of Atlanta's Cancer and Blood Disorders Center. Emmons is a 9-year NFL veteran and Atlanta resident. Spikes is a 7-year Pro Bowl NFL veteran and a native of Georgia and Buffalo Children's Hospital. From this year forward Takeo will continue to support the Buffalo Children's Hospital and Carlos plans on supporting a local children's hospital in New York.

Shaun O'Hara – This New Jersey native is truly a Giant in the community. During his first season with the team O'Hara greeted fans at the Giants Draft Day Party at Giants Stadium, participated in the Giants Foundation Golf Outing and the annual "Meet the Giants" Ronald McDonald House Dinner fundraiser at Park Avenue Country Club. Served as a professor at the Giants "Football 101" educational program and participated in the NEA's "Read Across America" literacy celebration by reading to students at Barclay Brook Elementary School in Monroe Twp., NJ. Joined several teammates in heading up to the AmeriCares warehouse in Connecticut, where they packaged items to send for the tsunami relief effort and created a PSA that ran during the Super Bowl thanking the American public for their efforts towards the cause. Also used his time to benefit the 2econd Stage Theatre's "All-Star Bowling Classic," and the US Army High School Football All American" program. He was also honored by the Starlight Starbright Children's Foundation. For his outstanding commitment to the greater metropolitan community, O'Hara received the distinguished honor of being named the New York Giants "Hometown Hero" at the United Way of New York City's annual Gridiron Gala. Also participated in the Giants Player Development's Continuing Education Program.

GIANTS AROUND THE COMMUNITY

Jack Brewer – Made an immediate impact in the greater metropolitan community during his first season as a Giant. Attended the annual "Meet the Giants" Ronald McDonald House Dinner fundraiser at Park Avenue Country Club. Participated in the Giants Player Development cooking competition at ESPN Zone. Joined with fellow teammate Willie Ponder to serve as guest teachers with Teach for America at the Burnet Street School in Newark, NJ, before heading over to visit the students at Giants Academy. Participated in the Giants voter registration initiative by joining several of his teammates to open the NASDAQ Stock Market on Election Day as a national reminder to vote. Joined with fellow teammate Marcellus Rivers during the 2004 holiday season to enlist the support of numerous Giants in sending 35 kids from a local domestic violence shelter and a homeless shelter on a shopping spree at Toys R' Us Kids World in Elizabeth, NJ. He also was the keynote speaker at the United Way of New York City's Leadership Luncheon. Participated in the Harvard Business School's NFL Players Entrepreneurial Management Course.

Nick Greisen – Greisen has been a constant presence in the local community during his career with the Giants. He is a regular participant in the Ronald McDonald House Holiday Party, where he passes out presents to the kids as "St. Nick"; the annual "Meet the Giants" Ronald McDonald House fundraiser, Giants Football 101 and 201 programs for women, the Giants Foundation Golf Outing, and the Hometown Huddle with the United Way of New York City. In 2004, Greisen also visited Hoboken's IAFF local 1076 / 1078 firehouse, for the Giants "Adopt a Firehouse" program, presenting the firefighters with a plaque and a financial contribution from the team. He joined several Giants teammates, as well as several members of the New York Jets, as both teams joined together with the United Way of New York City to install a multi-purpose wood floor at the Highbridge Rec. Center in Washington Heights, NY, as part of the NFL's United Way Hometown Huddle. Visited the Dennis B. O'Brien School (Dover, NJ) to discuss the importance of education and healthy lifestyles. Served as emcee of the Giants 2004 Community Quarterback luncheon, honoring 10 local volunteers for their efforts in the community. Participated in the NEA's "Read Across America" literacy celebration by reading to students at PS 1 in West NY, NJ. Attended the NYC Police Athletic League's "Sports Nite" banquet. Took part in sending 35 kids from a local domestic violence shelter and a homeless shelter on a shopping spree at Toys R' Us Kids World in Elizabeth, NJ, during the holiday season. In the past, Nick has also used his time to benefit Habitat for Humanity, the National Football Foundation's "Play It Smart" program, and Hudson Valley Blood Services.

United Way Partnership

Combining their rich histories of active community involvement, United Way of New York City and the New York Giants and New York Jets have teamed up to drive home the importance of community involvement. Community outreach efforts include the Hometown Huddle, a an annual hands-on volunteer project with players, the Gridiron Gala, a charitable event benefiting United-Way programs for children and youth, and two charitable ticket programs -- the Jets Tix for Kids and Giants Touchdown for Teens. Created by UWNYC, the charitable ticket programs give season ticket holders the opportunity to donate game tickets and make them available to underprivileged children.

• Touchdown for Teens

Touchdown for Teens, a charitable ticket distribution program, was created by the New York Giants and United Way of New York City in 2003 to give season ticket holders an opportunity to donate their tickets to underprivileged children. This allows numerous children to experience the excitement of the NFL first-hand as many of them have never attended a professional football game.

The tickets will be distributed to at-risk students through United Way's Community

GIANTS AROUND THE COMMUNITY

Achievement Project in the Schools (CAPS) program. CAPS, one of the largest and most mature/community partnerships in the nation, provides attendance improvement and dropout prevention services to at-risk students in New York City's public schools. Through CAPS, schools, parents and community-based organizations work together to develop services that help the students to stay in school.

To donate game tickets, you can visit Giants Ticket Exchange at Giants.com or by clicking the link. Tickets are also able to be donated through mail by simply returning game tickets in the pre-addressed business reply envelopes. Be sure to include your name and address.

Season ticket holders that do not have a business reply envelope, may mail tickets to:

• Gridiron Gala

One of New York City's premier charity events, the Annual Gridiron Gala celebrates the United Way/NFL partnership -- the most visible and longest-running sports/charity partnership of its kind.

Since 1994, the Gridiron Gala has raised almost $12 million for United Way of New York City initiatives for children and youth. Each year, nearly 1,000 guests made up of the Who's Who among Corporate America and other key United Way supporters join with current stars and legends from the New York Giants and Jets to celebrate the power of community and honor some our area's most visionary and generous leaders!

• United Way Hometown Huddle

Hometown Huddle is a national "NFL Super Tuesday," where NFL players and coaches from each of the 32 teams simultaneously participate in various community service activities through local United Way partners.

The New York Giants, Jets, and United Way of New York City use the annual occasion to join hands with the NFL and the City of New York Department of Parks and Recreation (Manhattan Borough) to continue work on a long-term partnership that is bringing much-needed resources to Highbridge Recreation Center in the Washington Heights section of New York City. The goal of this ongoing relationship is to add a new service to the Center every year. This community was largely affected by the American Airlines flight 587 crash on November 12, 2001.

The three-year commitment has seen the creation of an after-school program in 2002, a brand new computer lab in 2003, and a multi-purpose hardwood floor in 2004. These new additions have made the Highbridge Recreation Center a wonderful year-round resource for the entire Washington Heights community.

Voter Registration Initiative

In 2004, the Giants embarked on a new and exciting non-partisan program focused on encouraging local residents to register to vote. The Giants efforts included three separate initiatives: a television public service announcement by All-Pro defensive end Michael Strahan that aired on network TV and in Giants Stadium on game days, a voter registration awareness day hosted at Giants Stadium when the Giants played the Cleveland Browns on September 26, 2004, and a link from Giants.com to the New Jersey Board of Election's voter registration website.

This voter registration initiative was born when a few Giant players initiated a conversation about how they could raise awareness about the importance of voting. With the help of the New Jersey Attorney General's Office and the United States Election Assistance Commission, "Join the Team – VOTE" has become a reality.

This initiative piggy-backs the Help America Vote Act of 2002 (HAVA). The legislation aims to improve the administration of elections in the United States, primarily through three means: creating a new federal agency to serve as a clearing house for election administration information, providing funds to states to improve election administration and replace outdated voting systems and creating minimum standards for states to follow in several key areas of election administration.

Stadium Donation Drives

The Giants recognize that due to the passion of our fans, we are lucky to be in a position to serve as a facilitator to address several needs that go unfulfilled in the greater Metropolitan area. To this end, the team designates several games throughout the season as days to host various drives. Among the past stadium donation drives that the Giants have hosted are: Breast Cancer Awareness Day, a food drive, coat drive, Organ Donor Day, Toys for Tots drive, and blood drive.

• Breast Cancer Awareness Day

1999 marked the beginning of the Giants commitment to assist in raising awareness about breast cancer. As we all know, when a person is diagnosed with cancer it does not only affect them, but their entire family as well.

During the month of October, the Giants designate a home game as breast cancer awareness day. Volunteers from ZTA, a sorority whose annual project is to raise awareness about breast cancer, along with our players and coaches wives are on hand to distribute pink ribbons to our fans as they enter into the Stadium. We encourage our fans to show their support by displaying their pink ribbons.

In addition, the Giants front office and team members partake in Lee's Wear Denim to Work day each October. Employees may donate money to Susan G. Komen Breast Cancer Foundation which will enable them to wear denim to work on a designated day. The team does a fine job raising money, for a cause that we have all in one way or another been exposed to.

An estimated 211,240 new cases of invasive breast cancer are expected to occur among women in the United States during 2005. An estimated 40,410 women will die from breast cancer. It is estimated that 1,690 men will be diagnosed and 460 men will die of breast cancer during 2005. Carcinoma in situ (CIS) will account for about 58,490 new cases this year. At this time there are slightly more than two million women living in the United States who have been diagnosed with and treated for breast cancer. Breast cancer is the leading cancer site among American women and is second only to lung cancer in cancer deaths. Breast cancer is the leading cause of cancer deaths among women ages 40-59.

• Food Drive

Since 1997, the Giants have hosted a food drive at Giants Stadium prior to a regular season game. Thanks to the generosity of our fans, close to 5,000 pounds of canned or non-perishable food is collected each year. Trucks pick up all food donations and distribute them to the Community Food Bank of New Jersey (a division of Second Harvest) to benefit needy shelters and families in the Metropolitan area.

• Coat Drive

Since 1998 the Giants have also hosted an annual coat drive. Fans are asked to bring gently-worn coats to receiving stations at each gate of Giants Stadium prior to a game. Each year, their donations overflow numerous large bins, helping New York Cares reach its goal of collecting coats for the year. The New York Cares Coat Drive distributes collected coats to men, women and children at homeless shelters, community organizations, and centers for battered women and agencies serving senior citizens.

• Toys for Tots

Since the late 1970's the Giants have been hosting the United States Marine Corp and their annual Toys for Tots initiative. Each year, during one of our December home games, we ask our fans to bring a new unwrapped gift to donate as they enter the Stadium. The Marines are on hand to accept these gifts and then distribute them to underprivileged children during the holidays.

• Stuff the Bus

In 2004, the New York Giants launched a new stadium donation drive, the Giants Stuff the Bus Drive, sponsored by Staples©. Fans are encouraged to bring pencils, crayons, note paper and other school supplies to stuff into the Staples school bus prior to the game. The donated materials will be collected by the Community Food Bank of New Jersey and distributed to local schools in need of supplies.

• Voter Registration Day

As part of the Giants non-partisan voter registration initiative, the team dedicates one game a year to empowering local residents to register to vote. Each entrance into Giants Stadium will be staffed by local student board workers who will be registering our non-registered fans to vote as well as answering any questions that fans may have.

Alumni Man of the Year

The New York Giants are proud of their heritage and realize that much of their tradition comes from the players who have played for us throughout the years. Each year prior to the start of our season the Giants host a Kick- Off Luncheon. This luncheon benefits the John V. Mara Cancer Research Fund at St. Vincent's Hospital in NYC.

During the luncheon, awards are given to the players for their performance on the field from the season before. In addition to these awards, the Giants have created the Alumni Man of the Year Award. This award recognizes an alumni player who has demonstrated an ongoing commitment to the community in which he lives.

Past winners include: Phil Simms, George Martin, Harry Carson, Ottis Anderson, Bart Oates, Phil McConkey, Ron Johnson, Bill Ard, Chris Godfrey and Howard Cross. These distinguished gentlemen recognize that by committing themselves to the community that they can make a difference.

Adopt A Fire House

The Giants recognize the extraordinary commitment that our firefighters make on a daily basis. In order to commend their efforts, the Giants decided in 2002 to adopt a local firehouse annually.

The New York Football Giants dedicated six new large-screen DVD/VCR televisions during a luncheon ceremony at Hoboken's IAFF local 1076/1078 firehouse during their third annual Adopt-A-Firehouse event on Tuesday, September 14. The day began with a presentation of plaques by Giants middle linebacker Nick Greisen and Hoboken Mayor, David Roberts to the firefighters of North Hudson and Hoboken, and was followed by a wonderful lunch in the firehouse. Before the day ended, Greisen also made sure he tried on the firemen's equipment and took time to pose for pictures. Needless to say, both the firemen and Greisen exchanged playful jabs about who is tougher. The televisions, which are provided through a contribution by the New York Giants to the Professional Firefighters Association of New Jersey, will be placed in firehouses throughout the North Hudson and Hoboken area. These televisions will continue to allow the houses to utilize the newest fire service training programs.

The Adopt-a-Firehouse program is the New York Giants continuing effort to honor the firefighters who gave their lives on September 11, 2001. This event was the third in a continued partnership between the New York Giants and the Professional Firefighters Association of New Jersey (PFANJ). Each year, the Giants and PFANJ will team up to participate in the Adopt-a-Firehouse program. In 2003, the Giants also dedicated new Television/DVD players to the firehouses of the Hackensack area.

The first firehouse to be adopted was Rescue 1/ Squad 4, located in Jersey City, New Jersey. Together, they are two of the busiest fire companies in New Jersey. This house and the Jersey City Fire Department were one of the first New Jersey companies to respond to Ground Zero on September 11th, arriving before 9:30 a.m. that tragic day. Among the first acts of the relationship was to completely renovate the kitchen at the firehouse. The kitchen renovations were made possible by a Giants donation to the Professional Firefighters' Association of New Jersey.

Tomorrows Children's Fund

New York Giants players have a long tradition of donating their time to local hospitals, realizing that a few hours of their time can bring smiles to the faces of young children facing adversity hard to imagine. Since the inception of the Tomorrows Children's Fund in 1987, the Giants organization and its players have visited children there many times during each year. One of the team's major annual events is the Rookie Halloween Party, where rookie members of the Giants make a special appearance at Tomorrows Children's Fund Institute, located in the Don Imus-WFAN Pediatric Center at Hackensack University Medical Center to deliver candy and paint pumpkins with children undergoing cancer treatment.

The Giants Foundation is happy to announce that they have recently contributed to the The Sarkis Gabrellian Women's and Children's Pavilion at Hackensack University Medical Center, a multi-story building of 300,000 square feet that will house inpatient and stem cell transplant patients of the Tomorrows Children's Fund. The contribution will go toward a Giants Room in the new facility, which is expected to open in 2006

Tomorrows Children's Fund is a non-profit, privately funded organization that is created and governed by parents of children with cancer and blood disorders. TCF addresses the critical needs of families facing the anguish of these diseases by providing state of the art medical care, a warm, healthy and loving atmosphere for children in treatment, a wide range of services to relieve emotional and financial stress, and funding for research.

Read Across America

Each year, the New York Football Giants are proud to participate in the National Education Association's (NEA) "Read Across America" program by visiting numerous schools in the greater Metropolitan area. The program is the largest one-day literacy celebration in the U.S., attracting upwards of 45 million participants in all 50 states. NEA launched the Read Across America program in 1998. The nationwide reading celebration takes place each year on or around March 2, the birthday of beloved children's author Dr. Seuss, who epitomizes a love of learning. In cities and towns across the nation, teachers, teenagers, librarians, politicians, actors, athletes, parents, grandparents, and others develop NEA's Read Across America activities to bring reading excitement to children of all ages. Governors, mayors, and other elected officials recognize the role reading plays in their communities with proclamations and floor statements. Athletes and actors issue reading challenges to young readers. And teachers and principals seem to be more than happy to dye their hair green or be duct-taped to a wall if it boosts their students' reading.

This year we were thrilled that our own Tiki Barber along with his twin brother, Tampa Bay Buccaneer, Ronde Barber were chosen as Co-Captains for that National Education Association's "Read Across America" initiative. Both Tiki and Ronde recognize the importance of reading and education and had made that a priority long before becoming tremendous athletes in the NFL.

GIANTS WIVES

Giants players, coaches and front office wives make their mark on the community regularly. The wives have come to be called the "Giant Hearts Association." The following are programs/organizations the women have ongoing relationships with:

• Shelter Our Sisters

This shelter in Hackensack, New Jersey, serves as a safe haven for the women and children who suffer the horror or domestic violence. The foundation of the Giants' relationship with the shelter lies with the wives, who last year delivered meals to the home for the entire month of October (Domestic Violence Awareness). The women also began renovating the house, a project that will continue - room by room - until the house is the best it can be. To commend the Giants Wives for their hard work and dedication, SOS made them their guests of honor at the SOS Inaugural Golf Classic. SOS also enabled a State of New Jersey Senate Resolution honoring and saluting the Giant Hearts Association for their tireless efforts.

• Hudson Cradle

During the season, Giants wives make periodic visits to Hudson Cradle, a home for babies who are born either with AIDS, or addicted to drugs, or both. The women spend time holding the babies and they also have made donations of new baby clothing and supplies. In addition to their visits, The Giants Foundation supports Hudson Cradle by donating all of the proceeds from the annual Giants Draft Day 5K. Hudson Cradle is an infant group home providing care for homeless infants with special needs, many who are former 'Boarder Babies' - newborn infants who are healthy enough to be discharged from a hospital, but whose families are either unwilling or unable to provide for their needs. Most of the babies are prenatally drug exposed, some are HIV exposed, and some have been abused or neglected. Hudson Cradle also provides educational and support services to birth and foster parents to prepare them to live as a family.

• Ronald McDonald House

Giants wives are a key component in the Giants' relationship with the Ronald McDonald House of New York City. They not only accompany their husbands to annual fundraising events, but they have also done fashion shows and taken other initiatives to help benefit the House.

THE GIANTS FOUNDATION

MISSION STATEMENT

The Giants believe that the youth of today represent our community's future. The Giants Foundation was created to act as a network for financial and social support for disadvantaged youth and their families throughout the greater metropolitan area. All grant recipients must be 501 (c) 3 charitable organizations involved in areas such as education, health, youth-related services or civic affairs. The Giants Foundation was founded by the New York Giants Football Club.

FOUNDATION BOARD

Wellington Mara (president and Co-Chief Executive Officer for the Giants), Preston Robert Tisch (Chairman and Co-Chief Executive Officer for the Giants), John K. Mara (Executive Vice President and General Counsel for the Giants) and Jonathan Tisch (Treasurer for the Giants).

FUND RAISING – The Giants raise funds though their annual golf outing and through the sale of the Giants calendars, yearbooks and other related fundraising efforts.

Giants Invitational Golf Classic

Tuesday, May 31, marked the Fourteenth Annual Giants Golf Classic benefiting The Giants Foundation. Through The Giants Foundation, local charitable organizations are the benefactors of the New York Giants Golf Classic. Friends of the New York Giants, along with past and present Giants players, gathered to participate in a shotgun start format.

After 18 holes of golf on the Canoe Brook Country Club, golfers and guests attended a dinner and live auction. Live auction items included trips to the Super Bowl, a father-son trip with the team to Washington on a chartered Giants train and Giants season tickets.

The day was filled with laughs, good food, teamwork and a bit of competitiveness. Friendships were formed, stories were told and money was raised to assist The Giants Foundation in administering grants to local charities.

It is a great day that many people look forward to each year.

Giants Academy

Giants Academy, the Giants charter academic program located in Louise A. Spencer School in Newark, NJ, was opened in September of 1994. The program is a cooperative effort between the New York Giants and Communities in Schools to create a heightened learning environment for 6th, 7th, and 8th graders in Spencer School who are designated as "at risk" students.

The program consists of approximately 50 students and focuses on improving math, reading, leadership skills, as well as social skills. Seventh graders participate in a mandatory drug education program, focusing on the prevention of drug, tobacco and alcohol abuse. In addition to their educational curriculum, every student is required to complete a minimum of 3 hours of community service each semester. Giants Academy created Helping Others to Achieve (H.O.T.A.) to facilitate these community service projects. Through H.O.T.A., Giants Academy students regularly serve lunch to the homeless at soup kitchens located in Newark and volunteer their time and services to the Salvation Army, American Rescue Workers and the Light House, located in Newark.

Giants players are regular visitors to the Academy, stopping by the Academy once a month during the school year to talk to the students and check on their academic performance. When possible, players will also accompany the students on their community service visits. Students from Giants Academy also visit the Giants during Training Camp at the University at Albany each summer and attend a Giants home game each season. This gives the children an opportunity to leave the city for a day and visit a college campus and also experience the excitement of NFL football.

Communities in Schools is a national leader in promoting and facilitating the coordinated delivery of existing health, social, education and other support services at educational sites for the benefit of at-risk youth and their families. The mission of New Jersey Communities in Schools is to develop public and private partnerships that connect appropriate human services with at-risk youth in addressing such critical issues as school attendance, literacy, job preparedness, teen pregnancy, drug and alcohol abuse, teen suicide and school violence.

Habitat for Humanity

In 2004, the New York Giants and Wachovia Bank expanded upon their corporate relationship by embarking upon a new community based endeavor, building a house for a deserving family. Through the efforts of Habitat for Humanity of Newark, the Giants and Wachovia spent nine months assisting with the actual building of this new home located in Newark, NJ. The partnership consisted of complete financial funding for the building materials and supplies as well as volunteer staffing for the build from both organizations.

The house was completed in March, 2005 with one additional touch to the house that the homeowners were unaware of until they reached their front door on move in day....the Giants "Homes for the Holidays" program moved them in before they had the opportunity to unpack.

Habitat for Humanity Newark is an affiliate of Habitat for Humanity International—a nonprofit, ecumenical Christian housing ministry that seeks to eliminate poverty housing and homelessness from the world, and to make decent shelter a matter of conscience and action. Founded in 1986, Habitat Newark is building hope, homes, and a strong sense of community in the City of Newark, New Jersey. Since its inception Habitat for Humanity Newark has constructed 52 homes.

Homes for the Holidays

Homes for the Holidays is the brainchild or Atlanta Falcon, Warrick Dunn, which has been replicated by several teams and players throughout the NFL. The purpose of the program is to help single mothers become first-time homeowners by providing the down payments on new homes. Each mother involved in the program has worked hard to reach the dream of providing a stable environment for her family.

With his permission, former NY Giants cornerback Jason Sehorn took on the initiative and implemented his version in Newark, NJ. While with the Giants, Jason was able to donate seven homes. The Giants currently maintain the initiative in order to carry on the good work that Warrick and Jason have done in the community.

Thanks to the generosity of IKEA, each Giants home is also filled with all with the necessary supplies to make them complete. These items include furniture, linens, lawn and gardening supplies, washer, dryer, food, pots and pans, dishes, etc.

Football 101

Football 101 is an interactive educational program designed exclusively for women. The NFL developed the club-level program, which the Giants implemented in 1998, to educate women - who make up 47 percent of the NFL's fan base - on the fundamentals of football.

THE GIANTS FOUNDATION

Football 101 "professors" include top Giants players who discuss topics such as the history of the game, offense, defense, special teams, penalties, downs, official signals, and a week in the life of an NFL player during the season. The players even share some of their football superstitions and helpful hints on enjoying a game.

Women have the chance to actively participate in the lessons, ask plenty of questions, enjoy a nice dinner, and even take a tour of the field and the locker room. Proceeds from Football 101 go to My Sister's Place/Giants Courage House, a domestic violence shelter located in Westchester, New York.

Football 201 is a chance for Football 101 graduates and other women to get a hands-on lesson of the game. The Giants started the program in 2001 in response to the many Football 101 graduates who were looking to apply their acquired knowledge through actual on-field drills.

Women have the chance to be coached by Giants players and actually participate in drills and plays on the turf where the Giants practice!

Proceeds from Football 201 also go to My Sister's Place/Giants Courage House, a domestic violence shelter located in Westchester, New York.

Giants Draft Day 5K

Each year, in the morning hours of NFL Draft Saturday, hundreds of runners and Giants fans converge on Giants Stadium to participate in the Giants Draft Day 5K road race to benefit The Giants Foundation.

The race takes participants in and around the Giants Stadium complex on a flat and fast course with water stops and mile clocks and concludes on the 50-yard line of the field. Giants players also participate in the race and congratulate winners at the awards ceremony.

The 5K Run kicks off the fun-filled draft day, as participants in the 5K also receive free admission into the Giants Draft Day Party following the race where they can watch the first round of the draft unfold.

Ronald McDonald House

The Giants have a long tradition of working with the Ronald McDonald House of New York City, which is a temporary home to families from all over the world who have traveled to the city primarily for pediatric cancer treatment available only in New York's hospitals.

In 1997, the Giants dedicated the "Giants Room" on the House's Sports Floor. Kids who stay in this room can easily become instant Giants fans, as they are surrounded by Giants decorations, pillows, blankets, and more.

Each year, the Giants host their annual "Meet the Giants" event to benefit the Ronald McDonald House of New York City at the Park Avenue Country Club in Manhattan. Guests at the event have the chance to talk, take photos and eat dinner with the players while bidding on auction items that range from game tickets to signed memorabilia. The "Meet the Giants" event helps raise enough money each year so that families staying in the Giants Room located on the Sports Floor do not have to pay any type of fee.

The Giants also participate in an annual Holiday Party at the Ronald McDonald House to help raise the spirits of the children and families staying there. Players join the kids for an evening of gift giving, caroling, and arts and crafts.

NFL COMMUNITY PROGRAMS

My Sister's Place
"Giants Courage House"

The Giants are proud of their partnership with the Ed Block Courage Award Foundation to support My Sister's Place, a domestic violence shelter for women and their children. The relationship has been in place since 1997, when the two organizations provided key support to the recently-opened shelter, which was formally dedicated as the "Giants Courage House." The Giants' commitment to My Sister's Place includes providing financial assistance and making appearances at their annual fundraising events, which bring awareness about domestic violence and date-abuse.

My Sisters' Place, a Westchester County agency, assists over 1,000 women, children and teenage girls each year to fashion a safer life. Core services include shelter, hotline, support groups, counseling, housing assistance, a Life Skills program, a children's program, a teen program called SAFER, and a Legal Center. In addition, the agency provides extensive education and training to over 6,000 teens in the county about teen date abuse, training for doctors, nurses and mental health professionals, community education and a new Domestic Violence Institute.

Currently, the Foundation's Courage House National Support Network is comprised of 17 NFL teams with the goal of having a courage House in each NFL city.

NFL COMMUNITY PROGRAMS

NFL YOUTH FOOTBALL INITIATIVES

Play Football Week

The NFL, USA Football, and all 32 NFL Clubs have joined together to create Play Football Week, a national program that is held across the country to drive support for youth football. Play Football Week is designed to promote the sport and intrinsic values gained from participation in youth football at the grassroots level and will target children (primarily ages 9-14), parents, coaches, administrators, etc. Play Football Week takes place during the third week of the NFL pre-season to coincide with the kickoff of the college football season. The Giants 2005 Play Football Week celebration is currently being developed right now – check back over the summer for details.

New York Giants Flag Fest

Each fall, the New York Giants, in conjunction with the National Football League, host a NY Giants FLAG Football event for youngsters in the tri-state area. Eligible NFL FLAG teams in the area can register for this day-long event. Information on the 2005 NY

Giants Flag Football Tournament, including registration information, will be available on Giants.com.

New York Giants Punt, Pass and Kick

The NY Giants host annual PPK events at the Giants Training Camp in Albany, NY. Established in 1961, the PP&K program is the oldest NFL Youth Football program.

NFL COMMUNITY PROGRAMS

Girls and boys in four separate age divisions (8-9, 10-11, 12-13, and 14-15) compete against each other in punting, passing and place kicking in a fun and engaging forum. Click here for more information on these and other PPK events in your area. www.nflyouthfootball.com

New York Giants Junior Player Development

As a way to improve the quality of NJ area youth football and prepare 12-14 year old boys for high school competition, the Giants assist local coaches in offering the Junior Player Development program in their communities. The local execution of the NFL's official developmental curriculum involves 150-180 boys participating in a four-week/twelve-session training program that teaches every participant each position in a structured and fun manner. In addition, life skills messages and character development are integrated into all the on-field practices. Click here for more information on local events in your area.

Hometown Huddle

Hometown Huddles is a national "NFL Super Tuesday," where NFL players and coaches from each of the 32 teams simultaneously participate in various community service activities through local United Way partners.

The New York Giants and Jets use the annual occasion to join hands with the NFL, the United Way of New York City and the City of New York Department of Parks and Recreation (Manhattan Borough) to continue work on a long-term partnership that is bringing much-needed resources to Highbridge Recreation Center in the Washington Heights section of New York City. The goal of this ongoing relationship is to add a new service to the Center every year. This community was largely affected by the American Airlines flight 587 crash on November 12, 2001.

In 2002, the first phase of the relationship included a day when youth from the area were invited to Highbridge Recreation Center to participate in a youth football drill experience and have lunch with players from both teams. The day concluded with the presentation of a check for $10,000 to the City of New York Parks and Recreation, allowing the Highbridge Center to hire a recreation supervisor for their after-school program.

2003 featured the creation of a computer center in the Highbridge Recreation Center, thanks to the donation of $10,000 for the purpose of providing a fully equipped computer center for use by the previously created after-school program and the Washington Heights community at-large.

In 2004, the teams joined the United Way for the third and final addition to the Highbridge Recreation Center: a multi-purpose wood floor. The new surface will complement the numerous activities that are hosted by the center, including: martial arts, dance, as well as senior's and youth activities.

Community Quarterback

Funded by NFL Charities, the Giants Community Quarterback Award honors youth and community volunteers who have demonstrated leadership, dedication and commitment to bettering the community in which they live. The Community Quarterback Award was created in 2000 by the National Football League to recognize outstanding volunteers in every NFL market.

Residents in New York, New Jersey and Connecticut, age 13 and older, who provide volunteer services for 509/501c3 organizations are eligible for nomination. Nominees may only serve in a volunteer capacity and may not receive any compensation - monetary or otherwise - for their work.

The Giants, with the assistance of local media, community leaders, and team representatives will choose ten finalists. Each finalist receives a $1,000 grant for their organization, with the Community Quarterback winner receiving a grant of $10,000 for their organization. Winners are announced publicly each step of the way, and are recognized for their efforts at a luncheon held by the Giants each spring.

All local winners will be eligible for the National Community Quarterback Award that includes finalists from every NFL market. In late December, the NFL will announce a national winner who will receive a $15,000 donation to the agency/organization where the national winner volunteers.

Coach of the Week

The Lou Rettino High School Football Coach of the Week Award was started in 1996 and is part of the Giants' continuing effort to promote youth football. Each week during the high school football season, the Giants will honor one high school head coach in the greater Metropolitan area as the Coach of the Week. The selection is based on the coach's continuing commitment towards promoting youth football, developing motivated student-athletes and his overall community involvement.

The Coach of the Week Award includes a $1000 donation from the New York Giants and NFL Charities to the school's football program. At the conclusion of the season, the Giants will also select a Coach of the Year, whose football program will receive a $2000 donation.

The Giants elected to name the Coach of the Week Award in memory of former Union High School (NJ) coach, Lou Rettino, for his fine commitment to his student-athletes, the game of football and his community.

NFL Grassroots Program

The NFL Grassroots program is a partnership of the National Football League and the Local Initiatives Support Corporation (LISC) to provide non-profit, neighborhood-based organizations with financing and technical assistance to improve the quality, safety and accessibility of local football fields.

Since 1998, the NFL Grassroots program has provided $8 million in grants and helped community organizations rebuild 98 football fields in more than 50 urban neighborhoods. The NFL, NFLPA and LISC identify local nonprofit, neighborhood-based agencies in each city, which are provided with financing and technical assistance to improve the quality and safety of football fields in their local schools, parks and neighborhoods. The local groups then oversee the construction, maintenance, and programming of the fields.

The NFL and LISC issue a Request for Proposals, or an open invitation to all qualified non-profit organizations in NFL markets to submit proposals for funding. LISC makes recommendations regarding the applicants to NFL Youth Football Fund Board of Directors. Once a decision has been made the NFL contacts the local team and they work together to make announcements.

The Giants have been awarded monies through the NFL Grassroots program to assist in the renovation of West Side Park Football Field. In 1998 the monies were used for the redevelopment of the actual field. In 2002, West Side Park used the funds to finish the facility by installing bleachers and constructing locker rooms with showers and restrooms.

The Giants are thrilled to see the efforts of the Newark Community Development Network at work.

Walter Payton Man of the Year

The prestigious Walter Payton Award honors the NFL Man of the Year. It is the only NFL award that recognizes a player for his community service activities as well as his excellence on the field. Renamed in 1999 for the legendary Chicago Bears Pro Football Hall of Fame running back, the Walter Payton award has been given annually since 1970.

Each of the 32 teams elects their own Man of the Year. That players name is then submitted to the NFL's elite panel of judges including NFL Commissioner Paul Tagliabue, Sports Illustrated writer Peter King, Connie Payton (wife of the late Walter Payton), and former players Frank Gifford, Jack Kemp, John Mackey and the previous year's Award winner. The winner's designated charity receives a $25,000 donation in his name. Charities selected by the other team finalists receive a $1,000 donation each.

Campbell's ® Chunky Tackle Hunger Campaign

Campbell's Chunky soup and the NFL have partnered since 1997 to coordinate and promote the Campbell's Chunky/NFL Tackling Hunger campaign. The Tackling Hunger campaign is a year-long, nationwide effort to help raise much-needed food bank donations in communities across America. To date, the Tackling Hunger campaign has generated donations of more than 26 million pounds of food through a series of initiatives that last from training camp through the Super Bowl each NFL season. Giants' own Michael Strahan joins other Tackling Hunger co-captains Donovan McNabb, Brian Urlacher and Jerome Bettis in leading an end-of-season food drive and announces the total donation raised by the campaign.

Throughout the season, the Tackling Hunger tour bus hits the road and visits NFL stadiums across the country. Each summer, the tour bus visits Giants training camp at the University at Albany and Giants Stadium. The Tackling Hunger tour is a season-long community driven program that educates fans about the issue of hunger through fun and interactive activities. At each stop, fans walk away with ideas on how they'll be able to Tackle Hunger in their own community.
